Government Operations,1954      Korean War Atrocities United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Government Operations. Subcommittee on Korean War Atrocities,1954      Korean War Atrocities United States,1954      Film Phenomenology and Adaptation David Evan Richard,2025-10-01 Film Phenomenology and Adaptation Sensuous Elaboration argues that in order to make sense of film adaptation we must first apprehend their sensual form Across its chapters this book brings the philosophy and research methodology of phenomenology into contact with adaptation studies examining how vision hearing touch and the structures of the embodied imagination and memory thicken and make tangible an adaptation s source In doing so this book not only conceives adaptation as an intertextual layering of source material and adaptation but also an intersubjective and textural experience that includes the materiality of the body      The Passion of Martin Scorsese Annette Wernblad,2014-01-10 From his earliest shorts to his recent feature films The Departed and Shutter Island this book offers an in depth analysis of the deepest archetypal themes symbols and structures in Martin Scorsese s entire body of work It examines each of Scorsese s films as a mythological journey through which the main character is offered an opportunity for psychological and spiritual enlightenment focusing especially on how each character is led to recognize accept and embrace his or her flawed traits The book also explores the ways in which Scorsese s films incite extreme reactions and strike deep chords within his viewers particularly by speaking the language of the unconscious and forcing readers to examine their own hidden flaws      Bible and Cinema Adele Reinhartz,2022-03-30 Bible and Cinema An Introduction is a comprehensive examination of how the Bible has been used and represented in mainstream cinema to develop its plots characters and themes The book considers two general types of films Bible movies that retell biblical stories such as the Exodus and the life of Jesus and Bible related movies that make use of biblical books stories verses and figures and Bibles themselves to tell non biblical often fictional narratives Topics covered include the contribution of Bible and Bible related movies to the history of the Bible s reception the ways in which filmmakers make use of scripture to address and reflect their own time and place the Bible as a vehicle through which films can address social and political issues reflect human experiences and emotions explore existential issues such as evil and death and express themes such as destruction and redemption the role of the Bible as a source of ethics and morality and how this role is both perpetuated and undermined in a range of contemporary Hollywood films and film as a medium for experiences of transcendence and the role of the Bible in creating such experiences This thoroughly updated second edition includes insightful analysis of films such as Noah Gods and Men Mary Magdalene and The Shawshank Redemption paying attention to visual and aural elements as well as plot character and dialogue The book also includes pedagogical resources including discussions of film theory as well as key words and discussion questions Teachers students and anyone interested in the intersection of Bible and cinema will find this an invaluable guide to a growing field      Beyond Dixon of Dock Green Susan Sydney-Smith,2002-05-24 In 1955 a brand new television series Dixon of Dock Green came to Britain s screens whose eponymous hero had featured in The Blue Lamp 1950 Although it has traditionally been assumed that the uniform police series begins with the Ealing film this book based on original archive research challenges this assumption proposing that in fact these series were shaped by changes in television's social role from the relaying of news to the replaying of stories Susan Sydney Smith demonstrates how the development of the British television police drama and indeed British television in general was more complex than accepted accounts allow She traces numerous lineages from inter war public service films live studio crime reconstructions and story documentaries such as 1942's Target for Tonight through to the mix of public service and entertainment values embodied by the BBC Television Light Entertainment's Dixon of Dock Green Showing how the genre mapped new social and regional geographies from Dixon's metropolitan policeman to the gritty northern realism of Jacks and Knaves and Z Cars with its irascible Barlow the author follows the increasing commercialization of television in the sixties investigating how the BBC set about restoring the values of southern England in the 1966 Z Cars spin off Softly Softly with its more palatable protagonist The book also offers insights not only into the relationship between early British television and its cinematic forebears but also early radio A Staley, 2021-08-12 Jesus films arose with cinema itself Richard Walsh and Jeffrey L. Staley introduce students to these films with a general overview of the Jesus film tradition and with specific analyses of 22 of its most influential exemplars stretching from La vie du Christ 1906 to Mary Magdalene 2018 The introduction to each film includes discussion of plot characters visuals appeal to authority and cultural location as well as consideration of the director's and/or other filmmakers achievements and style Several film chapters end with reflections on problematic issues bedeviling

the tradition such as cultural imperialism and patriarchy To assist teachers and researchers each chapter includes a listing of DVD chapters and the approximate time for both DVDs and streaming platforms at which key film moments occur The book also includes a Gospels Harmony cataloging the time at which key gospel incidents appear in these films Extensive endnotes point readers to other important work on the tradition and specific films While the authors strive to set the Jesus film tradition within cinema and its interpretation the DVD streaming listing and the Gospels Harmony facilitate the comparison of these films to gospel interpretation and the Jesus tradition
