The Alpine Journal, 1998 Himalaya Richard C. Blum, Erica Stone, Broughton Coburn, 2006 Both a magnificent celebration and a call for compassion, Himalaya is a panorama of the unique history and uncertain future of the world's highest region and its colorful inhabitants. The awesome beauty of these lofty peaks, including Everest, Kanchenjunga, and Annapurna, is brought to life by gifted photographers like Steve McCurry, Art Wolfe, and many more, while such notable contributors as Jimmy Carter, the Dalai Lama, Sir Edmund Hillary, Tenzing Norgay, and over two dozen others share vivid personal tales of Himalayan life, recount their efforts to encourage hope and opportunity, and emphasize the urgent need to preserve the vibrant variety of these ancient landscapes and cultures as they face the mixed blessings of the modern world. The book begins by introducing the region, its astonishing biodiversity, its mountaineering history, its rich ethnic heritage, and the interplay between two major religions, Hinduism and Buddhism. Himalaya addresses challenges to these mountainous domains: political turmoil, population growth, touristic demands, and ecological stresses. Finally, a compelling conclusion comes in the stories of doctors, conservationists, environmentalists, and volunteers of every kind whose efforts provide a global model for practical results and lasting relief, still respecting, honoring, and protecting the magic of a place unlike any other on Earth.

Great Himalaya Trail Gerda Paule, 2013-11-07 The Great Himalaya Trail is one of the longest and highest trails in the world. It is a trail that winds for 17,000 kilometres through Nepal across the roof of the world, over ice-covered passes, crossing high mountain deserts, and through some of the most remote areas on earth. This path is perhaps the ultimate walk. In 2012, Himalaya veteran Gerda Paule set out to walk the length of the trail to raise awareness of autism in Nepal. Travelling across the country with open eyes and ears, ascending high passes, visiting isolated villages and drinking tea with the locals allowed her to see and hear things many of us might never hear never experience and never know Beautifully written like many great travel books and with a foreword by Sir Chris Bonington this is so much more than a travel diary it is a collection of stories from the very heart of Nepal and its people From Tibetan tea and local beer to corrupt politicians and child marriage cold nights and monsoon rain to incredible views and searing heat and from angry yaks and giant spiders to Mr Bean and Jack Nicholson Her book is not about her but about this trip across the roof of the world done both for her own pleasure and for those who suffer from autism Sir Chris Bonington Nepal Himalaya H. W. Tilman,2013-01-28 There can be no country so rich in mountains as Nepal This narrow strip of territory lying between Sikkim and Garhwal occupies 500 miles of India s northern border and since this border coincides roughly with the 1 500 mile long Himalayan chain it follows that approximately a third of this vast range lies within or upon the confines of Nepal So starts this breathtaking account of mountaineering and exploring this isolated and awe inspiring country by one of the most famous men in mountaineering Many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork Land of Pure Vision David Zurick,2014-07-09 Wars have played a momentous role in shaping the course of human history The ever present specter of conflict has made it an enduring topic of interest in popular culture and many movies from Hollywood blockbusters to independent films have sought to show the complexities and horrors of war on screen In The Philosophy of War Films David LaRocca compiles a series of essays by prominent scholars that examine the impact of representing war in film and the influence that cinematic images of battle have on human consciousness belief and action The contributors explore a variety of topics including the aesthetics of war as portrayed on screen the effect war has on personal identity and the ethical problems presented by war Drawing upon analyses of iconic and critically acclaimed war films such as Saving Private Ryan 1998 The Thin Red Line 1998 Rescue Dawn 2006 Restrepo 2010 and Zero Dark Thirty 2012 this volume s examination of the genre creates new ways of thinking about the philosophy of war A fascinating look at the manner in which combat and its aftermath are depicted cinematically The Philosophy of War Films is a timely and engaging read for any philosopher filmmaker reader or viewer who desires a deeper understanding of war and its representation in popular culture In the Land of Heart's Desire Susan Höivik,2003 Authors travel impression of Nepalese countryside Classic Hikes of the World Peter Potterfield,2005-03-08 From John Muir Trail in California to Mount Kilimanjaro Potterfield takes readers along on 23 of his favorite personal hikes on some of the world s most spectacular trails These hikes range from weekend trips to epic journeys and none require mountaineering skills

Flying Off Everest Dave Costello,2014-05-06 Perched impossibly on a ridge overlooking a 10 000 foot drop into Tibet Sano Babu Sunuwar and Lakpa Tsheri Sherpa wait Heel to toe connected at the waist by a pair of carabineers that s connected to nothing else they stare down the North Face of Mount Everest a red and white nylon tandem paragliding wing fluttering behind them They know that jumping off the top of the world marks only the beginning of a longer more audacious journey And they know that the two mile ride down Everest will be the easiest part If the jump doesn't kill them In April 2011 the two unsponsored Nepalis set out on an unprecedented expedition to climb Everest paraglide from its peak and paddle nearly 400 miles to the ocean Little problems wouldn't stop them Like the fact that Babu had no technical climbing experience And that Lakpa had never been kayaking or swimming But after summiting surviving their flight off the world's tallest mountain and being arrested robbed and nearly drowned repeatedly the two friends discovered their adventure had only just begun

Travel with Purpose Jeff Blumenfeld, 2019-04-05 Imagine yourself in a schoolroom in one of the most remote regions of one of the most hard to reach countries on earth Nepal The Lower Mustang region to be exact To reach it takes a 14 hour flight from New York to Doha Qatar Then four hours by air to Kathmandu Transfer at one of the world's most dangerous airports to a 90 minute flight to Pokhara followed by a jarring eight hour Jeep ride over a vertiginous dirt road one side is a mountain wall the other side a two hundred foot cliff Finally you arrive but it's not just any schoolroom It has been converted into an operating room so that doctors from New York Eye you may not even have to go to foreign lands as opportunities may exist within your own state Blumenfeld shows readers how to identify the right location and volunteer situation how to go about planning trips and preparing for activities how to reach out how to help Through vivid examples and first hand stories from both recipients of volunteer work and the volunteers themselves Travel with Purpose may make you rethink your next vacation
