Parks, 2018-11-16 There are ways of being in the world that create a flourishing life and other ways that restrict that life both for ourselves and others Listening is one of these ways of being Listening gives shape to speaking inviting other people into a dialogue that impacts our everyday lives Our acts of listening like all communication are shaped by our cultural and individual differences Unfortunately as people consider ways to ethically listen they often abide by a set of conversational rules that do not reflect or benefit their own or others unique contexts and communities In this book Parks responds to gaps in scholarship related to listening in communication research and difference in ethics scholarship Rather than imposing a rigid ethical norm that is unresponsive to diverse cultural practices her proposed listening ethic is one that is highly contextualized and pluralistic and yet dares to make normative claims Using discourse research methods that are both qualitative and quantitative Parks goes beyond describing what listening is in a given context to what ethical listening should be Empirical findings about listening from multiple communities that represent diverse ethnic gender and disability orientations are interwoven with insights from communication ethics to develop the first ever dialogic ethics of listening that is empirically based culturally grounded and normative Ten shared values emerge as guidelines for good listening in this ethic be open cultivate understanding practice authenticity engage in critical thinking invest in relationship care for the dialogue focus on what matters be intentionally present remember the ongoing story and be responsive to need These values while shared across cultures may be expressed in a diverse and sometimes conflicting communicative practices Ultimately Parks proposes that ethical listening is best conceptualized as pursuit of sustainable hospitality in our dialogic interactions within and across difference By understanding the ways that different people share listening values yet practice them differently we can learn to trust each other and attest to the hope that ethical dialogue is possible Children's Book of Moral Lessons: Kindness; Work and duty Frederick James Gould, 1907 Sursum Corda, 1898 The Church Hymnal, with Canticles Charles Lewis Hutchins, 1879 Hymns for Christian Worship, 1909 Children's Hymns, with Tunes Caryl Florio, 1885 The American Illustrated Methodist Magazine, 1901 Acquisition Reversal Olanike Ola Orie, 2012-10-01 This is the first comprehensive account of prolonged hearing loss and its impact on a language that was once spoken fluently Although it is currently assumed that hearing loss results in speech deterioration it is shown that language loss occurs when speakers remain deaf for a long time The reader is introduced to a significant deaf population postlingually deafened Yoruba speakers who have been deaf for more than twenty years and who have no access to hearing aids or speech therapy After becoming deaf they continue to speak Yoruba from memory and hear visually through lip reading These speakers exhibit phonological lexical and syntactic losses which mirror acquisition patterns attested in the speech of Yoruba children Based on these similarities it is argued that a direct link exists between language loss and first language acquisition It is further argued that prolonged deafness results in language reversal Finally the book presents the first description of the sign language and gestures used by deafened speakers to augment their spoken language These findings will be of value to linguists speech language and hearing therapists anthropologists Africanists deaf studies researchers and non specialists who are interested in hearing health and wellness The Primitive Methodist Sunday School Hymnal Primitive Methodist Church (Great Britain),1916 Children's hymns Mrs. Carey Brock,1873 Hymnal Companion to the Book of Common Prayer.
