Wettlaufer, 2021-11-08 This comparative interdisciplinary study investigates the relationship between literature and the visual arts in France and Britain from 1750 1900 Through a close examination of the prose writings of Diderot Baudelaire and Ruskin read against the background of contemporary philosophy aesthetics and theories of language In the Mind s Eye proposes a new interpretation of the influence and rivalries underlying the development of art criticism as a genre during this period The visual impulse the desire to transcend the limitations of language and make the reader see is located within the historical traditions of ekphrasis enargeia and the paragone while in each chapter the individual author s theories of the mind memory and imagination provide a critical framework for his stylistic experiments In the Mind s Eye presents an in depth analysis of the cultural theoretical and aesthetic implications of artistic border crossings and by contextualizing the movement toward visual verbal hybridity in the fiction and criticism of Diderot Baudelaire and Ruskin brings new perspectives to nineteenth century studies in art and literature Views and Viewmakers of Urban America John William Repts, 1984 Union list catalog of the lithographic views of cities and towns made during the 19th century Vision, the Gaze, and the Function of the Senses in "Celestina" James F. Burke, 2015-08-10 The plot of the late medieval Spanish work Celestina 1499 centers on the ill fated love of Calisto and Melibea and the fascinating character of their intermediary Celestina In this ground breaking rereading of the play James F Burke offers a new interpretation of the characters actions by analyzing medieval theories of perception that would have influenced the composition of Celestina Drawing upon a variety of texts and thinkers including the medieval theories of Thomas Aquinas the Renaissance treatises of Marsilio Ficino the classical philosophy of Aristotle and the modern psychology of Jacques Lacan Burke relates ancient and medieval theories of sensory functions to modern understandings He demonstrates that modern concepts of the gaze have their premodern analogy in the idea of an all encompassing sensory field both visual and auditory that surrounded and enveloped each individual Touching on medieval theories of the evil eye the sonic sphere and the banquet of the senses Burke offers a new perspective on the use and manipulation of sensory input by the characters of Celestina This book will be welcomed not only by students of Spanish literature but also by those interested in new ways of approaching medieval and Renaissance texts

New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State)., Eye HEar the Visual in Music Simon Shaw-Miller, 2013 Eye hEar The Visual in Music employs the concept of the visual in proximate relation to music producing a tension is it not the case that there is a gulf between painting and music between the visible and the audible One is full of colour and light yet silent one is invisible and marvellously noisy Such a belief this book argues betrays an ideological constraint on music desiccating it to sound and art to vision The starting point of this study is more hybrid and hydrating that music is never employed without numerous and complex intersections with the visual By involving the concept of synaesthesia the book evokes music's multi sensory nature stops it from sounding alone and offers music as a subject for art historians Music bleeds into art and visuality in its graphic depiction in notation in the theatre of performance its sights and sites This book looks at music in its absolute guise as a model for art at notation and the conductor as the silent visual fulcrum around which music circulates at the music and image of Erik Satie at the concert hall as white cube at the symphonic film 2001 A Space Odyssey and at the liminality of John Cage and Andy Warhol

The Novel and The Police D. A. Miller, 1988 With the appearance of D A Miller's remarkable book the Victorian novel has its most dazzling critic in years Miller's subject is not so much the police in fiction as fiction and policing narrative as a conservative function of the polis Tracking diverse strategies of surveillance and incarceration into the confines of the fictional institution itself Miller investigates Victorian novels as the often unconscious agent of a disciplinary culture He thus reads fiction reading us keeping a public in its private place His mastery of an intricate layered and sinuous argument is stunning the writing no less than superb For all the book s overarching debt to Foucault D A Miller do the police in a voice all his own Garrett Stewart author of Death Sentences Styles of Dying in British Fiction The Novel Map Patrick M.
