F2A Buffalo in Action Jim Maas, 1987-01-01 Brewster F2A Buffalo Aces of World War 2 Kari Stenman, Andrew Thomas, 2013-06-20 Although designed and built for the US Navy the F2A fought in only one major US engagement the battle of Midway in which F2A pilots managed to shoot down a number of Japanese fighters Soon replaced by the navy the F2A was exported to Britain where it was nicknamed the Buffalo thanks to its stubby appearance The British sent most of these fighters to the Far East where they were used in the defence of Singapore and Malaya It was in the Winter War however that the F2A truly found a home Calling the plane simply the Brewster the Finnish flew it against the invading Russians Overall 37 Finns achieved ace status flying the Brewster and it was the Finnish fighter of choice until succeeded by the Bf 109 in 1943

Allied Aircraft Piston Engines of World War II Graham White, 2019-05-16 Allied Aircraft Piston Engines of World War II now in its second edition coalesces multiple aspects of war driven aviation and its amazing technical accomplishments leading to the allied victory during the second world war Not by chance the air battles that took place then defined much of the outcome of one of the bloodiest conflicts in modern history Forward thinking airplane design had to be developed quickly as the war raged on and the engines that propelled them were indeed the focus of intense cutting edge engineering efforts Flying higher faster and taking the enemy down before they even noticed your presence became a matter of life or death for the allied forces Allied Aircraft Piston Engines of World War II Second Edition addresses British and American developed engines It looks at the piston engines in detail as they supported amazing wins both in the heat of the air battles and on the ground supplying and giving cover to the troops This new edition fully revised by the original author Graham White offers new images and information in addition to expanded specifications on the Rolls Royce Packard Merlin and the Pratt Whitney R 2800 engines Jay Leno a known enthusiast wrote the Foreword

Fortnight of Infamy John Burton, 2013-09-23 While America was preoccupied with the aftermath of Pearl Harbor an even greater tragedy was unfolding across Southeast Asia From Wake Island to Burma the Empire of Japan opened the largest front in the history of warfare an aircraft driven invasion of colonial possessions throughout the Far East that crumbled the entire Western imperial legacy of the nineteenth century Events during the first two weeks of battle set the stage for the greatest military defeats America and Great Britain would suffer during any conflict This book offers the first comprehensive overview of the collapse of Allied air forces during the period between December 8 and 24 1941 Written for a wide audience it gives readers both a cockpit view of the desperate actions that took place and an understanding of why such heavy losses occurred The narrative account includes enough detail and analysis to hold the interest of serious students of Pacific War aviation and enough exciting descriptions of air combat to attract those with little knowledge of the subject Explaining how and why the Japanese were able to win a quick victory John Burton points to U S failures in the concepts for employment of airpower and a significant underestimation of Japanese air mindedness and aviation capabilities failures that resulted in the loss or surrender of more than 200 000 troops at Bataan and Singapore Enemy at the Gates Justo Miranda,2019-12-08 When the Nazis started to threaten the world with their efficient machine of propaganda the main concern of European governments was the overwhelming reaction of panic that the expected bombing of the Luftwaffe might cause within the civil population During the Munich Agreement in 1938 the democracies were defended by old biplanes and a bunch of modern fighters 50 Hurricanes 20 Morane 405 and 5 Fokker D XXI France and Great Britain took up the production of USA airplanes and cancelled exports to small countries which were forced to design and build their own PANIC FIGHTERS with the intelligence and skill that desperation provides When nothing seemed able to contain the German advance France Great Britain and the USSR developed several programs of emergency fighters as did Australia to face the Japanese expansion At the time the course of events switched it was the Axis powers that had to create their own PANIC FIGHTERS some of them suicidal The present book includes several last resource designs of fighters that are practically unknown and that were developed in times of tribulation by Australia Belgium Bulgaria Canada Czechoslovakia Denmark Estonia Finland France Germany Great Britain Hungary Japan Yugoslavia Latvia Netherland Poland Romania Sweden and Switzerland Flattop Fighting in World War II Patrick Degan,2015-09-11 World War II s naval battles between the United States and Japan have been the subject of many books popular movies and documentaries but the very important story of the fighting between United States and Japanese aircraft carriers is often lost in broader discussions of the Pacific naval war This work concentrates exclusively on the fighting between the American and Japanese aircraft carriers examining how strategies were planned and carried out on both sides Presented are the stories of the USS Hornet which launched the B 25s of James Doolittle s daring raid of Tokyo in 1942 the USS Yorktown which suffered fierce attacks during the Battle of Midway the USS Lexington which refueled and rearmed Hellcats during the Great Marianas Turkey Shoot the USS Enterprise the leader of a motley assortment of cruisers and destroyers left to hold a very precarious line in the campaign for Guadalcanal and the Japanese battleship Yamato sacrificed for a suicide mission against 900 aircraft bombers Last Stand In Singapore Graham Clayton,2015-12-01 The story of 488 RNZAF Squadron during the fall of Singapore early in 1942 This gripping history has been written using the diaries letters photographs and personal reminiscences of members of 488 Squadron who were based just outside Singapore City and valiantly kept planes in the air against Japanese attacks until just before the city was overwhelmed The story of their day to day life at a time of crisis their hard work and their valour is eye opening The remaining ground crew were granted passage on one of the last ships to leave the island when the Japanese were just 1 kilometre from the city centre The ship had accommodation for 23 passengers yet there were approximately 3000 people crammed on board The overcrowding was the least of their worries California Warbird Survivors 2002 Harold A. Skaarup,2002-07-18 During the twentieth century civil and military aviation has played a prominent role in the history and development of California Commercial operators have exploited the advantages offered by aircraft to overcome its unique challenges of geography and climate By virtue of Californias comparative size and strategic importance on the West Coast of the continental USA a wide variety of military aircraft have been based there through the years The list of military aircraft types that made up the tapestry of California aviation is as extensive as the list of legendary figures who have contributed to its amazing history While most of the military aircraft types no longer grace the airspace over California many can be viewed in their former splendor as they stand as gate guards or museum exhibits This booklet provides a comprehensive guide to where these restored aircraft can be found Complementing the details concerning aircraft specifications and roles the author has included many facts Finally the descriptions of the recovery restoration and preservation efforts stand as a tribute to the many volunteers who have devoted time energy and financial support to ensure this rich heritage is preserved

Brewster F2A Buffalo Aces of World War 2 Kari Stenman, Andrew Thomas, 2010-01-26 Entering service with the US Navy as a carrier borne fighter the Brewster F2A later named Buffalo by the British and simply the Brewster by the Finns saw relatively little service with its own nation Indeed it was to see action on just one occasion in US colors the engagement off Midway by USMC F2As saw a number of Japanese carrier aircraft shot down including two by future ace Col Charles M Kunz The F2A was also ordered for the RAF in 1939 and although it soon became apparent that the type was not suitable for use against the mighty Luftwaffe over Western Europe the Buffalo was seen as a suitable type for use in the Far East It was sent en masse to equip new squadrons of the RAF RAAF and RNZAF formed for the defence of Malaya and Singapore Despite the many inadequacies exposed after the Japanese invasion the Commonwealth units fought gallantly against the odds and with poor logistical backup and ultimately made many claims Indeed no fewer than nine pilots either became aces on the type or increased their scores to achieve acedom and a further fifteen aces flew them in action Moreover the leading Buffalo ace went on to become the most successful Commonwealth pilot against the Japanese of the entire war It was in Finland however where the Brewster found undying fame and proved itself a real thorn in the side of the Soviets Operating in primitive conditions and against superior numbers Finnish Brewster 239 pilots racked up an incredible score against the Red Air Force Overall some 37 Finnish pilots became aces when flying the Brewster 239 The tubby Brewster was very much the fighter of choice for the leading Finnish pilots until the advent of large numbers of Messerschmitt Bf 109s in 1943

The Battle of Midway Craig L. Symonds, 2013-10-03 A close up look at the battle of Midway Island analyzes this crucial naval victory which marked the turning point for the American fleet in the Pacific theater of World War II

VIOLET LIGHTNING John Eric Vining, 2020-11-13 An epic achievement over one hundred years in the making In December 1941 Japan had perhaps the greatest combination of land sea and air forces the world had ever seen and she used these to conquer a huge empire in the Western Pacific and East Asia Yet by August 1945 Japan had been beaten to her knees by the combined power of China Great Britain and the United States Was this destruction inevitable Did Japan have no chance to defeat America and her allies Why would she think she could successfully battle the two greatest industrial powers the world had ever known Great Britain and the United States at the same time Violet Lightning A Blueprint for Japanese Victory in the Pacific 1941 1942 is a sweeping narrative over a century in the making From the first confrontation in 1895 between the United States and Japan over Hawaii to the massive Japanese defeats at Midway and Guadalcanal in 1942 to author John Eric Vining s first interest in the Japanese American conflict in the fall of 1967 by reading Carrier War in the Pacific to the fall of 1995 when Vining first put pen to paper on this project and finally to 2020 s finished product by Page Publishing Vining reviews a history of the acrimony between Japan and the United States in the first half of the Twentieth Century He then builds what one reviewer calls a chillingly believable scenario for a Japanese victory in the greatest of all wars Violet Lightning poses and answers the question Could Japan really have pulled it off You just might find yourself coming around to a point of view you didn t believe was possible

Early Pacific Raids 1942 Brian Lane Herder, 2023-06-22 A fascinating exploration of how between February 1 and March 10 1942 three small US task forces launched several unexpected raids across the Japanese defensive perimeter in the Central and South Pacific After the devastating Japanese blows of December 1941 the Allies found themselves reeling with defeat everywhere in the Pacific

Although stripped of his battleships and outnumbered 10 to 3 in carriers the US Navy commander in chief Admiral Ernest J King decided to hit back at Japan's rapidly expanding Pacific empire immediately in an effort to keep the Japanese off balance. On February 1, 1942, Vice Admiral Bill Halsey led the US Pacific Fleet carriers on their first raid using high speed hit and run tactics to strike at the Japanese at a time when most of the Japanese carrier fleet was in the Indian Ocean. Halsey's aggressive commitment inspired its American participants to invent the mythical Hail Mary with Halsey's club. The last of the 1942 US carrier raids in March 1942 would form a defining moment in the Pacific War prior to a new phase of high seas battles between the opposing fleets. This superbly illustrated book documents for the first time in a single volume this little known but important World War II naval campaign. The fabulous illustrations including maps and colour artworks bring to life the US air and naval raids on the Japanese bases in the Marshall and Gilbert Islands: Rabaul, Wake Island, Marcus Island, and Lae and Salamaua in northern New Guinea.

Air Combat, 2019-01-24. This book brings together the best and most iconic fighters of World War II pitted against one another in desperate aerial combat. The battle for the skies in World War II fuelled a race between rival air forces to develop ever faster and more capable fighter aircraft, and the struggle for air superiority was never over until the war itself ended. This volume explores four clashes of some of the finest planes and pilots in key theatres of the war: Spitfires duelling the formidable Bf 109 over the Channel; the Fw 190 battling the Soviet La 5 and 7 on the Eastern Front; the F4F Wildcat in a desperate clash with the legendary A6M Zero; and the F4U Corsair in combat with the second generation Japanese Ki 84 in the closing days of the war. Fully illustrated with contemporary photographs, maps, and colour artwork, Air Combat conveys the full story behind these dramatic aviation duels.
