A Networked Self and Love Zizi Papacharissi, 2018-06-12 We fall in love every day with others with ideas with ourselves Stories of love excite us and baffle us This volume is about love and the networked self It focuses on how love forms grows or dissolves Chapters address how relationships of love develop are sustained or broken up through technologies of expression and connection Authors explore how technologies reproduce reorganize or reimagine our dominant rituals of love Contributors also address what our experiences with love teach us about ourselves others and the art of living Every love story has a beginning and an end Technology does not give love the kiss of eternity but it can afford love new meaning Love Hard Jason Wren,2021-03-17 Most of us have a fundamental misunderstanding of love We think it is about us We believe it is about how someone or something makes us feel When something or someone fails to give us the positive feeling we want we move on and look for something else This type of love requires little effort By making it about us and how we feel we miss the many opportunities presented to us every day to have lasting and meaningful impact To truly love is hard It is not a feeling but an action It requires us to be intentional and outwardly focused on others rather than internally focused on our own feelings When we love hard our lives have real meaningful lasting positive impact on the world around us In Love Hard Jason Wren uses stories from his and others lives to show how all of us can learn to love hard and thus have significant and lasting impact
