Native American Studies Clara Sue Kidwell, 2005-01-01 Native American Studies covers key issues such as the intimate relationship of culture to land the nature of cultural exchange and conflict in the period after European contact the unique relationship of Native communities with the United States government the significance of language the vitality of contemporary cultures and the variety of Native artistic styles from literature and poetry to painting and sculpture to performance arts Tribal Fantasies J. Mackay, D. Stirrup, 2012-12-28 This transnational collection discusses the use of Native American imagery in twentieth and twenty first century European culture With examples ranging from Irish oral myth through the pop image of Indians promulgated in pornography to the philosophical appropriations of Ernst Bloch or the European far right contributors illustrate the legend of the Indian Drawing on American Indian literary nationalism postcolonialism and transnational theories essays demonstrate a complex nexus of power relations that seemingly allows European culture to build its own Native images and ask what effect this has on the current treatment of indigenous peoples Daily Life of Women Colleen Boyett,H. Micheal Tarver,Mildred Diane Gleason,2020-12-07

Indispensable for the student or researcher studying women s history this book draws upon a wide array of cultural settings and time periods in which women displayed agency by carrying out their daily economic familial artistic and religious obligations Since record keeping began history has been written by a relatively few elite men Insights into women s history are left to be gleaned by scholars who undertake careful readings of ancient literature examine archaeological artifacts and study popular culture such as folktales musical traditions and art For some historical periods and geographic regions this is the only way to develop some sense of what daily life might have been like for women in a particular time and place This reference explores the daily life of women across civilizations The work is organized in sections on different civilizations from around the world arranged chronologically Within each society the encyclopedia highlights the roles of women within five broad thematic categories the arts economics and work family and community life recreation and social customs and religious life Included are numerous sidebars containing additional information document excerpts images and suggestions for further reading Sound Clash Kara Keeling,Josh Kun,2012-05-07 Race sex and gender Indigenous in the City

Evelyn Peters,Chris Andersen,2013-04-15 Research on Indigenous issues rarely focuses on life in major metropolitan centres Instead there is a tendency to frame rural locations as emblematic of authentic or real Indigeneity While such a perspective may support Indigenous struggles for territory and recognition it fails to account for large swaths of contemporary Indigenous realities including the increased presence of Indigenous people in cities The contributors to this volume explore the implications of urbanization on the production of distinctive Indigenous identities in Canada the US New Zealand and Australia In doing so they demonstrate the resilience creativity and complexity of the urban Indigenous presence both in Canada and internationally The Native American Contest Powwow Steven Aicinena,Sebahattin Ziyank,2021-11-02

The Native American Contest Powwow introduces Cultural Tethering Theory to convey the importance of the contest powwow in the celebration and preservation of Native American culture The book addresses the concepts of culture cultural change acculturation assimilation and illustrates how competitive powwows align with and differ from competitive sporting events Authors Steven Aicinena and Sebahattin Ziyank go on to explain how the modern intertribal contest powwow evolved and why modern Native American cultures are experiencing an erosion of traditional values a rapid loss of traditional languages dysfunctional changes in social organization limited opportunity to transmit culturally valued knowledge and reduced opportunities for youths to observe culturally appropriate behavior The authors also examine Native American identity and explore who can legitimately claim to be a Native American under current laws and customs Additional topics addressed include blood quantum cultural knowledge cultural participation being Indian and playing Indian Finally the authors describe the difference between being Native American and playing Indian in powwow and pseudo cultural powwow environments

Exploring American Folk Music Kip Lornell, 2012-05-29 The perfect introduction to the many strains of American made music

Powwow Clyde Ellis, Luke E. Lassiter, Gary H. Dunham, 2005-01-01 This anthology examines the origins meanings and enduring power of the powwow Held on and off reservations in rural and urban settings powwows are an important vehicle for Native peoples to gather regularly Although sometimes a paradoxical combination of both tribal and intertribal identities they are a medium by which many groups maintain important practices Powwow begins with an exploration of the history and significance of powwows ranging from the Hochunk dances of the early twentieth century to present day Southern Cheyenne gatherings to the contemporary powwow circuit of the northern plains Contributors discuss the powwow s performative and cultural dimensions including emcees song and dance the expression of traditional values and the Powwow Princess The final section examines how powwow practices have been appropriated and transformed by Natives and non Natives during the past few decades Of special note is the use of powwows by Native communities in the eastern United States by Germans by gay and lesbian Natives and by New Agers

Folk Music, Traditional Music, Ethnomusicology Anna Hoefnagels, Gordon E. Smith, 2021-02-19 Folk Music Traditional Music Ethnomusicology Canadian Perspectives Past and Present features the proceedings of the Fiftieth Annual Conference of the Canadian Society for Traditional Music La Soci t Canadienne pour les Traditions Musicales formerly the Canadian Folk Music Society La Soci t canadienne de musique folklorique that took place in November 2006 in Ottawa at Carleton University and the Canadian Museum of Civilization This publication showcases the diversity of music research currently being conducted by folk and traditional music specialists ethnomusicologists and practicing musicians in Canada The papers are organized in five sections according to common themes in contemporary research in ethnomusicology and folk music studies and each section is preceded by a short introduction which highlights the section's theme as well as the individual papers. Folk Music Traditional Music Ethnomusicology Canadian Perspectives Past and Present confirms the rich history of the Canadian Society for Traditional Music, a history that comprises enormous changes in scholarly research, musical practice, emergent technologies, changes in doing fieldwork and shifting identity boundaries over the past fifty years. This volume is intended as a contribution to published literature on ethnomusicological and folklore research in Canada, creating a new resource of historical, contemporary and scholarly relevance that will appeal to academics and music enthusiasts alike. Canadian ethnomusicologists' expertise in the realm of First Nations musics and Anglo-Celtic and French folksong repertoires is already well established. This volume shows us the breadth of cultural territory with which 21st century Canadian scholars of music and scholars of Canadian musics are now engaged, as well as their theoretical and methodological sophistication. Kati Szego, School of Music, Memorial University.

Performance and Knowledge G. N. Devy, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2021-01-10. Part of the series Key Concepts in Indigenous Studies, this book focuses on the concepts that recur in any discussion of nature, culture and society among the indigenous. This final volume in the five volume series deals with the two key concepts of performance and knowledge of the indigenous people from all continents of the world. With contributions from renowned scholars, activists and experts across the globe, it looks at issues and ideas of the indigenous peoples in the context of imagination, creativity, performance, audience, arts, music, dance, oral traditions, aesthetics and beauty in North America, South America, Australia, East Asia and India from cultural, historical and aesthetic points of view. Bringing together academic insights and experiences from the ground, this unique book with its wide coverage will serve as a comprehensive guide for students, teachers and scholars of indigenous studies. It will be essential reading for those in social and cultural anthropology, tribal studies, sociology and social exclusion studies, cultural studies, media studies and performing arts, literary and postcolonial studies, religion and theology, politics, Third World and Global South studies, as well as activists working with indigenous communities.

Geographies of Us Sondra Fraleigh, Shannon Rose Riley, 2024-03-13. Geographies of Us: Ecosomatic Essays and Practice Pages is the first edited collection in the field of ecosomatics. With a combination of essays and practice pages that provide a variety of scholarly, creative and experience-based approaches for readers, the book brings together both established and emergent scholars and artists from many diverse backgrounds and covers work rooted in a dozen countries. The essays engage an array of crucial methodologies and critical theoretical perspectives, including practice-based research in the arts, especially in performance and dance studies, critical theory, ecocriticism, Indigenous knowledges, material feminist critique, quantum field theory and new phenomenologies. Practice pages are shorter chapters that provide readers a chance to engage creatively with the ideas presented across the collection. This book offers a multidisciplinary perspective that brings together work in performance as research, phenomenology and dance movement; this is one of its significant contributions to the area of ecosomatics. The book will be of interest to anyone curious about matters of embodiment ecology and the environment especially artists and students of dance performance and somatic movement education who want to learn about ecosomatics and environmental activists who want to learn more about integrating creativity the arts and movement into their work All Indians Do Not Live in Teepees (or Casinos)

Catherine C. Robbins, 2011-10-01 Both a tribute to the unique experiences of individual Native Americans and a celebration of the values that draw American Indians together All Indians Do Not Live in Teepees or Casinos explores contemporary Native life Based on personal experience and grounded in journalism this story begins with the repatriation of ancestral remains to the Pueblo peoples of New Mexico The 1999 return to Pecos of the skeletal remains of two thousand bodies excavated during an archaeological expedition nearly a century earlier was the largest repatriation in American history In a united purposeful and energizing quest the Pecos and Jemez Indians brought their ancestors home This event along with subsequent repatriations has accelerated similar momentum across much of Native America In All Indians Do Not Live in Teepees or Casinos Catherine C Robbins traces this restorative effect in areas such as economic development urbanization the arts science and health care Through dozens of interviews Robbins draws out the voices of Indian people some well known and many at the grassroots level working quietly to advance their communities These voices speak against the background of the narrative's historical context The result is a rich account of Native American life in contemporary America revealing not a monolithic Indian experience of teepees or casinos but rather a mosaic of diverse peoples existing on a continuum that marks both their distinctions and their shared realities The Harvard Dictionary of Music Don Michael
