Spirit of the New England Tribes William S. Simmons, 2018-03-06 Spanning three centuries this collection traces the historical evolution of legends folktales and traditions of four major native American groups from their earliest encounters with European settlers to the present The book is based on some 240 folklore texts gathered from early colonial writings newspapers magazines diaries local histories anthropology and folklore publications a variety of unpublished manuscript sources and field research with living Indians

Awakening African Women Ginette Curry, 2004 The book is a comparative analysis of recent films by African male and female filmmakers and literary works by female African authors from Senegal Mali the Ivory Coast Nigeria Togo and Burkina Faso The films are Finzan Cheikh Oumar Sissoko 1990 Women with Open Eyes Anne Laure Folly 1994 and Faces of Women Desire Ecare 1985 In addition the manuscript includes the study of Women are Different Flora Nwapa 1986 Double Yoke Buchi Emecheta 1983 and So Long a Letter Mariama Ba 1980 Curry analyzes the homogeneous themes such as oppression sabotage cultural alienation exploitation sexual bargaining and the changing dynamics of sexual relationships that appear through these productions She concludes that African women continue to undergo a metamorphosis This transformation is the result of a blend of traditionally African and European influences Modernist terms such as oefeminism and oewomanism intended to capture the emerging African women as subjects and not objects of study are avoided In so doing a theoretical approach is used based on the author TM s own experiences in West Africa Then building from that premise Curry analyzes the novels and films within this context to either prove or disprove her theories Enthusiasts without past experiences in the area of African literature and African films and also students and scholars in African studies specifically in comparative literature anthropology women TM s studies sociology African history film studies and social studies will all find this book of great interest In raising the issues that West African women face this book as the title suggests aims to awaken other African women and indeed a western readership to the fast changing lives of women in Africa Georgina Holmes in African Research and Documentation No 102 2007

From Africa to Brazil Walter Hawthorne, 2010-09-13 From Africa to Brazil traces the flows of enslaved Africans from the broad region of Africa called Upper Guinea to Amazonia Brazil These two regions though separated by an ocean were made one by a slave route Walter Hawthorne considers why planters in Amazonia wanted African slaves why and how those sent to Amazonia were enslaved and what their Middle Passage experience was like The book is also concerned with how Africans in diaspora shaped labor regimes determined the nature of their family lives and crafted religious beliefs that were similar to those they had known before enslavement It presents the only book length examination of African slavery in Amazonia and identifies with precision the locations in Africa from where members of a large diaspora in the Americas hailed From Africa to Brazil also proposes new directions for scholarship focused on how immigrant groups created new or recreated old cultures
