Emancipatory Movements In Composition The Rhetoric Of Possibility:

Emancipatory Movements in Composition Andrea Greenbaum, 2012-02-01 Emancipatory Movements in Composition provides an overview of the four major disciplines that have for the last ten years influenced and guided the direction of composition studies Drawing on contemporary social and rhetorical theory this is the first cultural studies text deeply informed by classical rhetoric feminism and postcolonial studies Readable and engaging it merges theory and pedagogy providing a rubric for understanding critical pedagogy neosophistic rhetoric service learning and ethnographic research This self reflexive and critical book examines the ethical dimensions of partaking in liberatory learning practices in the contemporary composition classroom

A Short History of Writing Instruction James J. Murphy, Chris Thaiss, 2020-04-13 This newly revised Thirtieth Anniversary edition provides a robust scholarly introduction to the history of writing instruction in the West from Ancient Greece to the present day United States It preserves the legacy of writing instruction from antiquity to contemporary times with a unique focus on the material educational and institutional context of the Western rhetorical tradition Its longitudinal approach enables students to track the recurrence over time of not only specific teaching methods but also major issues such as social purpose writing as power the effect of technologies orthography the rise of vernaculars writing as a force for democratization and the roles of women in rhetoric and writing instruction Each chapter provides pedagogical tools including a Glossary of Key Terms and a Bibliography for Further Study In this edition expanded coverage of twenty first century issues includes Writing Across the Curriculum pedagogy pedagogy for multilingual writers and social media A Short History of Writing Instruction is an ideal text for undergraduate and graduate courses in writing studies rhetoric and composition and the history of education

New Writing Explorations Graeme Harper, 2025-03-25 This book New Writing Explorations Researching Creative Writing investigates creative writing as an area of research building from a recognition of its qualities as a creative human practice It presents a critical examination of current methodologies and highlights many of the latest advancements in the field of creative writing studies This book s contributors examine writerly knowledge and action places and spaces tested methods and an array of associated concepts Chapters draw not only on critical ideas formed by examining the works of creative writers but also on a range of individual writing activities and the lively and fluid dynamics we frequently encounter when we seek to use writing for both communication and art The chapters in this volume provide excellent examples of the many avenues of inquiry seen in both practice led and critical research in creative writing This volume is relevant for students and scholars interested in the field of creative writing and cognate fields The chapters in the book were originally published as articles and editorials in the New Writing journal They are accompanied by a new Introduction and Conclusion as well as a Foreword by award winning poet and critic Dan Disney

Placing the History of College Writing Nathan Shepley, 2016-03-22 Pre 1950s composition history if analyzed with the right conceptual tools can pluralize and clarify our understanding of the relationship between the writing of college students and the writing's physical social and discursive surroundings

The Tropes of War Andrea Greenbaum, 2016-04-29 This book examines the myriad ways in which war is culturally reassembled appropriated and commodified as it manifests itself in our culture and invades our public imagination and becomes an indelible part of our landscape through fashion movies graphic novels television etc

Judaic Perspectives in Rhetoric and Composition Andrea Greenbaum, Deborah H. Holdstein, 2008 There has been virtually little discussion about how Judaism whether as a religious doctrine or cultural identity has influenced the field of composition studies This chasm in composition scholarship is surprising given that composition studies has been a discipline that has vigorously claimed to embrace and advocate a policy of diversity This book explores the myriad configurations of Judaic influences in composition studies that have yet to be articulated but that are made manifest in the theory and pedagogy of radical critical teaching service learning and narratives of literacy identity and politics Further the text explores how Judaic rhetorical texts can be used to reconstruct traditional rhetoric through its use of language style and symbolism

Scholarly Writing Mary Renck Jalongo, Olivia N. Saracho, 2023-11-20 This book on scholarly writing offers a unique evidence based technology supported approach to writing for publication across the disciplines It is suitable both as a graduate level textbook and as support for faculty seeking professional development in scholarly writing It is a sequel to Writing for Publication Transitions and Tools That Support Scholars Success Current issues in Academia such as the expectation that graduate students will publish the option for doctoral students to publish in lieu of writing the dissertation the pressure on scholars from various countries to contribute to professional journals written in English and the metrics used to assess impact of published work have influenced scholarly writing Unlike other books on the topic every chapter includes narratives of experience self assessment tools guided practice activities reviews of research and discussion of controversies in publishing All chapters incorporate curated online resources and technology supports as well Across the spectrum of experience ranging from aspiring author to prolific readers are guided in ways to generate manuscripts that are not only readable and publishable but also downloaded and respectfully cited by their professional peers

Rhetoric and Resistance in the Corporate Academy Christopher Carter, 2008 Analyzes the political and legal struggles between labor movements and school administrators over the rise of part time and temporary jobs in higher education

War and the Media Paul M. Haridakis, Barbara S. Hugenberg, Stanley T. Wearden, 2014-01-10 Mass communication is used by governments to support their war efforts while media images are created or manipulated to inform persuade or guide the consumers of those images But this book looks beyond the obvious The contributors examine historical and contemporary examples that reflect the role of the media or mass communication or both during wartime The essays highlight the centrality of communication to the perpetuation and to the resolution of war suggesting that the symbiotic relationship between communication and war is as important to understand as war itself

Collaborating(,) Literature(,) and Composition Frank Gaughan, Peter H. Khost, 2007 The disciplines of English and composition seem particularly prone to crisis driven proclamations our kids don't read the great works or they don't read at all or they can't write Crisis talk notwithstanding educators are left to theorize and practice ways to teach reading and writing with intelligence compassion and integrity However it often seems that theoretical formulations do not sufficiently explain their practicable applications and practicable discussions too rarely rise above the level of swapping recipes sharing assignments that work well in one context but may not in another Therefore the editors of this volume submit this collection of essays that strives to harmonize the all too often discordant qualities of theory and practice Each co authored essay illustrates and analyzes various classroom based strategies for productive collaboration between literature and composition This collection envisions a reciprocal to composing literature literaturing composition which entails living through literature as Louise Rosenblatt has it This process regards the literary text as a medium for creative action so that one reads not to criticize so much as to imagine new compositional possibilities The eight essays in this collection are divided into four sections which span topics that include textuality and critical pedagogy argumentation and hybrid genres student engagement and popular culture and materiality and assessment Publisher's website The British National

Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 JAC, 2007 Jews of South Florida Andrea Greenbaum, 2005 A lavishly illustrated and lively introduction to a unique American Jewish community Bibliographic Index, 2006 Public Relations and Social Theory Øyvind Ihlen, Magnus Fredriksson, Betteke Van Ruler, 2009-03-30 Public Relations and Social Theory broadens the theoretical scope of public relations through its application of the works of prominent social theorists to the study of public relations The volume focuses on the work of key social theorists including Jürgen Habermas Niklas Luhmann Michel Foucault Ulrich Beck Pierre Bourdieu Anthony Giddens Robert Putnam Erving Goffman Peter L. Berger Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Bruno Latour Leon Mayhew Dorothy Smith and Max Weber Unique in its approach the collection demonstrates how the theories of these scholars come to bear on the understanding of public relations as a social activity Understanding public relations in its societal context entails a focus on such concepts as trust legitimacy understanding and reflection as well as on issues of power behavior and language Each chapter is devoted to an individual theorist providing an overview of that theorist's key concepts and contributions and exploring how these concepts can be applied to public relations as a practice Each chapter also includes a box giving a short and concise presentation of the theorist along with recommendation of key works and secondary literature Overall this volume will enhance understanding of theories and their applications in public relations expanding the breadth and depth of the theoretic foundations of public relations It will be of great interest to scholars and graduate students in public relations and strategic communication The SAGE Handbook of Rhetorical Studies Andrea A. Lunsford, Kirt H. Wilson, Rosa A. Eberly, 2008-10-29 The SAGE Handbook of Rhetorical Studies surveys the latest advances in rhetorical scholarship synthesizing theories and practices across major areas of study in the field and pointing the way for future studies Edited by Andrea A. Women's Emancipation Writing at the Fin de Siecle Elena V. Shabliy, Dmitry Kurochkin, O'Donnell Karen, 2018-12-07 This work investigates women's emancipation writing in the second half of the nineteenth and the early twentieth centuries Many novelists in various national literatures touched upon the theme of an emancipated woman in the long nineteenth century and at the fin de si cle Philosophers poets writers and journalists were concerned with this problem and began popularizing wholeheartedly the so called burning questions The new femininity was represented not only in the Christian context many other traditions and cultures opened the discussion about the women's lot This volume analyzes women's literary voices from different parts of the world Turkey England the U S Italy Russia Spain and others Imagination as it is believed has no borders and is dialogical in its nature

Writing Resistance Laura R. Brueck, 2014-05-27 Writing Resistance is the first close study of the growing body of contemporary Hindi language Dalit low caste literature in India The Dalit literary movement has had an immense sociopolitical and literary impact on various Indian linguistic regions yet few scholars have attempted to situate the form within contemporary critical frameworks Laura R Brueck's approach goes beyond recognizing and celebrating the subaltern speaking emphasizing the sociopolitical perspectives and literary strategies of a range of contemporary Dalit writers working in Hindi Brueck explores several essential questions what makes Dalit literature Dalit What makes it good Why is this genre important and where does it oppose or intersect with other bodies of Indian literature She follows the debate among Dalit writers as they establish a specifically Dalit literary critical approach underscoring the significance of the Dalit literary sphere as a counterpublic generating contemporary Dalit social and political identities Brueck then performs close readings of contemporary Hindi Dalit literary prose narratives focusing on the aesthetic and stylistic strategies deployed by writers whose class gender and geographic backgrounds shape their distinct voices By reading Dalit literature as literature this study unravels the complexities of its sociopolitical and identity based origins
