The New Yorker, 1939-08 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints, 1980 Thomas Wolfe Joanne Marshall Mauldin, 2007 In 1937 after years of living alone in New York City a manic depressive Thomas Wolfe returned to his family and his native Asheville North Carolina a city he had both ridiculed and brought notoriety to through his novel Look Homeward Angel eight years earlier Concerned about lingering resentment from the community over the literary work and his tenuous relationship with his family members Wolfe returned to his hometown with caution but also with the need to both rejuvenate and compile material for his next novel It is this visit that sparks Wolfe's trademark conclusion You can't go home again During 1937 and 1938 Thomas Wolfe experienced extreme highs and lows as he labored furiously to produce his next work Joanne Marshall Mauldin provides an in depth look at those final two years in the life of the brilliant yet troubled writer in Thomas Wolfe When Do the Atrocities Begin By adding new information and insight Mauldin challenges much of the existing biographical material on the writer and offers a fresh view on the final years of his life Through the utilization of primary and secondary sources including letters interviews recordings and newspaper clippings Mauldin offers a candid account of the life of Thomas Wolfe from the time of his visit to North Carolina in 1937 until his untimely death in 1938 Mauldin chronicles details of Wolfe's shocking change in publishers and his complex relationships with his editors family friends and his mistress This examination goes beyond Wolfe's life and extends into the period after his death revealing details about the reaction of family and friends to the passing of this literary legend as well as the cavalier publishing practices of his posthumous editors Mauldin's narrative is unique from other biographical accounts of Thomas Wolfe in that it focuses solely on the final years in the life of the author Her unbiased approach enables the reader to draw his or her own conclusions about Wolfe and his actions and state of mind during these last two years of his life Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1971 Look Abroad, Angel Jedidiah Evans,2020 Born in Asheville North Carolina Thomas Wolfe 1900 1938 was one of the most influential southern writers widely considered to rival his contemporary William Faulkner who believed Wolfe to be one of the greatest talents of their generation His novels including Look Homeward Angel 1929 Of Time and the River 1935 and the posthumously published The Web and the Rock 1939 and You Can t Go Home Again 1940 remain touchstones of U S literature In Look Abroad Angel Jedidiah Evans uncovers the global Wolfe reconfiguring Wolfe s supposedly intractable homesickness for the American South as a form of longing that is instead indeterminate and expansive Instead of promoting and reinforcing a narrow and cloistered formulation of the writer as merely southern or Appalachian Evans places Wolfe in transnational contexts examining Wolfe s impact and influence throughout Europe In doing so he de territorializes the response to Wolfe s work revealing the writer as a fundamentally global presence within American literature Perspectives USA. ,1954 Seven Modern American Novelists William Van O'Connor,1964 Seven Modern American Novelists was first published in 1964 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions This volume provides critical introductions to seven of the most significant American novelists of this century bringing together in convenient book form the material from some of the University of Minnesota Pamphlets on American Writers The writers discussed and the contributing authors are Edith Wharton by Louis Auchincloss Sinclair Lewis by Mark Schorer F Scott Fitzgerald by Charles E Shain William Faulkner by William Van O Connor Ernest Hemingway by Philip Young Thomas Wolfe by C Hugh Holman and Nathanael West by Stanley Edgar Hyman In an introduction Mr O Connor who is one of the editors of the pamphlet series discusses some critical principles as they apply to fiction writers in general and to twentieth century American novelists in particular He is the author of many volumes of literary criticism as well as a collection of short stories and was a professor of English at the University of California Davis Teachers librarians and others who use the material of the University of Minnesota Pamphlets on American Writers for frequent reference or as classroom texts will find this book particularly useful Biographical information about the writers as well as critical evaluations of their writing is given A bibliography for each writer lists his works and critical and biographical works about him Perspectives ,1954 The Concise Oxford Companion to American Literature James D.
