Border States in the Work of Tom Mac Intyre Catriona Ryan, 2012-01-17 This work analyses the prose and drama of the Irish writer Tom Mac Intyre and the concept of paleo postmodernism It examines how Mac Intyre balances traditional themes with experimentation which in the Irish literary canon is unusual This book argues that Mac Intyre's position in the Irish literary canon is an idiosyncratic one in that he combines two contrary aspects of Irish literature between what Beckett terms as the Yeatsian antiquarians who valorize the Victorian Gael and the others whose aesthetic involves a European influenced breakdown of the object which is associated with Beckett Mac Intyre's experimentation involves a breakdown of the object in order to uncover an unconscious Irish mythological and linguistic space in language His approach to language experimentation is Yeatsian and this is what the author terms as paleo postmodern Thus the project considers how Mac Intyre incorporates Yeatsian revivalism with postmodern deconstruction in his drama and short stories

The Country Funeral John McGahern, 2019 My only concern John McGahern once said is that I get the sentence right and describe my world clearly and deeply The Country Funeral witnesses three brothers John Philly and Fonsie Ryan as they travel west from Dublin to Gloria Bog the heart of the territory where so many of McGahern's stories take place to attend the funeral of their uncle Depicting the customs and rituals of the day McGahern exquisitely traces how the brothers react to the area in unexpected and tender ways and face their own feelings about the transience of life

Modernism in Irish Women's Contemporary Writing Paige Reynolds, 2023-11-23 Modernism in Irish Women's Contemporary Writing examines the tangled relationship between contemporary Irish women writers and literary modernism In the early decades of the twenty first century Irish women's fiction has drawn widespread critical acclaim and commercial success with a surprising number of these works being commended for their innovative redeployment of literary tactics drawn from early twentieth century literary modernism But this strategy is not a new one Across more than a century writers from Kate O'Brien to Sally Rooney have manipulated and remade modernism to draw attention to the vexed nature of female privacy exploring what unfolds when the amorphous nature of private consciousness bumps up against external ordering structures in the public world Living amid the tenaciously conservative imperatives of church and state in Ireland their female characters are seen to embrace reject and rework the ritual of prayer the fixity of material objects the networks of the digital world and the ordered narrative of the book Such structures provide a stability that is valuable and even necessary for such characters to flourish as well as an instrument of containment or repression that threatens to and in some cases does destroy them The writers studied here among them Elizabeth Bowen Edna O'Brien Anne Enright Anna Burns Claire Louise Bennett and Eimear McBride employ the modernist mode in part to urge readers to recognize that female interiority the prompt for many of the movement's illustrious formal experiments continues to provide a crucial but often overlooked mechanism to imagine ways around and through seemingly intransigent social problems such as class inequity political violence and sexual abuse
