Health Promotion in Canada Irving Rootman, Ann Pederson, Katherine L. Frohlich, Sophie Dupéré, 2017-11-10 Health Promotion in Canada is a comprehensive profile of the history, current status, and future of health promotion in Canada. This fourth edition maintains the critical approach of the previous three editions but provides a current and in depth analysis of theory, practice, policy, and research in Canada in relation to recent innovative approaches in health promotion. Thoroughly updated with 15 new chapters and all new learning objectives, the edited collection contains contributions by prominent Canadian academics, researchers, and practitioners, as well as an afterword by Ronald Labont. The authors cover a broad range of topics including inequities in health, Indigenous communities, and immigrants, mental health, violence against women, global ecological change, and globalization. The book also provides critical reflections on practice and concrete Canadian examples that bring theory to life.
