Pauline Spurrell,2022-09-28 After a joyful early childhood E Pauline Spurrell suffered trauma that led to unhinged teenage years and a turbulent adult life She was diagnosed and misdiagnosed with numerous mental illnesses She endured a seemingly endless cycle of prescription treatment and failure until one day enough was enough Following years lost to the depths of despair she fostered ideologies of self discovery Spurrell created tools to understand her disorders and their resultant impacts on her life She reclaimed clarity found the inner child she had left behind and emerged from the shadows a puzzle portrait of perfect imperfections This exquisite memoir is sure to appeal to anyone suffering mental illness as well as those who live with work with or love someone with mental illness

For Those of Us Waiting on That Day! Ann Dillon, 2015-08-20 Anyone that has had a loved one go home knows the pain and sorrow that can overwhelm them The loss of a loved one can send you into a deep abyss of pain and sorrow Do you wonder where your loved one is What is he or she doing What is Heaven like How do you find comfort in the pain Where is God when it hurts This book was written as the author found herself asking the same questions when while still grieving the loss of her dad her strong healthy husband had a sudden heart attack On November 2 2011 her husband of thirty eight years was called home to heaven Trying to hold on to her faith while reeling from shock and grief she threw herself into studying Gods Word and holding on to her faith while she tried to seek answers and comfort Being unable to find a devotional that was specifically for grieving Christians lead her to write her first book You will find comfort and assurance that you will be reunited with your loved one in the scripturally based devotions as you read what God has laid on her heart Ann gives you a daily devotional that helps you focus on heaven Gods sovereignty and everlasting love eternity and that glorious day we will be reunited with our loved ones and help you find comfort and an eternal perspective as you wait on that day

Mother's Son Skip Shockley, 2009-07-16 Mother's Son is a passionate story of a young man's life told from the heart and mind of his grandmother She held him gently as pain gripped his body A child born with Sickle Cell Anemia Disease only his grandmother's potions and ointments along with her stories managed to ease his pain She told her special grandson stories of Post Reconstruction Jim Crow and the Civil Rights Movement were a prince of peace flew over the mountain top and a tall stature stool transforming himself into a black revolutionary Her most compelling story talks of a boy's struggles through his pain by wondering the streets infested with drug and violence His journey as a Black Panther put him in the forefront as community organizer where he helped establish the first Sickle Cell Anemia testing community wide testing and free clothing programs in Dallas His struggle for identity took him to the brink of insanity there he found himself as he emerged as a man who dedicated his life helping those who have fallen through the cracks of despair and drug abuse lost children who carry the psychological wounds of slavery People he could identify with people like him people with stories similar to his grandmother's story
