Hearing A Different Drummer A Holocaust Survivors Search For Identity:

Hearing a Different Drummer Benjamin Hirsch, 2000 Hirsch escaped from Nazi Germany to Atlanta as a child with his four older siblings his parents and two younger siblings were killed In the 1950s Hirsch returned to Germany as a soldier in the U S Army How Young Holocaust Survivors Rebuilt Their Lives Françoise S. Ouzan, 2021-12-22 Shines light to the world through the individual stories of people who came through darkness a book of courage strength and inspiration The Jerusalem Report Drawing on testimonies memoirs and personal interviews of Holocaust survivors Fran oise S Ouzan reveals how the experience of Nazi persecution impacted their personal reconstruction rehabilitation and reintegration into a free society She sheds light on the life trajectories of various groups of Jews including displaced persons partisan fighters hidden children and refugees from Nazism Ouzan shows that personal success is not only a unifying factor among these survivors but is part of an ethos that unified ideas of homeland social justice togetherness and individual aspirations in the redemptive experience Exploring how Holocaust survivors rebuilt their lives after World War II Ouzan tells the story of how they coped with adversity and psychic trauma to contribute to the culture and society of their country of residence The Monstrous Organization T. Thanem, 2011 This book marks a major shift in the way we think and feel about organizations Radically reconsidering what we see as organizationally normal and abnormal Thanem shatters the borders of convention to enable the becoming of a new and monstrously radical politics of difference With reflexivity sensitivity and courage this politically and theoretically charged work offers an affirmative alternative to habituated organizational violence and oppression It does so in the form of a monstrous ethics of organizations Essential reading for those interested in the best of the latest advances in organization studies Carl Rhodes Swansea University UK A beautifully expressed wonderfully crafted object transcending the idea of organization theory book this is a playfully serious and provocatively modest encounter with the monstrous we inhabit and the monsters we create with our work and everyday life It made me laugh with embarrassment and cry with joy by prying open much that we organizational scholars often try to hide Finally our monstrosity was free to roam in the light of what we claim as knowledge It felt very liberating Marta B Cal s University of Massachusetts US Invited to experience becoming monster as we get to exercise our norms as students of organizations Thanem makes a case for the socio corporeal ontology of organization Disassembled by the generosity of the multitude we are provided with an opportunity to learn to know our own particular heterogeneity our styles of assembling ourselves to what we have become Becoming is thereby learnt Important lessons both for analysts and practitioners of organizations Daniel Hjorth Copenhagen Business School Denmark Drawing on contemporary debates in organization theory this book explores the monsters that populate organizations what organizations do to these monsters and how this challenges us to re construct organization theory Torkild Thanem first interrogates how organizations and organization theory seek to kill monsters and how organizations exploit the monstrous for commercial purposes from the alien monsters of the sci fi entertainment industry to the monstrous branding of energy drinks and the organic synthetic chimeras produced by biotech and agribusiness companies He then argues for more diverse more joyful and more responsible organizations through a positively monstrous theory politics and ethics of organizational life Proposing a theory and ontology of organizations beyond poststructuralist constructionism and critical realism The Monstrous Organization creatively addresses the history and theory of monsters in organizational life It will appeal to scholars doctoral students and master s students in management and organization studies business ethics diversity management cultural studies gender studies and sociology

The Making of a Refugee Tasoulla Hadjiyanni,2002-03-30

Through an examination of interviews provided by 100 children of refugees in Cyprus born after their family s displacement Hadjiyanni illustrates the formation of a refugee consciousness an identity adopted by many children who never experienced the actual displacement of their family Focusing on the process by which a child born into a refugee family develops a refugee identity the book identifies nine dimensions that inform this consciousness Establishing the family as the primary transmitter of the refugee identity and the child as its constructor the author points to the power of homeplace in forming and supporting such an identity The book challenges the notion that refugee consciousness is a separate identity and a crisis by reinterpreting it as a resistance to adversity Shedding new light on what it means to be a refugee this work is a welcome addition to the field Beginning with a discussion of the meaning of the term refugee and how it has been adopted by the children of some refugees in Cyprus the author moves to an examination of the meaning of past and present to the formation of a refugee consciousness She then looks to the causes of such identity formation focusing on the transference of identity from parent to child and the effects of past loss on children who have not actually experienced displacement Housing issues are also examined as a contributing factor as refugee housing is typically distinct and constrained compared to housing for native citizens of a community The author concludes her work with a discussion of the implications of the Cyprus example for both the future and for general refugee studies

Religion in the Contemporary South Corrie Norman (E.),Donald S.

Armentrout,2005 Religion has always been crucial to the cultural identity of the South The field of southern religious studies is quite young however and most scholarship has focused on the kinds of evangelical fundamentalist activity for which the phraseBible Belt was coined Religion in the Contemporary South is the first book to fully address the emerging religious pluralism in the South today Featuring an introduction by Samuel S Hill Religion in the Contemporary South brings together fourteen essays by both established and emerging scholars that deal with a spectrum of topics These topics include religious identities in the South that weave in and out of the past new religious expressions in the South and the shifting position of old minority traditions and a microcosmic look at the Episcopal Church The collection comes at a time of sweeping change in the South as the 150 year stronghold of evangelical Protestantism the Baptist Methodist hegemony gives way to a more diverse religious tradition one that includes leadership by women decreasing marginalization for Roman Catholicism and Judaism and the growing presence of so called alien religious traditions Buddhism Hinduism and Islam In his essay A Crumbling

Empire Bill J Leonard talks about the future of the Baptist denomination which grows more uncertain as moderates break ties with the fundamentalist leaders of the Southern Baptist Convention In Our Lady of Guadeloupe Visits the Confederate Memorial Thomas Tweed notes the growth of Hindu Buddhist and Muslim traditions in the South Susan Ridgely Bales examines the state of southern Catholicism in Sweet Tea and Rosary Beads and in Quiet Revolutionaries D Jonathan Grieser Corrie E Norman and Don S Armentrout discuss the ways in which women priests in the Southern Episcopal Church construct their lives and callings These and other offerings are varied comprehensive and provocative As the South changes and its religious life evolves so must scholarship Religion in the Contemporary South is a guide to the new southern religions more diverse sometimes controversial but as vital to the region as ever   The Jewish Quarterly ,2000   Yearbook of German-American Studies ,2000   *Washington D.
