The Custer Story Marguerite Merington,1987-01-01

Selected letters offer an inside look at the relationship of Custer and his wife and their impressions of frontier life the Civil War and politics Boots and Saddles: Or Life in Dakota with General Custer (Expanded, Annotated) Elizabeth Bacon Custer, 2018-12-15 For nearly 58 years Elizabeth Bacon Custer was probably the most famous widow in the world In this lively fascinating loving portrait of life on the plains with her already famous husband Libbie tells a civilized audience of the excitement fun and perils endured at a remote frontier post Intelligent and beautiful Libbie was partner confidant and booster to the general as well as an important figure in the social life of the posts he commanded This book has been used as source material on the general s life as well as the frontier army for well over a century Celebrated among the prominent people of her day Libbie never remarried after Custer s death at the Little Bighorn in 1876 She spent the rest of her life writing and lecturing about him burnishing his reputation and keeping his memory alive Long a jewel of western Americana this book continues to find and entertain new audiences in the 21st century Boots and Saddles Or Life in Dakota with General Custer Elizabeth Custer, 2016-02-19 One of the motives that have actuated me in recalling these simple annals of our daily life has been to give a glimpse to civilians of garrison and camp life about which they seem to have such a very imperfect knowledge This ignorance exists especially with reference to anything pertaining to the cavalry which is almost invariably stationed on the extreme frontier The isolation of the cavalry posts makes them quite inaccessible to travellers and the exposure incident to meeting warlike Indians does not tempt the visits of friends or even of the venturesome tourist Our life therefore was often as separate from the rest of the world as if we had been living on an island in the ocean Very little has been written regarding the domestic life of an army family and yet I cannot believe that it is without interest for the innumerable questions that are asked about our occupations amusements and mode of house keeping lead me to hope that the actual answers to these queries contained in this little story will be acceptable This must also be my apology for entering in some instances so minutely into trifling perplexities and events which went to fill up the sum of our existence E B C 148 East 18th Street New York City
