Beyond the Whales Alexandra Morton, 2004 Through a selection of her stunning photographs Alexandra Morton portrays life on the central British Columbia coast She arrived in the area in 1984 as a whale researcher and at first she was absorbed in studying the orca and admiring the magnificent scenery It is a coast with a long history dolphins have pulsed in and out for 10 000 years First Nations people have lived here for almost as long European settlers arrived a scant century ago As time passed Morton began to observe the lives of other creatures that share the sea and land humpback whales bears salmon eagles deer and humans and understand how they are all interconnected As one example Bears drag salmon beneath the trees of the forest feeding the giant plants that shade the river nursery protect its banks and allow it to make more fish In Beyond the Whales Alexandra explains what is going on beyond the beauty of the images One of the joys of watching a place for 20 years is being able to read the signs upon the sea bubbles on the surface mean tons of herring below three birds over an orca mean the whale has brought fish to the surface shearwaters in Blackfish Sound mean autumn is here The ocean feeds the rivers and the rivers feed the ocean

Oh, Oh Canada! Who Stands on Guard? Ronald Coleman, 2003-10-05 The Author examines the current state of the Canadian Forces after what he describes as four decades of malignant neglect and concludes that it is not capable of executing the roles and tasks assigned under the government's policy as outlined in the Defence White Paper 1994 Furthermore he examines the Canadian foreign policy from which defence policy is derived and concludes that it does not address the current and future threats to Canada and Canadians The threats to Canada today and in the future are explored in detail and the means to counter them are examined The author also explores the relationship the Canadian military has to the UN NATO and our closest ally the US He finds that all of them need serious revision However to do so a complete and detailed analysis of our foreign policy is necessary in the new world of disorder following the tragic events of 9 11 Internal and external threats are revealed and discussed as well as how to deter them Coleman explains why the current series of town hall meetings across the country is wholly inadequate and calls for a major foreign policy review This is necessary in order to respond correctly and adequately to the US request for participation in the Missile Defense System Also in his view our traditional interface with the UN and NATO particularly where peacekeeping is involved needs revision He calls for necessary changes in the Department of National Defence Headquarters NDHQ structure and the military organization across the country He explains why NDHQ needs to be disintegrated and replaced with a dual reporting system to the minister Further he presents rational arguments for the real unification of the three military forces into a marine like structure in order to respond appropriately and adequately to international terrorism and international violence that is on the rise He goes further and outlines a new organizational structure that reduces overhead executives commands and management levels in order to truly make the military and headquarters more efficient effective and economical He is clear that only by taking these measures will we regain the respect of our allies and our enemies as well as increase our influence in the international forums where it has been slowly eroding The transfer of search and rescue and VIP operations to private industry will free up military billets for military functions and generate jobs and profits for private industry in these roles These tasks in his view are essentially non military tasks Military search and rescue and VIP flights can be handled by the Marines Also he believes that peacekeeping should be transferred to DFAIT where the responsibility lies with more emphasis on early intervention so that technical experts humanitarian efforts medical assistance law order and justice can be maintained rather than re constructed after civil war or worse has destroyed the infrastructure and institutions Peacemaking however should remain the responsibility of DND where the new structure the new equipment and the new training will improve our current delinquent approach to the problem The Reserve will be tasked with the role of the defence of Canada which will give it purpose finances training equipment and a structure to effect it which currently does not exist Coleman makes a compelling case for the review of foreign defence policy and the restructuring of the Canadian military He exposes the problems and proposes solutions He takes no prisoners In his review it becomes clear that Canada and Canadians no longer stand on guard
