Hearing Knowing Theological Reflecti:

Hearing and Knowing Mercy A. Oduyoye, 2009-07-01 I would urge everyone to receive this book with openness and understanding Written by an African Christian woman it is a serious attempt to speak of the fullness of the Gospel to the specific African context As one individual s struggle to give account of the hope that lies in her it is a passionate and sincere work and a welcome contribution to the growing genre of religious literature known as liberation theology The author seeks not only to speak to us but also to move us and bring us to different ways of hearing and knowing She has succeeded with me Lamin Sanneh Center for the Study of World Religions Harvard University This book is a remarkable synthesis of history theology and missions It is one of the most important books of the decade because it is written by a Ghanaian Christian woman who resides in Nigeria and has travelled the world over demanding that we no longer allow traditional theological puzzles to go unexamined Oduyoye s writings are like a breath of fresh air to women in ministry and in the church Katie G Cannon Episcopal Divinity School Amber Oduyoye is Africa s leading woman theologian In this book we meet a woman of faith reflecting in a scholarly and meditative way on Christianity in Africa Learned in both the Western and African theological traditions Professor Oduyoye brings constructive criticism to bear on each in the interest of promoting a wider community of wholeness Peter J Paris Princeton Theological Seminary Hearing and Knowing Mercy Amba Oduyoye, 2000 Proverbs and the African Tree of Life Dorothy BEA Akoto-Abutiate, 2014-08-07 In Proverbs and the African Tree of Life Dorothy BEA Akoto Abutiate juxtaposes chosen sayings from Proverbs and selected Ewe Folk proverbs using the agricultural metaphor of grafting which she calls a hermeneutic of grafting Though these two sets of sayings come from completely different cultural contexts Akoto argues that folk sayings proverbs which abound in Africa should be considered as an already mature established tree on to which a piece of the biblical tree is spliced or engrafted to produce hybridized fruits that have uniquely different tastes than the fruits of each tree individually This metaphorical grafting process allows the message of the Bible in Proverbs to be understood imbibed and appropriated in Africa Beads and Strands Mercy Amba Oduyoye, 2002 The Palgrave Handbook of African Social Ethics Nimi Wariboko, Toyin Falola, 2020-03-30 This Handbook provides a robust collection of vibrant discourses on African social ethics and ethical practices It focuses on how the ethical thoughts of Africans are forged within the context of everyday life and how in turn ethical and philosophical thoughts inform day to day living The essays frame ethics as a historical phenomenon best examined as a historical movement the dynamic ethos of a people rather than as a theoretical construct It thereby offers a bold incisive and fresh interpretation of Africa s ethical life and thought Mapping Systematic Theology in Africa Ernst M Conradie, Charl E Fredericks, 2004-08-01 The emergence of an indigenous African theology especially since the 1960s is well documented A wealth of literature has been published in the context of African theology especially over the last two or three decades This indexed bibliography contains a number of publications in and for the African context specifically relevant to the fields of systematic theology and ethics An

Muslim and Christian Women in Dialogue Kathleen McGarvey, 2009 Observations about dialogue and about the theology of religions are common enough these days but they are rarely grounded in the analysis of a particular reality and are therefore of little help to practitioners This book on the other hand gives an exhaustive documentation of the background and the actual situation of Muslim Christian relations in Northern Nigeria before proceeding to proposals for understanding the contribution of women s discourse in the development of dialogue and to a feminist theology of religions Drawing from her empirical findings in Northern Nigeria as well as some feminist insights the author suggests an approach to other religions grounded in people s lived experience and a shared commitment to justice peace and transformed human relations Recognizing the limitations of some pluralist theories she suggests a feminist ethical approach to religious pluralism The practicality and feasibility of such an approach are shown as she elaborates on its possible application in the concrete context of Northern Nigeria
