Restructuring in the Classroom Richard F. Elmore, Penelope L. Peterson, Sarah J. McCarthey, 1996-03-15 Restructuring in the Classroom goes into the classrooms of three elementary schools to take a detailed look at how teachers responded to changes in structure in their schools The authors interviewed principals teachers parents support staff and district personnel to produce in depth case studies of schools at various stages of restructuring showing what the school had done to change its structure and how those changes had occurred Selecting four teachers in each school for closer observation and discussion the authors reveal how those teachers responded to the changes around them in their day to day practice in the classroom They show for example how teaching practice is or is not affected by changes in the way students are grouped for learning in the way teachers relate to groups of students and to each other and in the way time is allocated to subject matter
