At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets, playwrights, essayists and novelists. Figures such as Whitman, Melville, Faulkner, Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times, an assessment of the writer's current reputation, a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer. Fifty entries on major works such as Moby Dick, Song of Myself, Walden, The Great Gatsby, The Waste Land, Their Eyes Were Watching God, Death of a Salesman and Beloved place the work in its historical context and offer a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach. The Encyclopedia also contains essays on literary movements, periods and themes pulling together a broad range of information and making connections between them. Each entry has its own primary and annotated secondary bibliography and a system of cross references helps readers locate information with ease. The Encyclopedia of American Literature is an outstanding reference source for students studying authors or particular pieces of literature, libraries looking for one comprehensive source and readers interested in American literature, its authors and its connection with various areas of study
