Faber Of Contemporary Stories About Childhood The:

The Faber Book of Contemporary Stories about Childhood Lorrie Moore, 1997-01 An anthology of stories about childhood Contemporary writers present the innocence and knowingness of a child's eye view as it confronts the contradictions and hypocrisies of the adult world Each story is told by a child character or by the adult who was that child

I know some things Lorrie Moore, 1992 Understanding Lorrie Moore Alison Kelly, 2009 The first book length critical approach to the fiction of the award winning author of Birds of America Understanding Lorrie Moore is a comprehensive companion to the works of this wickedly humorous writer whose fiction shows a deep sensitivity to the dynamics of contemporary gender relations and an abiding interest in portraying and critiquing the American national character The recipient of the 1998 O Henry Award and the 2004 Rea Award for the Short Story Lorrie Moore is best known for her short fiction Alison Kelly shows that Moore's virtuosic prose wry humor and sense of irony are tools for registering how Americans face the discomfort of their daily lives as individuals and as a nation Kelly traces Moore's emergence as a writer in the 1980s and her artistic development up to the present day illuminating the distinctive narrative methods aesthetics and thematic preoccupations of Moore's major works Kelly follows Moore's recurrent characters situations metaphors and motifs in order to promote understanding of the texts and appreciation for their wordplay wit and imagery Viewing her subject as a subtly political writer Kelly discusses Moore's major themes techniques and stylistics as evidence that her characters' private pains are symptomatic of a wider national malaise

Toying with Childhood Usha Mudiganti, 2022-02-27 This book studies the dialectic relationship between the image of the child and the toy in literary depictions of childhood in 19th and 20th century Anglo American fiction Drawing from the psychoanalytic theories of Sigmund Freud Anna Freud D W Winnicott and Sudhir Kakar it analyses themes such as the heterogeneity of childhood and the construction of the ideals of childhood It explores the linkages between the ideals of childhood in Britain and its travel to America and further dissemination in British India It discusses the established tropes of childhood such as innocence a formative period the centrality of play and the presence of a toy to argue that the mores of childhood are culturally constructed and lead to the reification of a child into an image of perfection The author problematises the notion of essential innocence and discusses the repercussions of such stereotypes about childhood The work also highlights parallels between the ideals of childhood established in 19th century Britain and the portrayals of postcolonial Indian childhoods in 20th century Indian English literature Toying with Childhood will be useful for students and researchers of education childhood studies psychology sociology literature gender studies and development studies It will also appeal to general readers interested in cultural perceptions of childhood literary depictions of children and the works of Sigmund Freud Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30

Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The End of the Class War Catherine Brady,1999 As stark and moving as Angela's Ashes Brady's collection is a poignant exploration of working class Irish American life Inhabiting the In-Between Sarah Thomas,2019-05-09 Although children have proliferated in Spain's cinema since its inception nowhere are they privileged and complicated in quite the same way as in the films of the 1970s and early 1980s a period of radical political and cultural change for the nation as it emerged from almost four decades of repressive dictatorship under the rule of General Francisco Franco In Inhabiting the In Between Childhood and Cinema in Spain's Long Transition Sarah Thomas analyses the cinematic child within this complex historical conjuncture of a nation looking back on decades of authoritarian rule and forward to an uncertain future Examining films from several genres by four key directors of the Transition Carlos Saura Antonio Mercero Víctor Erice and Jaime de Armiñán Thomas explores how the child is represented as both subject and object and self and other and consistently cast in a position between categories or binary poles She demonstrates how the cinematic child that materializes in this period is a fundamentally shifting oscillating ambivalent figure that points toward the impossibility of fully comprehending the historical past and the figure of the other while inviting an ethical engagement with each Margaret Atwood Shannon Hengen,Ashley Thomson,2007-05-22 Authors Shannon Hengen and Ashley Thomson have assembled a reference guide that covers all of the works written by the acclaimed Canadian author Margaret Atwood since 1988 including her novels Cat's Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace and the 2000 Booker Prize winner The Blind Assassin Rather than just including Atwood's books this guide includes all of Atwood's works including articles short stories letters and individual poetry Adaptations of Atwood's works are also included as are some of her more public quotations Secondary entries i.e interviews scholarly resources and reviews are first sorted by type and then arranged alphabetically by author to allow greater ease of navigation The individual chapters are organized chronologically with each subdivided into seven categories Atwood's Works Adaptations Quotations Interviews Scholarly Resources Reviews of Atwood's Works and Reviews of Adaptations of Atwood's Works The book also includes a chapter entitled Atwood on the Web as well as extensive author and subject indexes This new bibliography significantly enhances access to Atwood material a feature that will be welcomed by university public and school librarians Margaret Atwood A Reference Guide 1988-2005 will appeal not only to Atwood scholars but to students and fans of one of Canada's greatest writers Stories of Childhood Dean W. Duncan,2015-10-29 This study questions the widely held perception that books as an artistic medium are superior to and more respectable than film or television sometimes considered frivolous and pernicious Criticism of both the big and small screens often obscures their signal accomplishments and the entertainment and insight they provide The author analyzes our distaste for these media and the romanticizing of the printed word that accompanies it and argues that books and films are in fact quite complementary A broad survey of film and TV offerings explores what enacted narratives have taught us about the nature of childhood American Short-story Writers Since World War II.
