Ezra Pound A Close Up:

Ezra Pound Michael Reck, 1968 The New Ezra Pound Studies Mark Byron, 2020 Essays on recent developments in Pound scholarship and research including newly available primary sources and methodological advances in cognate fields

Ezra Pound John Tytell, 2013-02-06 Unlike other biographical portraits of Ezra Pound John Tytell's brilliant and ambitious work offers an interpretive study that boldly confronts the emotional truths and psychological drama that formed this complex and controversial American poet Neither an apology nor a condemnation it presents instead a meticulous exploration into the mind and vision of a man who galvanized a generation and challenged an entire literary and world establishment Although he enjoyed little fame in his lifetime Pound's notoriety and influence were enormous as he arrogantly slashed away at convention and almost single handedly brought about the twentieth century revolution in poetry known as modernism Ultimately outrage and scandal turned his art to madness and Pound's last years saw him fall tragically silent

Hemingway's Art of Revision John Beall, 2024-05 In Hemingway's Art of Revision The Making of the Short Fiction John Beall examines in close detail two of the author's vignettes from the first version of In Our Time and ten of his short stories with an extensive focus on manuscripts and typescripts as part of a broader examination of how Ernest Hemingway crafted his distinctive prose through a rigorous process of revision The first three chapters discuss the influence of Hemingway's three most important modernist mentors Ezra Pound James Joyce and Gertrude Stein The first chapter focuses on Pound's influence as the editor of the Inquest Series of which Hemingway's In Our Time was the final publication The second chapter examines the affinities between Joyce's The Sisters and Hemingway's Indian Camp In particular Beall develops the case for Joyce's influence on Hemingway's decision to revise the story to maintain the reader's focus on young Nick Adams's point of view in his first encounter with death Chapter three explores Hemingway's revisions of Cat in the Rain as reflecting the influence of Stein's novellas and sketches as well as that of Joyce's stories and novels The remaining chapters delve into the artistry of Hemingway's extensive revisions in later masterpieces from Big Two Hearted River to Fathers and Sons Beall's discussion of Big Two Hearted River shows that Hemingway's revisions were not simply cuts and omissions but included several paragraphs that he added to slow down the narrative and represent Nick Adams's careful observations of a kingfisher and trout as he watched their shadows on the river The chapter on The Battler and The Killers explores the extent to which Hemingway's revisions brought racial conflicts to the forefront of each story and portrayed Bugs and Sam as guides for Nick Adams A subsequent reading of the story Now I Lay Me shows that in rewriting the story Hemingway developed his portrait of Nick Adams as a writer making up imaginary rivers to cope with the traumas of childhood and war A chapter on A Way You'll Never Be focuses on how Hemingway's revisions developed crucial story elements including Nick's interior monologues manic lecture about grasshoppers and wacky sense of humor that showed the character restoring a sense of emotional balance despite his memories of being wounded in World War I Subsequent chapters on Fathers and Sons Indian

Camp Hills Like White Elephants The Gambler the Nun and the Radio and the concluding chapter in part focused on drafts of The Snows of Kilimanjaro offer new discussions of the author's process of revision based on his manuscripts and typescripts published in the Hemingway Library Edition In the end by drawing attention to the meticulous edits additions and deletions that helped shape these texts Beall reveals how extensively and richly Hemingway revised his drafts while composing some of his most powerful short fiction Hemingway's Art of Revision gives a detailed view of a great prose stylist at work criticism of Appalachian novelists poets and playwrights The book reprises critical writing of influential authors such as Joyce Carol Oates Cratis Williams and Jim Wayne Miller It introduces new writing by Rodger Cunningham Elizabeth Engelhardt and others

Something to Say William Carlos Williams, 1985 Something to Say William Carlos Williams on Younger Poets collects all of Williams known writings reviews essays introductions and letters to the editor on the two generations of poets that followed him from Kenneth Rexroth and Louis Zukofsky to Robert Lowell and Allen Ginsberg What might have been a random collection of occasional pieces achieves remarkable coherence from the singleness of Williams poetic vision his belief that the secret spirit of ritual of poetry was trapped in restrictive molds and if these could be broken the spirit would be able to live again in a new contemporary form Only a revived clarity and accuracy in sight and expression would enable the modern world to reform social order which Williams saw in complete disarray To resuscitate American Poetry Williams concentrated his efforts on the purification of poetic speech his American idiom and on remaking the poetic line in a new measure his variable foot And while his battles with his contemporaries on these issues could be heated he was always a nurturing father to the young a useful presence a model and a liberator He told Ginsberg to pare down and economize Roethke to open up and encouraged Lowell and Levertov to shake off poetic conventions But in all his emphasis on the poem as a made object of concrete physicality or as a field of action he would return again and again to this basic advice to young writers The only thing necessary is to have something to say when at last the opportunity comes to say it

The Diplomacy of Ideas Frank A. Ninkovich, 1981 An interpretive history of the uses of cultural relations in U S foreign policy Analyzes the links between fundamental foreign policy outlooks and American institutional structures Shows how the U S made the transition from foreign policy passivity in the 1930s to global activism in the 1950s

Modernist Poetics of Ageing Jade Elizabeth French, 2025-01-12 What happens when the modern woman ages Modernist Poetics of Ageing answers this question by being the first book length study of three late modernist women s writers Drawing on their place within wider modernist networks this monograph is primarily framed around work by Mina Loy H D and Djuna Barnes who are often thought of as the quintessentially youthful modern woman of the 1920s Taking a literary ageing studies and cultural criticism approach this monograph focuses on lived experience as well as thematic representations of ageing in their work to examine how each author grew older in the years 1940 1982 By surveying literary texts visual art photography life writing and archival material this book explores the intersection of old age as lived and as well as written to argue that modernist late writing embodies the realities of ageing and transforms them through avant garde aesthetics As an interdisciplinary study this work pairs ageing studies and modernist studies to innovatively consider experimental works written about and in later life The book suggests that a focus on older age complicates the very avant garde or modernist aesthetics that each author was interested in what happens when the scene of the new is populated by older people How does an embodied experience of illness inform an aesthetics of late style After fulfilling their role as the youthful modern woman of the 1920s how did each artist continue to create rich avant garde works that go well beyond the paradigms of late modernism Modernist Poetics of Ageing argues that the late lives of some of modernism's most prominent and networked women writers are overlooked despite being rich vital and contemporary in their continuing commitment to modernist experiment By reframing these older modernist women writers as engaged in continuing creative experiments Modernist Poetics of Ageing reveals that the new does not always have to be young A Smile in His Mind's Eye Ray Morrison,2005-01-01 Durrell's best known work fused Western notions of time and space with Eastern metaphysics Very little has been written about Durrell's work before the Second World War With A Smile in His Mind's Eye Ray Morrison seeks to redress this neglect The New York Times

Book Review ,1968 Canadian Primal Mark Dickinson,2021-02-18 Over the past few decades a group of writers we might call the Thinking and Singing poets have stood at the forefront of poetry in Canada These five poets Dennis Lee Don McKay Robert Bringham Jan Zwicky and Tim Lilburn are major voices in an era of ecological devastation and spiritual unease Their diverse questioning work suggests new ways to confront some of the most pressing issues of our time In vibrant prose Mark Dickinson explores the relationship between the lives of these poets and their writing examining their intersecting careers and friendships and the ways they learned from and challenged one another Canadian Primal uses an unconventional approach blending biography with literary analysis and drawing from meetings and correspondence with each poet over many years to trace the people and events that inspired the creation of important texts Dickinson tracks how each of the writers arrived at poetry as a way of being and at the heart of their poetics he finds both a musical intelligence and the crucial importance of the land Canadian Primal is literary biography reconceived as an adventure of the mind body and spirit Ebullient intelligent and eminently readable it reminds us that we can live on the earth in a different way true to the defining experiences of our lives surrounded by meaning and presence beyond our imagining The Pool Group and the Quest for Anthropological Universality Betsy van Schlun,2016-11-21 Pool was an avant garde group that originated in 1927 in Britain and was active under this name until 1933 The group consisted of the well known modernist poet H D the English writer Bryher and the young Scottish writer and artist Kenneth Macpherson All three were first and foremost writers who at one point discovered film as another modern experimental medium of artistic expression Pool associated with almost all the iconic modernists of their time with Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemmingway James Joyce Marianne Moore William Carlos Williams T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to name only a few In addition due to their interest in film they were also befriended with such influential filmmakers as Sergei Eisenstein and Georg Wilhelm Pabst and became closely associated with Weimar Berlin film culture Pool unites classical Modernism and modernity two directions that are usually considered to be contradictory The Pool phenomenon opens a new perspective onto Modernism and prompts a reconsideration of its canonical texts and figures Contrary to many artists of Modernism who devised highly individualistic aesthetic styles the artists of Pool strove towards a universal art of humanity that was rooted in all human nature and psychology
