The how and why of Home Schooling Ray E. Ballmann, Ray Ballmann, 1995 Printed boldly on the back of the United States currency is the motto In God We Trust We have seen it so often that it may have lost its meaning to us But found in these words is the secret to national and personal greatness Webster s Dictionary defines the word trust as a firm belief or confidence in the honesty integrity reliability and justice of another person or thing When our founding fathers put their names to the Declaration of Independence they believed that God was the only sure foundation upon which to build a nation that would endure These men knew that this unique experiment in freedom would only stand the test of time by God's grace George Washington stated it simply It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible Reliance upon God was deeply rooted in our country's important documents and institutions from the beginning But today confidence in God and His Word is no longer the foundation of society In our schools the God of Creation has been replaced by the god of evolutionary chance Truth has been replaced by relativism Morality has been replaced by expediency In our homes we nightly view things that were unimaginable on television and in movies only a decade ago Violence sexual perversion and obscene language spill off the screen In the political arena God's principles of truth and justice have often given way to expedience personal profit and compromise As we have departed from God life has been devalued The lives of unborn children are snuffed out in abortion clinics and the number of robberies rapes and murders increase daily It is time that we return to the values of God's Word in our public and private lives so that He will heal our land We must begin person by person on our knees confessing our failure to trust God fully in our lives Today you can affirm your trust in God if you will Acknowledge that you need salvation The Bible says All have sinned and come short of the glory of God Romans 3:23 Recognize God's love for you God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life John 3:16 Receive Jesus and His forgiveness the only basis for encountering God As many as received Him Jesus to them gave He power to become the sons of God even to them that believe on His name John 1:12 God is calling you to put your trust in Him today Don't ignore His call

Homeschooling Heidi Watkins, 2013-06-21 This thought provoking book explores issues and trends related to the growing practice of homeschooling Readers will examine whether homeschooling produces positive academic outcomes whether homeschooling supports or violates progressive values and whether Christian homeschooling limits or expands children's options Essay sources include The Old Schoolhouse Magazine Kathryn Joyce Conor Friedersdorf and Alexandra Jacobs Coming Home Camille Kirksey, 2020-10 Choosing to homeschool is a tough decision Not knowing where to start makes it even tougher You can research on the internet read books and ask random homeschoolers online where to begin but very few will give you the actual first steps of homeschooling Spoiler alert it has nothing to do with curriculum schedules or even your children Coming Home focuses on you the new homeschool mom by helping you to prepare your heart mind and home for homeschooling You'll learn both the personal and practical steps to begin homeschooling the right way your way from the start Home Schooling resell right, STOP Giving YOUR Prospects Boring To Read Text Only Impress Them With Some EYE CANDY Why let Tim and Lisa learn at home than send them to school Well first of all you don't have to wake them up at 7 every morning and bundle them off to school with umpteen numbers of instructions and wait with an anxious heart till they return Homeschooling gives you more control over the influences that affect your child The growth and development of your child is removed from the realm of the unknown You and you alone can decide what your child needs to do or learn Tailoring the curriculum to suit the needs and interests of the child is one of the most obvious benefits of homeschooling Individual attention is another salient benefit of homeschooling For instance if Lisa needs more time to learn Math then she can reduce the time for her English lessons There are no fixed hours of learning per subject This means that a child has the advantage of assigning more number of hours to the subject that seems tough WITHOUT any additional pressure The amount of time needed to learn each subject will depend on the abilities and interests of the child The schooling of the child becomes an extended family activity Parents get involved in every step of the learning procedure
