Eyeshot Heather McHugh, 2004-12-29 Scintillating new work from a celebrated contemporary poet      The Best American Poetry 2007 David Lehman, Heather McHugh, 2007-09-11 The twentieth edition of The Best American poetry series celebrates the rich and fertile landscape of American poetry Renowned poet Heather McHugh loves words and the unexpected places they take you her own poetry elevates wordplay to a species of metaphysical wit For this year's anthology McHugh has culled a spectacular group of poems reflecting her passion for language her acumen and her vivacious humor From the thousands of poems published or posted in one year McHugh has chosen seventy five that fully engage the reader while illustrating the formal and tonal diversity of American poetry With new work by established poets such as Louise Glück Robert Hass and Richard Wilbur The Best American Poetry 2007 also features such younger talents as Ben Lerner Meghan O'Rourke Brian Turner and Matthea Harvey Graced with McHugh's fascinating introduction the anthology includes the ever popular notes and comments section in which the contributors write about their work Series editor David Lehman's engaging foreword limns the necessity of poetry The Best American Poetry 2007 is an exciting addition to a series committed to covering the American poetry scene and delivering great poems to a broad audience      The Best American Poetry 2005 Paul Muldoon, David Lehman, 2005-09-20 A vivid snapshot of what a distinguished poet finds exciting fresh and memorable As good a comprehensive overview of contemporary poetry as there can be Robert Pinsky      Don't Leave Hungry James Smith, 2009-02 This substantial anthology charts the development of this influential journal decade by decade making clear that although it has close ties to a particular region it has consistently maintained a national scope publishing poets from all over the United States SPR's goal has been to celebrate the poem above all so although there are poems by major poets here there are many gems by less famous perhaps even obscure writers too Here are 183 poems by nearly as many poets from A.R. Ammons Kathryn Stripling Byer James Dickey Mark Doty Claudia Emerson David Ignatow and Carolyn Kizer to Ted Kooser Maxine Kumin Denise Levertov Howard Nemerov Sharon Olds Linda Pastan and Charles Wright      On Form, 2008-09-18 What is form Why does form matter In this imaginative and ambitious study Angela Leighton assesses not only the legacy of Victorian aestheticism and its richly resourceful keyword form but also the very nature of the literary She shows how writers for two centuries and more have returned to the idea of form as something which contains the secret of art itself She tracks the development of the word from the Romantics to contemporary poets and offers close readings of among others Tennyson Pater Woolf Yeats Stevens and Plath to show how form has provided the single most important way of accounting for the movements of literary language itself She investigates for instance the old debate of form and content of form as music or sound shape as the ghostly dynamic and dynamics of a text as well as its long association with the aestheticist principle of being for nothing In a wide ranging and inventive argument she suggests that form is the key to the pleasure of the literary text and that that pleasure is part of what literary criticism itself needs to answer and convey      The Book of Irish American

Poetry Daniel Tobin, 2007 This is the first major anthology of Irish American poetry It breaks new ground by collecting for the first time the work of over two hundred Irish American poets as well as other American poets whose work enjoins Irish American themes The Book of Irish American Poetry draws together the best and most representative poetry by Irish Americans and about Irish America that has been written over the past three hundred years Daniel Tobin begins with poetry of the populist period poets such as John Boyle O Reilly and moves to the work of Irish Americans who have made an indelible imprint on American poetry Robinson Jeffers Marianne Moore Louise Bogan John Berryman Thomas McGrath Robert Creeley Frank O Hara Ted Berrigan Galway Kinnell and Alan Dugan among others The anthology concludes with distinctive poems by contemporary Irish Americans whose work is likely to stand the test of time such as Tess Gallagher Brendan Galvin and Brigit Pegeen Kelly The Book of Irish American Poetry recovers many poets who have been forgotten and places already notable figures in American poetry within the context of a distinctively Irish American tradition to come
