Eyes On The Prizepowerpromised Land:

Eyes on the Prize, 1986 Total Control: The Monkees Michael Nesmith Story Randi L. Massingill, 2005-01-01 Hey Hey Its the untold story of The Monkees Wool hat Michael Nesmith with the behind the scenes scoop about touring with Jimi Hendrix filmmaking with Jack Nicholson and so much more Also detailed is his invention of MTV and his mother Bette who invented Liquid Paper This 2005 Revised edition features two updated chapters and additional photos 176 total photos 300 pages An American Health Dilemma W. Michael Byrd, Linda A. Clayton, 2001-12-21 First published in 2002 An American Health Dilemma is the story of medicine in the United States from the perspective of people who were consistently officially mistreated abused or neglected by the Western medical tradition and the US health care system It is also the compelling story of African Americans fighting to participate fully in the health care professions in the face of racism and the increased power of health corporations and HMOs This tour de force of research on the relationship between race medicine and health care in the United States is an extraordinary achievement by two of the leading lights in the field of public health Ten years out it is finally updated with a new third volume taking the story up to the present and beyond remaining the premiere and only reference on black public health and the history of African American medicine on the market today No one who is concerned with American race relations with access to and quality of health care or with justice and equality for humankind can afford to miss this powerful resource Reconciliation and Repair Melissa Schwartzberg, Eric Beerbohm, 2023-05-02 Features contributions that respond to deep challenges to social cohesion from racial injustice In the latest installment of the NOMOS series a distinguished group of interdisciplinary scholars explore the erosion and potential rebuilding of civic bonds in response to injustice wrongdoing and betrayal Contributors address the possibility of reconciliation and repair drawing on cutting edge insights from the fields of political science philosophy and law Nine timely essays explore our pivotal moment in history from the question of reparations for slavery to the from the art and impact of the public apology The editors of this volume encourage us to not only examine the roots of mistrust but also to imagine a collective way forward particularly as we face the continuing threat of the COVID 19 pandemic Reconciliation and Repair provides thought provoking perspectives in an age where they are desperately needed Race in American Television David J. Leonard, Stephanie Troutman Robbins, 2021-01-26 This two volume encyclopedia explores representations of people of color in American television It includes overview essays on early classic and contemporary television and the challenges for developments related to and participation of minorities on and behind the screen Covering five decades this encyclopedia highlights how race has shaped television and how television has shaped society Offering critical analysis of moments and themes throughout television history Race in American Television shines a spotlight on key artists of color prominent shows and the debates that have defined television since the civil rights movement This book also examines the ways in which television has been a site for both reproduction of stereotypes and resistance to them providing a basis for discussion about racial issues in the United States This set provides a significant resource for students and fans of television alike not only educating but also empowering readers with the necessary tools to consume and watch the small screen and explore its impact on the evolution of racial and ethnic stereotypes in U S culture and beyond Understanding the history of American television contributes to deeper knowledge and potentially helps us to better apprehend the plethora of diverse shows and programs on Netflix Hulu YouTube and other platforms today Civil Rights History from the Ground Up Emilye Crosby,2011 After decades of scholarship on the civil rights movement at the local level the insights of bottom up movement history remain essentially invisible in the accepted narrative of the movement and peripheral to debates on how to research document and teach about the movement This collection of original works refocuses attention on this bottom up history and compels a rethinking of what and who we think is central to the movement The essays examine such locales as Sunflower County Mississippi Memphis Tennessee and Wilson North Carolina and engage such issues as nonviolence and self defense the implications of focusing on women in the movement and struggles for freedom beyond voting rights and school desegregation Events and incidents discussed range from the movement s heyday to the present and include the Poor People s Campaign mule train to Washington D C the popular response to the deaths of Rosa Parks and Coretta Scott King and political cartoons addressing Barack Obama s presidential campaign The kinds of scholarship represented here which draw on oral history and activist insights along with traditional sources and which bring the specificity of time and place into dialogue with broad themes and a national context are crucial as we continue to foster scholarly debates evaluate newer conceptual frameworks and replace the superficial narrative that persists in the popular imagination An American Health Dilemma: Race, medicine, and health care in the United States 1900-2000 W. Michael Byrd,Linda A. Clayton,2000 This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play s various printed versions and its theatrical productions Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play The issues discussed include gender authority female autonomy and unruliness courtship and marriage language and speech and performance and theatricality Statewide Audiovisual Service ... Catalog Florida. Statewide Audiovisual Service,1997 Loss and Discovery Russell M. Linden,2021-09-16 This book offers guidance to professional and lay leaders on how to lead change during disruptive times It explores Torah episodes as well as numerous contemporary examples all of which reveal important lessons on what to do and what not to do when navigating today s unpredictable and turbulent environment The book draws on biblical sources leadership studies neuropsychology history economics and other fields that help leaders understand how to prepare for and implement change It also includes insights from Abraham Lincoln Ruth Bader Ginsburg Nelson Mandela and Colin Powell as well as change agents in religious communities law enforcement human services and politics The emphasis is on practical methods that leaders can begin using today Freedom Facts and Firsts Jessie Carney Smith,Linda T Wynn,2009-01-01 Spanning nearly

400 years from the early abolitionists to the present Freedom Facts and Firsts 400 Years of the African American Civil Rights Experience profiles more than 400 people places and events that have shaped the history of the black struggle for freedom Covering such mainstay figures as Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and Rosa Parks as well as delving into how lesser known figures contributed to and shaped the history of civil rights Freedom Facts and Firsts chronicles the breadth and passion of an entire people's quest for freedom Among the inspiring stories found in this comprehensive resource are How the Housewives League of Detroit started a nationwide movement to support black businesses helping many to survive the Great Depression What effect the sports journalist Samuel Harold Lacy had on Jackie Robinson's historic entrance into the major leagues How the 9th and 10th Cavalry and the 24th and 25th Infantry became known as the Buffalo Soldiers a term of respect and endearment How Whoopi Goldberg survived poverty drug addiction single parenthood and a welfare income and used her personal history to take a satirical look at social issues How world champion bicyclist Marshall Major Taylor was the first American born black champion in any sport How in 1890 John Mercer Langston became the first black U S congressman elected from his native state of Virginia This inspiring resource offers an encouraging look at the historic struggles and triumphs of black men and women in politics arts music journalism law social work and sports the authors chart a full and inspiring history of African American activism

Inside Ocean Hill □ Brownsville Charles S. Isaacs, 2014-05-09 The story of an Ocean Hill Brownsville teacher who crossed picket lines during the racially charged New York City teachers strike of 1968 In 1968 the conflict that erupted over community control of the New York City public schools was centered in the black and Puerto Rican community of Ocean Hill Brownsville It triggered what remains the longest teachers strike in US history That clash between the city's communities of color and the white predominantly Jewish teachers union paralyzed the nation's largest school system undermined the city's economy and heightened racial tensions ultimately transforming the national conversation about race relations At age twenty two when the strike was imminent Charles S Isaacs abandoned his full scholarship to a prestigious law school to teach mathematics in Ocean Hill Brownsville Despite his Jewish background and pro union leanings Isaacs crossed picket lines manned by teachers who looked like him and took the side of parents and children who did not He now tells the story of this conflict not only from inside the experimental community controlled Ocean Hill Brownsville district its focal point but from within ground zero itself Junior High School 271 which became the nation's most famous or infamous public school Isaacs brings to life the innovative teaching practices that community control made possible and the relationships that developed in the district among its white teachers and its black and Puerto Rican parents teachers and community activists Inside Ocean Hill Brownsville is one of the finest accounts of this turbulent time in America's educational history As a firsthand analysis of a teacher embroiled in the Ocean Hill Brownsville community fight for educational justice it has no peer From its vantage point forty five years after the conflict we finally have a corrective to a plethora of secondhand analyses that have been written over the years It is a candid picture that I recommend highly

Maurice R Berube coeditor of Confrontation at Ocean Hill Brownsville Inside Ocean Hill Brownsville makes a vital contribution to a much needed reinterpretation of the epochal struggles over community control of the New York City public schools in the 1960s and the divisive UFT fall 1968 strikes in opposition to that community based movement Writing from the firsthand perspective of a young Jewish math teacher at JHS 271 Isaacs brings this important story vividly to life with insight candor and humor He evokes the attitudes and actions of a rich array of ordinary teachers administrators students and parents who fought to defend the community control experiment in the face of the lies and distortions perpetrated by UFT officials and the mainstream press A must read for anyone interested in creating successful public schools this book helps us remember what democratic public education might look like Stephen Brier The Graduate Center City University of New York Charles Isaacs's Inside Ocean Hill Brownsville is a firsthand account of the dramatic events of New York City's greatest school crisis Isaacs debunks many of the popular myths of black militants waging assaults on teachers Instead he demonstrates that the episode in Ocean Hill Brownsville was a case of black and Latino parents with the support of a number of teachers at JHS 271 struggling for the education of their children and for a more democratically run educational system These parents faced one of the most powerful unions in the city and a bureaucratic board of education that wanted to protect the status quo There have been many books written on the 1968 teachers strike but Isaacs's well written detailed account is by far the best Clarence Taylor author of Knocking at Our Own Door Milton A Galamison and the Struggle to Integrate New York City Schools Film and Video Finder, 1997, 1997 Film & Video Finder, 1997 Let the People See Elliott J. Gorn, 2018-10-01 Elliott Gorn explores and evokes the full story of murder that transfixed and transformed the nation

King of the North Jeanne Theoharis, 2025-04-01 A Ms Magazine Most Anticipated Book From the New York Times bestselling author a radical reframing of the life and work of Martin Luther King Jr Theoharis shows us through penetrating research and sensitive scholarly insight that Dr King not only was keenly aware of the history of antiblack racism in the North but battled it from the very beginning of his career Henry Louis Gates Jr The Martin Luther King Jr of popular memory vanquished Jim Crow in the South But in this myth shattering book award winning and New York Times bestselling historian Jeanne Theoharis argues that King's time in Boston New York Los Angeles and Chicago outside Dixie was at the heart of his campaign for racial justice King of the North follows King as he crisscrosses the country from the Northeast to the West Coast challenging school segregation police brutality housing segregation and job discrimination For these efforts he was relentlessly attacked by white liberals the media and the federal government In this bold retelling King emerges as a someone who not only led a movement but who showed up for other people's struggles a charismatic speaker who also listened and learned a Black man who experienced police brutality a minister who lived with and organized alongside the poor and a husband who despite his flaws depended on Coretta Scott King as an intellectual and political guide in the national fight against racism poverty and war King of the North speaks directly to our struggles over racial inequality today

Just as she restored Rosa Parks's central place in modern American history so Theoharis radically expands our understanding of King's life and work a vision of justice unfulfilled in the present Colors ,1993 Gopen's Guide to Closed Captioned Video Stuart Gopen,1993 Living for the City Donna Jean Murch,2010-10-04 In this nuanced and groundbreaking history Donna Murch argues that the Black Panther Party BPP started with a study group Drawing on oral history and untapped archival sources she explains how a relatively small city with a recent history of African American settlement produced such compelling and influential forms of Black Power politics During an era of expansion and political struggle in California's system of public higher education black southern migrants formed the BPP In the early 1960s attending Merritt College and other public universities radicalized Huey Newton Bobby Seale and many of the young people who joined the Panthers rank and file In the face of social crisis and police violence the most disfranchised sectors of the East Bay's African American community young poor and migrant challenged the legitimacy of state authorities and of an older generation of black leadership By excavating this hidden history Living for the City broadens the scholarship of the Black Power movement by documenting the contributions of black students and youth who created new forms of organization grassroots mobilization and political literacy Catalog of Visual Media Suburban Library System (Burr Ridge, Ill.). Audio Visual Service,1995 The Hollywood Reporter ,1991
