

What does love look like? It has the hands to help others.
It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want.
It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men.
That is what love looks like.

demonstrates that the promise of a subject position is not only unavoidable and thus operates as a structural imperative but is also unattainable and therefore by necessity open to possibilities other than that defined as position to redefinitions and the moment we move on from this life is just the beginning and the Underworld awaits The parts that involve pain and suffering are constructed from our mortal fears and nightmares All this however needs managing for nothing in Heaven or Hell happens by accident The offices of Deadwood and Grimes were established around five millennia ago to administer all matters of the Underworld Departments were many and varied to cater for all souls both on Earth and all other inhabited planets within the Universe The day to day administration of souls is covered by the Housers just a quill pusher of sorts but for those problem cases a Grimlayer is assigned Tom is a Grimlayer going about his perpetual duties until he has an idea it s a great idea so what can possibly go wrong Quite a bit it turns out and cleaning up a mess leads to some unexpected journeys with everyone from Satan to Bob the Boatman having to play their part all the time a dark and powerful force is waiting in the shadows to spread chaos and wreak havoc this is a problem that can t be left to chance Tom needs to stop the first domino falling before the whole lot comes crashing down This is the first in the Deadwood and Grime series that proves that even in the afterlife there s always work to do
