Public Library, Museums, and National Gallery (Vic.),1880 Catalogue of the Library of Congress Library of Congress,1880 Arthur's Home Magazine ,1872 "Foreign Artists and Communities in Modern Paris, 1870-1914 " Susan Waller,2017-07-05 Foreign Artists and Communities in Modern Paris 1870 1914 examines Paris as a center of international culture that attracted artists from Western and Eastern Europe Asia and the Americas during a period of burgeoning global immigration Sixteen essays by a group of emerging and established international scholars including several whose work has not been previously published in English address the experiences of foreign exiles immigrants students and expatriates They explore the formal and informal structures that permitted foreign artists to forge connections within and across national communities and in some cases fashion new transnational identities in the City of Light Considering Paris from an innovative global perspective the book situates both important modern artists such as Edvard Munch Sonia Delaunay Terk Marc Chagall and Gino Severini and lesser known American Czech Italian Polish Welsh Russian Japanese Catalan and Hungarian painters sculptors writers dancers and illustrators within the larger trends of international mobility and cultural exchange Broadly appealing to historians of modern art and history the essays in this volume characterize Paris as a thriving transnational arts community in which the interactions between diverse cultures peoples and traditions contributed to the development of a hybrid and multivalent modern art The Edinburgh Review ,1872 Transnationalism, Gender and the History of Education Deirdre Raftery,Marie Clarke,2018-10-03 In the past decade historians have begun to make use of the optic of transnationalism a perspective used traditionally by social anthropologists and sociologists in their study of the movement and flow of ideas between continents and countries Historical scholarship has adopted this tool and in this book historians of education use it to add nuance and depth to research on gender and education and particularly to the education experiences of women and girls The book brings together a group of internationally regarded scholars who are doing important research on transnationalism and the social construction of gender with particular reference to education environments such as schools and colleges The book is therefore very much at the cutting edge of theoretical and methodological advances in the history of education This book was originally published as a special issue of the History of Education Catalogue of the Educational Division of the South Kensington Museum ,1876 Second Supplement to the Catalogue of Books in the Mercantile Library of the City of New York
