Warner's Synopsis of Books Ancient and Modern Hamilton Wright Mabie, Lucia Isabella Gilbert Runkle, Charles Dudley Warner, George H. Warner, 1910 Making the "America of Art" Naomi Z. Sofer, 2005 Making the America of Art demonstrates that beginning in the 1850s women writers challenged the terms of the Scottish Common Sense philosophy which had made artistic endeavors acceptable in the new Republic by subordinating aesthetic motivation to moral and educational goals Harriet Beecher Stowe and Augusta Jane Evans drew on Ruskin to argue for the creation of a religiously based national aesthetic In the postbellum years Louisa May Alcott Rebecca Harding Davis Elizabeth Stuart Phelps and Constance Fenimore Woolson continued the process in a series of writings that revolved around three central areas of concern the place of the popular in the realm of high art the role of the genius and the legacy of the Civil War Sofer significantly revises the history of 19th century American women's authorship by detailing the gradual process that produced women writers wholly identified with literary high culture at the century's end BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Writing for Immortality Anne E. Boyd, 2010-01-01 Before the Civil War American writers such as Catharine Maria Sedgwick and Harriet Beecher Stowe had established authorship as a respectable profession for women But though they had written some of the most popular and influential novels of the century they accepted the taboo against female writers regarding themselves as educators and businesswomen During and after the Civil War some women writers began to challenge this view seeing themselves as artists writing for themselves and for posterity Writing for Immortality studies the lives and works of four prominent members of the first generation of American women who strived for recognition as serious literary artists Louisa May Alcott Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Elizabeth Stoddard and Constance Fenimore Woolson Combining literary criticism and cultural history Anne E Boyd examines how these authors negotiated the masculine connotation of artist imagining a space for themselves in the literary pantheon Redrawing the boundaries between male and female literary spheres and between American and British literary traditions Boyd shows how these writers rejected the didacticism of the previous generation of women writers and instead drew their inspiration from the most prominent literary writers of their day Emerson James Barrett Browning and Eliot Placing the works and experiences of Alcott Phelps Stoddard and Woolson within contemporary discussions about genius and the American artist Boyd reaches a sobering conclusion Although these women were encouraged by the democratic ideals implicit in such concepts they were equally discouraged by lingering prejudices about their applicability to women

American Gothic Literature Ruth Bienstock Anolik, 2018-12-14 American Gothic literature inherited many time worn tropes from its English Gothic precursor along with a core preoccupation anxiety about power and property Yet the transatlantic journey left its mark on the genre the English ghostly setting becomes the wilderness haunted by spectral Indians The aristocratic villain is replaced by the striving independent young man The dispossession of Native Americans and African Americans adds urgency to traditional Gothic anxieties about possession The unchanging role of woman in early Gothic narratives parallels the status of American women even after the Revolution Twentieth century Gothic works offer inclusion to previously silent voices including immigrant writers with their own cultural traditions The 21st century unleashes the zombie horde the latest incarnation of the voracious American

"The Man Who Thought Himself a Woman" and Other Queer Nineteenth-Century Short Stories Christopher Looby, 2016-11-29 Perhaps it is no coincidence that the nineteenth century the century when it has been said sexuality as such and various taxonomized sexual identities were invented is the period when American short stories were invented and when they were the queerest Christopher Looby from the Introduction A man in small town America wears the clothing of his wife and sisters satisfied at last that he has a perfect suit of garments appropriate for my sex he commits suicide asking only that he be buried dressed as a woman A country maid has a passionate summer relationship with an heiress the memory of which sustains her for the next forty years A girl is carried by a strong wind to a place where she discovers that everything is made of candy including the queer people whom she licks and eats If these are not the kinds of stories we expect to find in nineteenth century American literature it is perhaps because we have been looking in the wrong places The stories gathered here are written by a diverse assortment of writers women and men obscure and famous Herman Melville Willa Cather and Louisa May Alcott among others Exploring the vagaries of gender identity erotic desire and affectional attachments that do not map easily onto present categories of sex and gender they celebrate mourn and question the different modes of embodiment and forgotten styles of pleasure of nineteenth century America

The Cambridge Companion to Nineteenth-Century American Women's Writing Dale M. Bauer, Philip Gould, 2001-11-15 Providing an overview of the history of writing by women in the period this 2001 Companion establishes the context in which this writing emerged and traces the origin of the terms which have traditionally defined the debate It includes essays on topics of recent concern such as women and war erotic violence the liberating and disciplinary effects of religion and examines the work of a variety of women writers including Harriet Beecher Stowe Rebecca Harding Davis and Louisa May Alcott The volume plots new directions for the study of American literary history and provides several valuable tools for students including a chronology of works and suggestions for further reading
