S. Hallescher Verein für Getreide- und Produktenhandel,1897 Elvira Bach and Re-figuration Verena Feldbausch,1993 Looking for Anne of Green Gables Irene Gammel,2024-03-26 In June 1908 a red haired orphan appeared on to the streets of Boston and a modern legend was born That little girl was Anne Shirley better known as Anne of Green Gables and her first appearance was in a book that has sold more than 50 million copies worldwide and been translated into more than 35 languages including Braille The author who created her was Lucy Maud Montgomery a writer who revealed very little of herself and her method of crafting a story On the centenary of its publication Irene Gammel tells the braided story of both Anne and Maud and in so doing shows how a literary classic was born Montgomery s own life began in the rural Cavendish family farmhouse on Prince Edward Island the place that became the inspiration for Green Gables Mailmen brought the world to the farmhouse s kitchen door in the form of American mass market periodicals sparking the young Maud s imagination From the vantage point of her small world Montgomery pored over these magazines gleaning bits of information about how to dress how to behave and how a proper young lady should grow She began to write learning how to craft marketable stories from the magazines popular fiction at the same time the fashion photos inspired her visual imagination One photo that especially intrigued her was that of a young woman named Evelyn Nesbit the model for painters and photographers and lover of Stanford White That photo was the spark for what became Anne Shirley Blending biography with cultural history Looking for Anne of Green Gables is a gold mine for fans of the novels and answers a trunk load of questions Where did Anne get the e at the end of her name How did Montgomery decide to give her red hair How did Montgomery s courtship and marriage to Reverend Ewan Macdonald affect the story Irene Gammel s dual biography of Anne Shirley and the woman who created her will delight the millions who have loved the red haired orphan ever since she took her first step inside the gate of Green Gables farm in Avonlea Baroness Elsa Irene Gammel,2003-08-29 The first biography of the enigmatic dadaist known as the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven 1874 1927 is considered by many to be the first American dadaist as well as the mother of dada An innovator in poetic form and an early creator of junk sculpture the Baroness was best known for her sexually charged often controversial performances Some thought her merely crazed others thought her a genius The editor Margaret Anderson called her perhaps the only figure of our generation who deserves the epithet extraordinary Yet despite her great notoriety and influence until recently her story and work have been little known outside the circle of modernist scholars In Baroness Elsa Irene Gammel traces the extraordinary life and work of this daring woman viewing her in the context of female dada and the historical battles fought by women in the early twentieth century Striding through the streets of Berlin Munich New York and Paris wearing such adornments as a tomato soup can bra teaspoon earrings and black lipstick the Baroness erased the boundaries between life and art between the everyday and the outrageous between the creative and the dangerous Her art objects were precursors to dada objects of the teens and twenties her sound and visual poetry were far more daring than those of the male modernists of her time and her performances prefigured feminist body art and performance art by nearly half a century

Art Of The Postmodern Era Irving Sandler, 2018-05-30 Sandler discusses the major and minor artists and their works movements ideas attitudes and styles and the social and cultural context of the period He covers post modernist art theory the art market and consumer society American and European art and artists are included
