Faber Of Contemporary South Pacific Stories:

The Faber Book of Contemporary South Pacific Stories Christian Karlson Stead, 2010 The first collection of contemporary short fiction in the English language from the South Pacific

South Pacific Handbook David Stanley, 1996 Whether it s the legends about breadfruit trees or ghosts inhabiting inland Tahiti the endangered delicacies to avoid or the gift giving protocol when invited to a local s home how to tour a vanilla plantation on Raiatea or when to find the Noum a flame trees catch fire in hues of red and orange South Pacific Handbook covers everything about this region of boundless ocean and scarce land Drawing on two decades of editions and incorporating the comments of countless previous readers this user friendly guide extends beyond the hot spots and steers readers off the beaten path throughout Polynesia and Melanesia

Indigenous Literature of Oceania Nicholas J. Goetzfridt, 1995-02-28 Oceania has a rich and growing literary tradition The imaginative literature that emerged in the 1960s often reflected the forms and structures of European literature though the ideas expressed were typically anticolonial After three decades the literature of Oceania has become much more complex in terms of style as well as content and authors write in a multiplicity of styles and voices While the written literature of Oceania is continuously gaining more critical attention questions about the imposition of European literary standards and values as a further extension of colonialism in the Pacific have become a central issue This book is a detailed survey of the expanding amount of critical and interpretive material written about the imaginative literature of authors from Oceania It focuses on commentary and scholarship concerned with the poetry fiction and drama written in English by indigenous peoples of the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia The criticisms have appeared in academic books and journals since the mid 1960s They have developed to the point at which critical issues related to decolonization and the expression of ideas without having to first satisfy foreign expectations often determine the direction of such discussions Entries are grouped in topical chapters and each entry includes an extensive annotation An introductory essay summarizes the evolution of Pacific literature

Albert Wendt and Pacific Literature Paul Sharrad, 2003-11-08 Albert Wendt is the leading writer and exponent of Pacific literature His work is consistently different in style politically challenging and ranges across essays plays poems stories and novels two of which have been filmed This book is the first full length study of his work There is an introduction to Pacific literature as a whole and Wendt s Samoan background Chapters offer readings of all Wendt s major texts in chronological sequence relating them to his essays to literary movements of the time and to key motifs from Polynesian culture There is an extensive bibliography of works by and about Wendt

Once Were Pacific Alice Te Punga Somerville, 2012 Explores the relationship between indigeneity and migration among Maori and Pacific peoples

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

The Rough Guide to New Zealand Laura Harper, Tony Mudd, Paul Whitfield, 2002 Combining the most extraordinary aspects of both wild and cosmopolitan New Zealand this Rough Guide offers unparalleled coverage of activities and accommodations of color photos 80 maps

Inside Out Vilsoni Hereniko, Rob Wilson, 1999-06-24 In a time of dynamism and contradiction in Pacific cultural production a time of turning things over and writing from the inside out this far reaching volume provides a comprehensive set of essays and interviews on the emergent literatures of the New Pacific With its dynamic combination of important position papers polemics and decolonizing critiques by noted authors and of analysis by new and established post colonial scholars this volume exposes the maze and mix of literatures and cultural identities breaking down and building up across the Pacific Ocean This pioneering work will be the definitive resource for anyone researching or teaching Pacific literature and will be invaluable for bringing Pacific culture to readers outside the region

Cultural Crossings Raylene L. Ramsay, 2010 Hitherto undiscovered yet fundamental historical and literary texts from the Pacific provide the subject matter of this collection of essays which sets out to explore the new forms of writing and hybrid identities emerging from both past and contemporary cultural contact and exchange in the South Seas This is also a weaving of the connections between Francophone and Anglophone writers long separated by colonial history Luis Cardoso writing in Portuguese from East Timor offers further points of contrast The places of encounter the beaches of Tahiti the retelling of the texts of oral tradition indigenous mastery of writing and appropriation of Western technology the construction of contemporary Pacific anthologies or emerging post colonial writing and translation are sites of interaction and mixing that also involve negotiations of mana or power From Pierre Loti's mythical and feminised Tahitians to D w Gorod's silenced women the outcomes of such negotiations are dynamic and different syncretisms Two chapters reexamine the theoretical concept of hybridity from these Pacific perspectives Les articles publiés dans le présent recueil explorent les nouvelles formes d'écriture et les identités hybrides issues du creuset des Mers du Sud Relativement inconnus les textes au coeur de ces articles n'en sont pas moins les oeuvres fondatrices de la région du Pacifique Sud dont ils constituent la trame historique et littéraire Longtemps tenus à l'écart les uns des autres par l'histoire coloniale de la région les textes d'auteurs francophones et anglophones s'enchevêtrent et se recourent en de multiples domaines La reprise des textes de tradition orale l'appropriation autochtone des technologies occidentales la création d'anthologies contemporaines et l'émergence d'une littérature postcoloniale sont autant de sites d'interactions et de convergence qui exigent une négociation permanente entre les pouvoirs et la présence C'est une nouvelle facette du concept d'hybridité que nous proposons ces études de la région Pacifique

Ancestry of Experience
Leilani Holmes, 2016-08-31 As Hawaiians continue to recover their language and culture the voices of kupuna elders are heard once again in urban and rural settings both in Hawai'i and elsewhere How do kupuna create knowledge and tell history What do they tell us about being Hawaiian Adopted by a Midwestern couple in the 1950s as an infant Leilani Holmes spent much of her early life in settings that offered no clues about her Hawaiian past images of which continued to haunt her even as she completed a master's thesis on Hawaiian music and identity in southern California Ancestry of Experience documents Holmes' quest to reclaim and understand her own origin story Holmes writes in two different and at times incongruent voices one describing the search for her genealogy the other critiquing Western epistemologies she encounters along the way In the course of her journey she finds that Hawaiian oral tradition links identity to the land aina through ancestry while traditional scholarly theories of knowing particularly political economy and the discourse of the invention of tradition textually obliterate land and ancestry In interviews with kupuna Holmes learns of the connectedness of spirituality and aina through her study and practice of hula kahiko comes an understanding of ancient hula as a conversation between aina and the dancer's body that has the power to activate historical memory Holmes' experience has special relevance for indigenous adoptees and indigenous scholars Both are distanced from the knowledge agendas and strategies of their communities and are tasked to speak in languages ill suited to the telling of their own stories and those of their ancestors In addition to those with an interest in Hawaiian knowledge and culture Ancestry of Experience will appeal to readers of memoirs of identity academic and personal accounts of racial identity formation and works of indigenous epistemologies A website www.ancestryofexperience.com will include supplementary material

All Visitors Ashore C. K. Stead, 2010-09-30 As their friends leave for Europe and the government gets tough with the unions a bohemian community is enjoying the euphoria of youth It was their dreamtime The wider world beckoned from the white ships sailing past Rangitoto Island but the dream was also here on the Takapuna shoreline of Auckland where the artist Melior Farbro grew his vegetables and let Cecilia Skyways follow her own form of Zen Buddhism in his garden hut Where Curl Skidmore his brilliant young head full of novels waiting to be unravelled could dream of God Fame Nirvana Great Love or maybe just sex Where not even the harbourfront strike of 1951 could convince them that life wasn't about poetry and painting and potential

The Secret

History Of Modernism C. K. Stead, 2010-08-17 A chance meeting has New Zealand writer Laszlo Winter thinking back to his time in London in the late 1950s The Empire might be in a state of collapse but for young colonials England remains a mythical place that draws them from the farthest corners of the globe There was Australian Samantha Conlan clever desirable hopelessly in love with married Jewish New Zealander Freddy Goldstein who carried with him a dark history Rajiv an earnest young Indian at work on a study of Yeats and the Indian mind The enigmatic Margot whose bond with her athletic brother Mark troubled Laszlo in ways he didn't quite understand Heather the call girl with whom Laszlo exchanged lessons on Shakespeare for lessons in love The great writers of the time and the details of their lives are recorded by Samantha in her idiosyncratic research project that she named her Secret History of Modernism There was all of that and more and then there was Laszlo knocking blindly about among them despairing at his academic prospects and gradually realising that he was would only ever be a storyteller Now years later from the other side of the world the people seem to spring to life again in this beguiling work by one of New Zealand's foremost writers

The Oxford Guide to Contemporary World

Literature John Sturrock, 1997 opinion the Guide offers a discriminating and sometimes controversial view of a broad range of contemporary literatures

My Name Was Judas C. K. Stead, 2011-02-15 We all know the story of Jesus told by Matthew Mark Luke and John but what about the version according to Judas In this witty original and teasingly controversial account some forty years after the death of Jesus Judas finally tells the story as he remembers it Looking back on his childhood and youth from an old age the gospel writers denied him Judas recalls his friendship with Jesus their schooling together their families the people who would go on to be disciples and followers their journeys together and their dealings with the powers of Rome and the Temple His is a story of friendship and rivalry of a time of uncertainty and enquiry a testing of belief endurance and loyalty

Collected Poems, 1951-2006: C. K. Stead C. K. Stead, 2014-03-01 This collection of poetry culls Karl Stead's most lasting and memorable works into a single volume Drawn from previously published works though his distinguished career from his debut collection Whether the Will is Free to his recent publication The Black River this resource also contains 22 previously unpublished poems from his early days

Risk C.K. Stead, 2015-04-14 In Risk acclaimed New Zealand author C K Stead has the ability to set the scene in a few pithy lines and condense more telling details into a handful of pages than many writers manage in their entire chapters said the Sunday Times Recently divorced New Zealand native Sam Nola returns to London where he spent two years in his early twenties It is early 2003 and on both sides of Atlantic the case for military intervention in Iraq is being made or fabricated But life for Sam has never been better a grown up half French daughter from a long ago affair has recently got in touch and he has walked into a lucrative role in the booming banking sector It is only when he learns of the deaths of two friends within a week that intrigue begins to intrude on his contentment that life begins to feel a little more precarious

Asia/Pacific as Space of Cultural Production Rob

Wilson, Arif Dirlik, 1995 Although the Asia Pacific region occupies a prominent place in geopolitical thinking little is available to readers concerning the resistant communities and cultures of Pacific and Asian peoples This book fills that gap by documenting the efforts of diverse indigenous cultures to claim and reimagine Asia Pacific as a space for their own cultural production by presenting essays poems and memoirs by prominent Asia Pacific writers that resist appropriation by transnational capitalism through the articulation of autonomous local identities and counter histories of place and community In addition cultural critics spanning several locations and disciplines deconstruct representations particularly those on film and in novels that perpetuate Asia Pacific as a realm of EuroAmerican fantasy This collection offers a new perception of the Asia Pacific region by presenting the Pacific not as a paradise or vast emptiness but as a place where living struggling peoples have constructed contemporary identities out of a long history of hegemony and resistance back cover In the Half Light of a Dying Day C. K. Stead, 2024-07-11 An old friend a new character C K Stead is scribe to love and grief in this beautiful new collection In two sequences the poet plays with the lines of history and love the fictional and the autobiographical Reflecting on a long career and familiar faces the first sequence walks the reader from classical Rome to contemporary Aotearoa Then in the shade of Parnell begins a tender address to a new character Kezia lover and friend just lost Lyrical and deeply moving In the Half Light of a Dying Day is a late career masterpiece Mansfield C. K. Stead, 2010-07-07 A vivid and engrossing historical novel Daily Telegraph Spanning three years in the life of the writer Katherine Mansfield during the First World War Mansfield follows the ups and downs of her relationship with Jack Middleton Murry and her struggle to write the new kind of fiction which she felt the times demanded She is restless constantly on the move in and out of London to and from France even into the war zone to be with her French lover novelist Francis Carco For a short time Mansfield is able to behave as though the war is merely background but her ardent relationship with her brother who arrives from New Zealand to fight in France makes detachment impossible as does her love for Jack s Oxford friend Frederick Goodyear also a soldier The war s shadow remorselessly darkens all their lives but only increases Mansfield s determination to break through as a writer Mansfield is a sharp subtle and appealing portrait of the person of whose work Virginia Woolf wrote It was the only writing I was ever jealous of
