Unveiled Vincent Fantauzzo, 2025-03-04 Raised amid poverty and violence on the poor streets of Melbourne Vincent Fantauzzo was just a boy when he accepted he would either die very young become a gangster or end up behind bars Tormented by a troubled home life and dismissed as a simpleton at school where he struggled to read and write Vincent projected a violent and frightening persona as a means of self protection Inside that tough exterior however lived a thoughtful sensitive and creative boy whose only wish was to be loved and to one day break free of the intergenerational dysfunction he seemed doomed to inherit He could never have imagined how far his dream of a better life and an uncanny knack for drawing would take him Virtually illiterate Vincent used forged papers to hustle his way into art school where dark secrets threatened to sink his brilliant career before it even began Today his work hangs in galleries around the world including the National Portrait Gallery and Federal Parliament House in Canberra He s sold out international exhibitions won the Archibald Prize People s Choice Award more times than any artist and taken out the Doug Moran Portrait Prize Twice Arguably Vincent s most impressive and important achievement is his survival and the remarkable sometimes ridiculous and occasionally glamorous life he willed into existence despite severe and undiagnosed dyslexia that left him with no formal education and debilitating memory problems Sometimes tragic often hilarious but always deeply moving Unveiled is a paint spattered star studded white knuckle ride from the Housing Commission ghettos of Australia to the art galleries of Hong Kong through the back roads of India and into the nightclubs of New York as Vincent chases his dream with humility humour and a boundless love for people and a life better lived
