Myers,Erin Dufault-Hunter,Isaac B. Voss,2015-11-17 Frontiers and Challenges for Christian Healthcare Missions Ever since Jesus s proclamation in word and deed as the Great Physician his followers in mission have assumed that salvation and health are intertwined Yet for every age Christians need to examine how they can best announce the gospel message of God s healing in word and deed in their own context In our era we are often simultaneously grateful for modern medicine and frustrated by its inability to care for the whole person in effective affordable ways In this edited volume authors with an interest in health missions from a wide variety of experiences and disciplines examine health and healing through the theological lens of shalom This word often translated peace names a much more complex understanding of human well being as right relationships with one another with God and with creation Reading various aspects of healthcare missions through these glasses not only yields much needed correctives to current practice but also exposes the Spirit s invitation to participate in God s ongoing work of tending caring and healing our broken world Saved to Save and Saved to Serve Harold Hill,2017-07-24 The Salvation Army has now been around for more than one hundred and fifty years having celebrated its sesquicentennial in 2015 with an International Congress in London Over the years both the Army and the world in which it appeared have changed beyond recognition This is a good time for the movement to stop and look back not just to celebrate but to see where it is today The Army has not evolved in isolation from the world Bringing its own history with it it nevertheless belongs to the twenty first century world as much as William Booth s little East End Mission belonged to nineteenth century London This book attempts to explore the interaction between mission and world as it has impacted the Army s beliefs and practices as well as the place it now occupies in the wider world This critical and analytical study may also be of interest to those beyond the Army s ranks who would like to learn more about this remarkable organization Religious Perspectives on Religious Diversity ,2016-11-07 Religious Perspectives on Religious Diversity addresses fundamental and controversial questions raised by religious diversity What are members of religious traditions to say about outsiders their views and their salvific status And what are they to say about the religions of outsiders about say whether those religions are inspired or salvifically effective or worthwhile or legitimate Discussion of some Muslim Christian and Jewish perspectives is combined with more methodological work The authors of these ground breaking and original yet readable and accessible essays include established scholars and younger scholars whose reputation is growing Contributors are Imran Aijaz David Basinger Paul Rhodes Eddy Jerome Gellman Mohammad Hassan Khalil Eugene Korn Daniel A Madigan Robert McKim John Sanders and Diego R Sarri Cucarella Judaism Christianity and Islam s attitudes to other religions are thoughtfully examined in this collection both with fine historical sensibility as well as original constructive contributions from leading scholars in the field A series of helpful meta reflections follow on typologies in theology of religions the act of comparison between traditions and a plea for informed tolerance when difference is confronted A rare treat an edited collection that is of uniformly high quality throwing immense light on the subject It will help specialists and undergraduate students approaching the subject of religious pluralism Professor Gavin D Costa University of Bristol September 2016 Health, Healing and the Church's Mission Willard M. Swartley,2012-08-02 Does the Christian community have the resources to develop a coherent response to today s health care challenges In a comprehensive survey covering the full scope of the Bible and three millennia of Christian belief and practice Willard Swartley fleshes out the central place of health care in the church s mission Care, Healing, and, Human Well-Being within Interreligious Discourses Helmut Weiss,Karl H. Federschmidt, Daniël Louw,Linda Sauer Bredvik,2021-12-08 Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an edited peer reviewed volume of global perspectives on interreligious approaches to healing and well being by 23 academics and practitioners from five different faith practices and 13 different cultures With chapters by counsellors chaplains religious thinkers and linguists the multifaceted nature of the volume provides an expansive approach to spiritual care and counselling In order to understand the ways in which interreligious encounters can have an enriching effect on our humanity the volume is divided into four sections that address methodological questions surrounding spiritual caregiving perspectives of different faith traditions on care and healing the challenges to the praxis of care in diverse cultural and political settings and finally how spiritual care and healing can be carried out in public places such as the police the military and hospitals The book is an outgrowth of 25 years of experience within the Society for Interreligious Care and Counselling SIPCC to promote better understanding and practices of intercultural and interreligious spiritual caregiving Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an extraordinary assemblage of writings from diverse cultural religious and geopolitical contexts By addressing methodological questions challenges faced in the care of individuals and care in public settings from Islamic Jewish Christian Buddhist and Hindu perspectives this anthology moves the discourse on care and healing into a more adequate theological anthropology than has often undergirded pastoral care and counselling in most Western texts This much needed work will doubtless be crucial for chaplains and other spiritual care providers seeking to offer genuinely interreligious and intercultural care in today s globalized world Emmanuel Y Lartey PhD Charles Howard Candler Professor of Pastoral Theology Spiritual Care Candler School of Theology Emory University GA USA Given the variety of religious expressions in the contemporary world providing interreligious care is a great challenge for caregivers This book contributes to reflection on care and healing from an interreligious perspective by helping us to think about the theme not only from a theoretical approach but also from methodological practical and culturally contextualized points of view that overflow with compassion It is not to be simply read but studied and used as a bedside book by those engaged in the practice of human care Dr Mary Rute Gomes Esperandio Professor and researcher on Spirituality Health in the Post Graduate Program in Bioethics and Post Graduate Program in Theology at the Pontif cia Universidade Cat lica do Paran Brazil I Can Do No Other Anna M. Madsen,2019-10-01 Author Anna M Madsen s book is a fresh and challenging look at the legacy of Martin Luther and the new reformation that is calling people of faith to action today This book is born out of the conviction that at least two gods are currently competing for our collective trust nationalism and its many sub manifestations and quietism Both make a case for and a claim on our allegiance each by way of different motivations of self and institutional protection Madsen looks at today s modern context and asks Where will the church stand in a day that is marked by globalization polarization racism bigotry and debates about justice for humanity and for the earth itself While the Reformation church was built on the foundation of justification by grace Madsen calls people of faith to a new reformation that will focus on standing for justice in the world Madsen delves into who Jesus was and how our claim that he died and was raised establishes our faith and impacts the way we live it out She pays attention to Luther s theology and juxtaposes it with our present context She explores recent examples of Nazi resistance liberation theology black and womanist theology and feminist theology each of which come at social justice in their unique ways with a common conviction that justice work is central to the Christian life She speaks of how our faith grounding and our faith history weave together and entwine themselves into our present moment offering both warnings and encouragement And last a case is made that justice anchored in justification is our new Reformation moment one not inconsistent with Luther s theology but weighted differently to address the different weighty concerns of our day A study guide is included to encourage group conversation and action The War Cry ,1997 God's Healing Arsenal Paul King,2001-01-15 Like the Art of War which teaches the battle plan for the military God s Healing Arsenal reveals the ultimate battle plan against distress and disease A biblically sound and immensely practical guide to healing forged in the white hot fires of the author s personal victorious battle with cancer It is not a heavy theoretical

Salvation as Praxis Wayne Morris,2013-12-19 Will people of other faiths be saved and to what extent should the response to this question shape Christian engagements with people of other faiths Historically the predominant answer to these questions has been that the person of another faith will not be saved and is therefore in need of conversion to Christianity for their salvation to be possible Consequently it has been understood to be the obligation of Christian persons to convert people of other faiths More recent theologies of religions for the past half century and more have sought to reconsider these approaches to soteriology This has sometimes led to a reaffirmation of the status quo and at other times to an alternative soteriological understanding In seeking to articulate soteriologies that make logical and doctrinal sense too often these new approaches to salvation and people of other faiths have paid little attention to questions of practice Drawing on alternative understandings of soteriology as deification healing and liberation each perspective having ancient roots in the Christian tradition it is argued that salvation can be understood as form of concrete earthly practice Understood in this way this book considers how these alternative theologies of salvation might shape Christian practices in a way that departs from a history in which the person of another faith has been perceived as a threat to Christianity and therefore in need of conversion Further it asks how the complex multi faith world of the twenty first century might better inform and shape the way in which Christian theologies frame soteriological understandings Christ, Our Mother of Mercy Margaret A. Palliser,2017-06-26 No detailed description available for Christ Our Mother of Mercy Spirit and Healing in Africa Deborah van den Bosch-Heij,2012-01-01 There is a great need for healing in Africa This need is in itself no different elsewhere in the world but it is greatly determined by the involvement of religious communities and traditions Faith communities and religious institutions play a major role in assisting African believers to find health healing and completeness in everyday life THE SECRET SERVICE CHURCH:FAITH SEEKING RELATEDNESS George Gammack,2015-08-13 We all know what church is Likewise we are provided with a supply of set notions for God Christ and the Bible which make up the stock in trade equipment for both believer and non believer This study asks fundamental questions about all these from a relational perspective attempting to illumine the faith quest by way of clues from the common realities of human interaction In this it is the appropriate provisions of relationships rather than the assent to doctrines that forms the spiritual basis of community Such a theology of relatedness is urgently needed We must come out of our creedal closets to be part of a new diaspora This demands a secret discipline of servant relationship at work in that no man s land where there is space for all manner of secular saints and doctrinal devils to discover the possibilities of their togetherness the secret service church in odd places and often strange company Spirituality and Religion Within the Culture of Medicine Dr Michael Balboni,Dr John Peteet,2017-05-10 Spirituality and Religion Within the Culture of Medicine provides a comprehensive evaluation of the relationship between spirituality religion and medicine evaluating current empirical research and academic scholarship In Part 1 the book examines the relationship of religion spirituality and the practice of medicine by assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the most recent empirical research of religion spirituality within twelve distinct fields of medicine including pediatrics psychiatry internal medicine surgery palliative care and medical ethics Written by leading clinician researchers in their fields contributors provide case examples and highlight best practices when engaging religion spirituality within clinical practice This is the first collection that assesses how the medical context interacts with patient spirituality recognizing crucial differences between contexts from obstetrics and family medicine to nursing to gerontology and the ICU Recognizing the interdisciplinary aspects of spirituality religion and health Part 2 of the book turns to academic scholarship outside the field of medicine to consider cultural dimensions that form clinical practice Social scientific practical and humanity fields include psychology sociology anthropology law history philosophy and theology This is the first time in a single volume that readers can reflect on these multi dimensional complex issues with contributions from leading scholars In Part III the book concludes with a synthesis identifying the best studies in the field of religion and health ongoing weaknesses in research and highlighting what can be confidently believed based on prior studies The synthesis also considers relations between the empirical literature on religion and health and the theological and religious traditions discussing places of convergence and tension as well as remainingopen questions for further reflection and research This book will provide trainees and clinicians with an introduction to the field of spirituality religion and medicine and its multi disciplinary approach will give researchers and scholars in the field a critical and up to date analysis The Ecumenical Review ,1983 Why Salvation? Prof. Joel B. Green,2014-02-18 Salvation is the bedrock of our faith and the touchstone for faithful living It is the good news of God drawing near to us as individuals but also as communities of faith This book helps us understand that when we say Jesus saves we stand on scripture that proclaims a God who through Jesus heals liberates and rescues Like each generation that has gone before we too must find our own awareness and then respond and participate in God s work as transformed people serving together as the Body of Christ who have also signed up for ongoing personal and social transformation This book is an invitation to a journey of salvation oriented toward increased understanding but also to transformed commitments renewed allegiances and fresh practices To address the grand narrative of Scripture in a way that takes seriously its essential focus on the journey of salvation is to open ourselves to fresh and perhaps refreshed perspectives on the world and thus on life in the world In this book Joel Green show how salvation can illumine new categories for conceiving the world for making sense of our experiences and for directing our lives The Concise Dictionary of Pastoral Care and Counseling Glenn H.
