of tenements in their home cities abroad Once in Toronto many lived in unsanitary conditions in makeshift shantytowns or cramped shared houses in downtown neighbourhoods such as The Ward To then move to a self contained cottage or rowhouse was the result of an unimaginably strong hope for the future and a commitment to family life Through the stories of eight families who lived in these Modest Hopes authors Don Loucks and Leslie Valpy bring an important but forgotten part of the Toronto narrative to life They illuminate the development of Toronto s working class neighbourhoods such as Leslieville Corktown and others and explain the designs and architectural antecedents of these undervalued heritage properties

Blue Jays 1, Expos 0 David Luchuk, 2009-08-11 The 2001 2002 offseason was a tumultuous one for Major League Baseball The commissioner s move to contract two teams voted on and approved by league owners in a 28 2 vote left fans in several cities fearing for the future of their teams The Montreal Expos with a recent history of poor play and even poorer attendance seemed an obvious choice Canada s only other big league franchise the Toronto Blue Jays had voted in favor of the commissioner s proposal but seemed as likely a candidate as either of the teams targeted by owners This book examines the 2002 season of the Expos and the Blue Jays setting events against the backdrop of a long nurtured urban rivalry between Montreal and Toronto Chapters cover the summer of 2002 month by month supplementing on and off field events with a wealth of historical background and showing how competition placed the Expos and Blue Jays as well as their two host cities on permanently divergent paths

Canadian Cultural Studies Sourayan Mookerjee, Imre Szeman, Gail Faurschou, 2009-01-01 DIVCanada is situated geographically historically and culturally between old empires Great Britain and France and a more recent one the United States as well as on the terrain of First Nations communities Poised between historical and metaphorical empires and operating within the conditions of incomplete modernity and economic and cultural dependency Canada has generated a body of cultural criticism and theory which offers unique insights into the dynamics of both center and periphery The reader brings together for the first time in one volume recent writing in Canadian cultural studies and work by significant Canadian cultural analysts of the postwar era Including essays by anglophone francophone and First Nations writers the reader is divided into three parts the first of which features essays by scholars who helped set the agenda for cultural and social analysis in Canada and remain important to contemporary intellectual formations Harold Innis Marshall McLuhan and Anthony Wilden in communications theory Northrop Frye in literary studies George Grant and Harold Innis in a left nationalist tradition of critical political economy Fernand Dumont and Paul mile Borduas in Quebecois national and political culture and Harold Cardinal in native studies The volume s second section showcases work in which contemporary authors address Canada s problematic and incomplete nationalism race difference and multiculturalism and modernity and contemporary culture The final section includes excerpts from federal policy documents that are especially important to Canadians conceptions of their social political and cultural circumstances The reader opens with a foreword by Fredric Jameson and concludes with an afterword in which the Quebecois scholar Yves Laberge explores the differences between English Canadian cultural studies and the prevailing forms of cultural analysis in francophone Canada Contributors Ian Angus Himani Bannerji Jody Berland Paul mile Borduas Harold Cardinal Maurice Charland Stephen Crocker Ioan Davies Fernand Dumont Kristina Fagan Gail Faurschou Len Findlay Northrop Frye George Grant Rick Gruneau Harold Innis Fredric Jameson Yves Laberge Jocelyn L tourneau Eva Mackey Lee Maracle Marshall McLuhan Katharyne Mitchell Sourayan Mookerjea Kevin Pask Rob Shields Will Straw Imre Szeman Serra Tinic David Whitson Tony Wilden div     Along the Shore M. Reordering the Natural World Annabelle Sabloff, 2001-02-15 In Reordering the Natural World Annabelle Sabloff argues that the everyday practices of contemporary capitalist society reinforce the conviction that we are profoundly alienated from the rest of nature At the same time she reveals the often disguised affinities and sense of connection urban Canadians manifest in their relations with animals and the natural world Sabloff reflects on how the discipline of anthropology has contributed to the prevailing Western perception of a divide between nature and culture She suggests that the present ecological crisis has resulted largely from the ways in which Western societies have construed nature as a cultural system Since new ideas about nature may be critical in changing humanity s destructive interactions with the biosphere Reordering the Natural World is invaluable in exploring how urban Canadians develop and sustain their current relationship with the macrocosm and in considering whether these relationships might be altered by reconceptualizing anthropology itself as an integral part of natural history With this unique text Sabloff not only provides provocative insight into the study of relations between humans and the natural world she lays the cornerstone for building an entirely new structure for the study of anthropology itself

Design City Toronto Sean Stanwick, Jennifer Flores, 2007-03-26 At a time when modern architecture has become a means for cities to up their game and raise their cultural profile on the world stage Toronto is coming into its own Fully entrenched in a design renaissance that is dramatically changing the face and space of the city Toronto is now a welcome playground for celebrated local talent and international star architects While some cities can be immediately defined by a specific style Toronto is distinguished instead by a fusion of contemporary architecture heritage preservation and sustainable urban design A true mosaic of architecture and culture Toronto is a city learning to recognise and celebrate its diversity it is a city set to rediscover itself Design City Toronto showcases over thirty exemplary contemporary interior and architectural projects both complete and underway These range from hip restaurants and bars by Toronto based practices to major institutional buildings completed by the likes of Will Alsop Behnisch Behnisch Partners Foster and Partners Frank Gehry Kuwabara Payne McKenna Blumberg and Daniel Libeskind Written in an engaging and lively manner the book is beautifully illustrated with new photography by Tom Arban It also provides a neighbourhood overview and biographies of featured designers It should appeal as much to design savvy individuals as local and foreign architecture tourists who are as interested in discovering or rediscovering the dynamic evolution of this exciting city Featured buildings include Art Gallery of Ontario Canada's National Ballet School Evergreen Commons at the Brick Works Four Seasons Centre for the Performing Arts Ontario College of Art Design Royal Ontario Museum Terrence Donnelly Centre for Cellular and Biomolecular Research
