Elspeth Huxley C.S. Nicholls,2003-07-28 A portrait of the conservationist and chronicler of colonial Kenya describes her childhood in east Africa and wartime Britain marriage to Thomas Huxley roles as a farmer writer and government advisor

Elspeth Huxley a Biography Nicholls Christine Staff,2002-10-01 Elspeth Huxley Christine S. Nicholls,2003 A biography of the writer broadcaster conservationist and chronicler of colonial Kenya whose memoir The Flame Trees of Thika 1959 achieved worldwide fame when made into a television drama series in 1981 Colonial Kenya inspired three great writers Karen Blixen Out of Africa Beryl Markham West with the Night and Elspeth Huxley Huxley s writings 30 books in all novels biographies and political accounts have great political and social range encompassing in her Kenyan books the exploits of the Happy Valley farmers made famous by James Fox s book White Mischief poor white farmers and the lives of Africans alike

Out in the Midday Sun Elspeth Huxley,1985 The Mottled Lizard Elspeth Huxley,1962 Out In The Midday Sun Elspeth Huxley,2011-06-08 Elspeth Huxley captivated readers throughout the world with her memories of an African childhood in THE FLAME TREES OF THIKA and THE MOTTLED LIZARD In this final volume of her trilogy she tells the story of her adult life in Africa in which the vigorously evoked personalities from the pioneer Lord Delamere and Baroness Blixen to Jomo Kenyatta blend with her superb description of the social cultural and political upheavals of the time An accomplished story teller she weaves anecdotes character sketches political history together without losing her thread or the readers momentum SUNDAY TIMES She evokes it all lovingly but astringently especially the glittering often scandalous life of the young aristocrats who lived in Happy Valley DAILY EXPRESS The Flame Trees of Thika Elspeth Huxley,2000-02-01 In an open cart Elspeth Huxley set off with her parents to travel to Thika in Kenya As pioneering settlers they built a house of grass ate off a damask cloth spread over packing cases and discovered the hard way the world of the African With an extraordinary gift for detail and a keen sense of humor Huxley recalls her childhood on the small farm at a time when Europeans waged their fortunes on a land that was as harsh as it was beautiful For a young girl it was a time of adventure and freedom and Huxley paints an unforgettable portrait of growing up among the Masai and Kikuyu people discovering both the beauty and the terrors of the jungle and enduring the rugged realities of the pioneer life Elspeth Huxley Robert S. Cross,Michael Perkin,1996 Nellie Nellie GRANT,1980 Nine Faces Of Kenya Elspeth Huxley,2011-06-30 In this marvelous anthology Elspeth Huxley our best and most popular writer on Africa has drawn on her unparalleled knowledge of Kenya and its literature to present a fully rounded portrait of one of the most fascinating countries in the world In nine sections focusing on exploration travel settlement war hunting wildlife environment life styles and legend and poetry using only first hand accounts she guides the reader through the story of Kenya from AD100 to the present with her characteristic candour and directness The Memory of Colonialism in Britain and France Itay Lotem,2021-03-12 This book explores national attitudes to remembering colonialism in Britain and France By comparing these two former colonial powers the author tells two distinct stories about coming to terms with the legacies of colonialism the role of silence and the breaking thereof Examining memory through the stories of people who incited public conversation on colonialism activists politicians journalists and professional historians this book argues that these actors mobilised the colonial past to make sense of national identity race and belonging in the present In focusing on memory as an ongoing politicised public debate the book examines the afterlife of colonial history as an element of political and social discourse that depends on actors goals and priorities A thought provoking and powerful read that explores the divisive legacies of colonialism through oral history this book will appeal to those researching imperialism collective memory and cultural identity Transgressing Boundaries. Elizabeth F.

Oldfield,2013 Fictions written between 1939 and 2005 by indigenous and white post colonial women writers emerging from an African European cultural experience form the focus of this study Their voyages into the European diasporic space in Africa are important for conveying how African women s literature is situated in relation to colonialism Notwithstanding the centrality of African literature in the new postcolonial literatures in English the accomplishments of the indigenous writer Grace Ogot have been eclipsed by the critical attention given to her male counterparts while Elspeth Huxley Barbara Kimenye and Marjorie Oludhe Macgoye who are of Western cultural provenance but adopt an African perspective are not accommodated by the genre of expatriate literature The present study of both indigenous and white post colonial women s narratives that are common to both categories fills this gap Focused on the representation of gender identity culture and the Other the texts selected are set in Kenya and Uganda and a main concern is with the extent to which they are influenced by setting and intercultural influences The African woman s creation of textuality is at once the expression of female individualities and a transgression of boundaries The particular category of fiction for children as written by Kimenye and Macgoye reveals the configuration of a voice and identity for the female Other and writer which enables a subversive renegotiation of identity in the face of patriarchal traditions Food and Foodways in African Narratives Jonathan

Highfield,2017-04-07 Food is a defining feature in every culture Despite its very basic purpose of sustaining life it directly impacts the community culture and heritage in every region around the globe in countless seen and unseen ways including the literature and narratives of each region Across the African continent food and foodways which refer to the ways that humans consume produce and experience food were influenced by slavery and forced labor colonization foreign aid and the anxieties prompted by these encounters all of which can be traced through the ways food is seen in narratives by African and colonial storytellers The African continent is home to thousands of cultures but nearly every one has experienced alteration of its foodways because of slavery transcontinental trade and colonization Food and Foodways in African Narratives Community Culture and Heritage takes a careful look at these alterations as seen through African narratives throughout various cultures and spanning centuries Hybrid Cultures - Nervous States Ulrike Lindner,2010 Preliminary Material Encounters Over the Border The Shaping of Colonial Identities in Neighbouring British and German Colonies in Southern

The Whole Staggering Mystery Sylvia Brownrigg, 2025-04-22 Sylvia Brownrigg s wise intimate and deliciously entertaining memoir Carol Edgarian reconstructs a poignant story of fathers lost and found When Sylvia Brownrigg received a package addressed to her father that had been lost for over fifty years she wanted to deliver it to him before it was too late She did not expect that her father Nick would choose not to open it A few years later she and her brother finally did Nick an absent father was a would be writer and back to the lander who lived off the grid in Northern California Nick s own father Gawen also absent had been a wellborn Englishman who wrote a Bloomsbury like novel about lesbian lovers before moving to Kenya and ultimately dying a mysterious death at age twenty seven Brownrigg was told Gawen had likely died by suicide Reconstructing Gawen s short colorful life from revelations in the package takes her through glamorous 1930s London and staid Pasadena toward the last gasp of the British Empire in Kenya and from there deep into the California redwoods where Nick later carved out a rugged path in the wilderness keeping his English past at bay Vividly weaving together the lives of her father and grandfather through memory and imagination Brownrigg explores issues of sexuality and silences and childhoods fractured by divorce In her uncovering of this lost family she writes movingly of daughterhood and of parenthood gradually making her own story whole

British Decolonisation and the Female Middlebrow Novel Anne Wetherilt, 2025-09-01 British Decolonisation and the Female Middlebrow Novel offers the first detailed discussion of middlebrow fiction by women writers who personally witnessed the dismantling of the British Empire the intensification of the Cold War and the domestic tensions following the arrival of thousands of migrants from Britain's former colonies Studying selected novels by Cecilie Leslie Elspeth Huxley Mary McMinnies Han Suyin and Kamala Markandaya this study demonstrates that women's middlebrow writing reveals a much deeper engagement with the politics and economics of decolonisation than is usually ascribed to the genre As Anne Wetherilt argues by transcending the politics of domesticity the female middlebrow registers a critique of both Britain's colonial history and mainstream conceptions of decolonisation as a well managed transition from empire to commonwealth As such the middlebrow novel of the immediate post war decades takes us back to a place where the end of empire was imagined rather than denied and the ambiguities of British colonial politics exposed rather than repressed History of

Oxford University Press: Volume III Ian Anders Gadd, Simon Eliot, William Roger Louis, Keith Robbins, 2013-11 The history of Oxford University Press spans five centuries of printing and publishing This third volume begins with the establishment of the New York office in 1896 It traces the expansion of OUP in America Australia Asia and Africa and far reaching changes in the business and technology of publishing up to 1970 The New A-Z of Empire C. Brad Faught, 2011-05-30 The British Empire especially in its late Victorian heyday spanned the world and linked a quarter of world's population to Britain through a shared official allegiance to the Crown In the long history of empires the British imperial state was among the most powerful ever and a major global player A New A Z of Empire catches the current burgeoning interest in empires and covers over 400 years of British imperial history from the founding of the East India Company in 1600 to the First and Second British Empires the time of High Empire following the War of American Independence the unprecedented expansion of the Scramble for Africa the development of Dominion Status and the history often turbulent of decolonization and the growth of Commonwealth The 400 plus entries include a rich panoply of individuals territories treaties politics the law diplomacy war and peace administration business and commerce exploration literature art literature and scholarship Readers will find a mine of fascinating factual information in concise form with expert historical assessment cross referencing between entries and suggestions for further reading The valuable time line is essential to pick through the long period of complex history and links to key web resources are provided A New A Z of Empire is an indispensable tool for the scholar and student and for the general reader interested in the rich history of the British Empire a story of obscure foundation leading to dominance over a huge swathe of the globe now represented by mere pinpricks on the world map The History of Oxford University Press: Volume IV Keith Robbins, 2017-05-26 The story of Oxford University Press spans five centuries of printing and publishing Beginning with the first presses set up in Oxford in the fifteenth century and the later establishment of a university printing house it leads through the publication of bibles scholarly works and the Oxford English Dictionary to a twentieth century expansion that created the largest university press in the world playing a part in research education and language learning in more than 50 countries With access to extensive archives the four volume History of OUP traces the impact of long term changes in printing technology and the business of publishing It also considers the effects of wider trends in education reading and scholarship in international trade and the spreading influence of the English language and in cultural and social history both in Oxford and through its presence around the world In the decades after 1970 Oxford University Press met new challenges but also a period of unprecedented growth In this concluding volume Keith Robbins and 21 expert contributors assess OUP's changing structure its academic mission and its business operations through years of economic turbulence and continuous technological change The Press repositioned itself after 1970 it brought its London Business to Oxford closed its Printing House and rapidly developed new publishing for English language teaching in regions far beyond its traditional markets Yet in an increasingly competitive worldwide industry OUP remained the department of a major British university sharing its commitment to excellence in scholarship and education The resulting opportunities and sometimes tensions are traced here through detailed consideration of OUP's business decisions the vast range of its publications and the dynamic role of its overseas offices Concluding in 2004 with new forms of digital publishing The History of OUP sheds new light on the cultural educational and business life of the English speaking world in the late twentieth century
