Heart Of Europe Essays On Literature And Ideology:

The Heart of Europe Joseph Peter Stern, 1992-01-01 History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2004-01-01 Continuing the work undertaken in Vol 1 of the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe Vol 2 considers various topographic sites multicultural cities border areas cross cultural corridors multiethnic regions that cut across national boundaries rendering them permeable to the flow of hybrid cultural messages By focusing on the literary cultures of specific geographical locations this volume intends to put into practice a new type of comparative study Traditional comparative literary studies establish transnational comparisons and contrasts but thereby reconfirm howev German Literature, Jewish Critics Stephen D. Dowden, Meike Werner, 2002 Proceedings of the Brandeis conference on Jewish Germanists who fled Nazi Germany and their impact on Anglo American German studies Among the Jewish academics and intellectuals expelled from Germany and Austria during the Nazi era were many specialists in German literature Strangely their impact on the practice of Germanistik in the United States England and Canada has been given little attention Who were they Did their vision of German literature and culture differ significantly from that of those who remained in their former homeland What problems did they face in the American and British academic settings Above all how did they help shape German studies in the postwar era This unique and important symposium which convened at Brandeis University under the auspices of its Center for German and European Studies addresses these and many other questions Among its distinguished participants who numbered over thirty in all are Peter Demetz Yale emeritus Gesa Dane G ttingen Amir Eshel Stanford Willi Goetschel Toronto Barbara Hahn Princeton Susanne Klingenstein MIT Christoph K nig Deutsches Literaturarchiv Marbach Ritchie Robertson Oxford Egon Schwarz Washington University St Louis emeritus Hinrich Seeba UC Berkeley Walter Sokel University of Virginia emeritus Frank Trommler University of Pennsylvania and many more The volume includes not only the revised essays of the participants but also their prepared responses transcripts of the panel discussion and dialogue of the participants with members of the audience Stephen D Dowden is professor of German at Brandeis University Meike G Werner is assistant professor of German at Vanderbilt University Canetti and Nietzsche Harriet Murphy, 1997-01-01 This first full length study investigates the profound implications of the peculiarly original sense of humor found in Elias Canetti s single novel a facetiousness understood in a Nietzschean sense as a revolutionary aesthetic

The Little Czech and the Great Czech Nation Ladislav Holy, 1996-08-28 When Ladislav Holy precipitately left Czechoslovakia for the UK in 1968 he was already one of the leading anthropologists in Central Europe In the following decades he made important field studies in Africa Since 1986 he has been engaged in research in the Czech Republic and he brings to this timely study of national identity the skills of a seasoned researcher a cosmopolitan perspective and the insights of an insider Drawing on historical and literary sources as well as ethnography he analyses Czech discourses on national identity He argues that there were specifically Czech aspects to the communist regime and to the velvet revolution and paying particular attention to symbolic representations of what it means to be Czech he explores how notions of Czech identity were involved in the debates surrounding the fall of communism and the emergence of a new social system

The Reception of Ossian in Europe Howard Gaskill, 2008-12-22 Collection of international research surveying the reception of James Macpherson's Ossian poems in European literature and culture

Modernism and Morality M. Halliwell, 2001-09-12 Modernism and Morality discusses the relationship between artistic and moral ideas in European and American literary modernism Rather than reading modernism as a complete rejection of social morality this study shows how early twentieth century writers like Conrad Faulkner Gide Kafka Mann and Stein actually devised new aesthetic techniques to address ethical problems By focusing on a range of decadent naturalist avant garde and expatriate writers between 1890 and the late 1930s this book reassesses the moral trajectory of transatlantic fiction

European Peripheries in the Postcolonial Literary Imagination Janine Hauthal, Anna-Leena Toivanen, 2024-10-18 This book explores the meanings of European peripheries in postcolonial literary imagination While colonial discourses have constructed Europe as the centre the continent is internally divided into centres and peripheries Approaching the question of European peripherality in a variety of geographical and linguistic contexts and across national and diasporic literary traditions of postcolonial writing the contributions in this volume attest to the entangled and relational character of the centre periphery nexus Acknowledging the unbalanced power structures between centres and peripheries the volume sets out to challenge conventional ideas about peripheries and places European peripheral loci at the centre of postcolonial literary inquiry The chapters in the volume draw on diverse theoretical and conceptual frameworks in order to address among others the link between peripherality and provincialism the relations between intra European and colonial peripheries and the progressive potential of European peripheries as postcolonial spaces The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Postcolonial Writing

In the Shadow of Empire Malcolm Spencer, 2008 Spencer then considers Roth's more negative reaction showing the post imperial novel Radetzkymarsch to be a nostalgic response to the collapse of Habsburg Austria and the rise of fascism The final chapter looks again at the end of empire not in the work of writers who lived through it but through that of one who experienced it as a historical and cultural legacy

Ingeborg Bachmann BOOK JACKET

The Confusions of Young Törless Robert Musil, 2014 Set in a boarding school in a remote area of the Habsburg Empire at the turn of the last century The Confusions of Young Torless is an intense study of an adolescent's psychological development as he struggles to come to terms with his conflicting emotions Through his relationship with two other boys Torless is led into sadistic and sexual encounters with a third pupil which both repel and fascinate him Estranged from everyday life Torless gradually learns to accept his experiences and describe them with analytical precision

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Prague Palimpsest Alfred

Thomas, 2010-10-15 A city of immense literary mystique Prague has inspired writers across the centuries with its beauty cosmopolitanism and tragic history Envisioning the ancient city in central Europe as a multilayered text or palimpsest that has been constantly revised and rewritten from the medieval and Renaissance chroniclers who legitimized the city's foundational origins to the modernists of the early twentieth century who established its reputation as the new capital of the avant garde Alfred Thomas argues that Prague has become a paradoxical site of inscription and effacement of memory and forgetting a utopian link to the prewar and pre Holocaust European past and a dystopia of totalitarian amnesia Considering a wide range of writers including the city's most famous son Franz Kafka Prague Palimpsest reassesses the work of poets and novelists such as Bohumil Hrabal Milan Kundera Gustav Meyrink Jan Neruda V t zslav Nezval and Rainer Maria Rilke and engages with other famous authors who wrote Prague including Guillaume Apollinaire Ingeborg Bachmann Albert Camus Paul Celan and W G Sebald The result is a comparative interdisciplinary study that helps to explain why Prague more than any other major European city has haunted the cultural and political imagination of the West Kafka's Last Trial: The Case of a Literary Legacy Benjamin Balint, 2018-09-18 Winner of the 2020 Sami Rohr Prize for Jewish Literature Dramatic and illuminating R aises momentous questions about nationality religion literature and even the Holocaust Adam Kirsch The Atlantic When Franz Kafka died in 1924 his loyal friend Max Brod could not bring himself to fulfill Kafka's last instruction to burn his remaining manuscripts Instead Brod devoted his life to championing Kafka's work rescuing his legacy from both obscurity and physical destruction Nearly a century later an international legal battle erupted to determine which country could claim ownership the Jewish state where Kafka dreamed of living or Germany where Kafka's three sisters perished in the Holocaust Benjamin Balint offers a gripping account of the controversial trial in Israeli courts brimming with dilemmas legal ethical and political that determined the fate of Kafka's manuscripts Transitions, 2016-08-29 This volume introduces ten emerging voices in German language literature by women Their texts speak to the diverse modalities of transition that characterise society and culture in the twenty first century such as the adaptation to evolving political and social conditions in a newly united Germany globalisation the dissolution of borders and the changing face of Europe dramatic shifts in the meaning of national ethnic sexual gender religious and class identities rapid technological advancement and the revolutionary power of new media which in turn have radically altered the connections between public and private personal and political In their literature the authors presented here reflect on the notion of transition and offer some unique interventions on its meaning in the contemporary era Against All Odds Corina L. Petrescu, 2010 German Life and Civilization provides contributions to a critical understanding of Central European cultural history from medieval times to the present Culture is here defined in the broadest sense comprising expressions of high culture in such areas as literature music pictorial arts and intellectual trends as well as political and sociohistorical developments and the texture of everyday life

Investigating Sociological Theory Charles Turner, 2010-03-30 This is an accessible enlivening introductory book that provides a shot in the arm for all those who maintain the relevance of sociology for understanding the modern world Charles Turner provides a wealth of concrete examples which demonstrate what a sociological perspective can do to unpack and illuminate everyday life The book allows students to understand sociological theory from the inside It moves effortlessly beyond the mere parade of great names and core ideas to introduce concepts that can be used to understand the social world in which we live where this world has come from and where it might be heading Original informed and deftly written with the needs of students in mind this book is an antidote to arid theorizing and the dull recitation of the grand sociological tradition

Between German and Hebrew Lina Barouch, 2016-04-11 This book traces the German Hebrew contact zones in which Gershom Scholem Werner Kraft and Ludwig Strauss lived and produced their creative work in early twentieth century Germany and later in British Mandate Palestine after their voluntary or forced migration in the 1920s and 1930s Set in shifting historical contexts and literary debates the notion of the German vernacular nation Hebraism and Jewish Revival in Weimar Germany the crisis of language in modernist literature and the fledgling multilingual communities in Jerusalem the writings of Scholem Kraft and Strauss emerge as unique forms of counterlanguage The three chapters of the book are dedicated to Scholem's Hebraist lamentation Kraft's Germanist steadfastness and Strauss's polyglot dialogue respectively The examination of their correspondences diaries scholarship and literary oeuvres demonstrates how counteractive writing practices helped confront concrete and metaphorical crises of language to produce compelling alternatives to literary silence amnesia or paralysis that were prompted by cultural marginality and dislocation Theatre and Performance in Austria

Ritchie Robertson, Edward Timms, 1993 Through examining the interactions between public performance and national identity it provides a wide ranging account of one of the defining features of Austrian culture Imperial Messages Robert Lemon, 2011 Orientalism as self critique rather than hegemonic discourse in works by Hofmannsthal Musil and Kafka In recent years a debate has arisen on the applicability of postcolonial theory to the Austro Hungarian Empire Some have argued that Austria Hungary's lack of overseas territories renders the concepts of colonialism and postcolonialism irrelevant while others have cited the quasi colonial attitudes of the Viennese elite towards the various subject peoples of the empire as a point of comparison Imperial Messages applies postcolonial theory to works of orientalist fiction by Hugo von Hofmannsthal Robert Musil and Franz Kafka all subjects of the empire challenging Edward Said's notion that orientalism invariably acts in the ideological service of European colonialism It argues that these Habsburg authors employ oriental motifs not to promulgate Western hegemony but to engage in self reflection and self critique including critique of the foundational concepts of orientalist discourse itself By providing detailed textual analyses of canonical works of Austrian Modernism including Hofmannsthal s Tale of the 672nd Night Musil s Young T rless and Kafka s In the Penal Colony the book not only offers new postcolonial readings of these Austrian works but also shows how they question the conventional postcolonial and post Saidian view of orientalism as a purely hegemonic discourse Robert Lemon is Associate Professor of German at the University of Oklahoma
