Heart Turned East Among The Muslims Of Europe And America:

A Heart Turned East Adam LeBor, 2001-08 In a series of essays both prescriptive and inspirational Brian McNaught the author of On Being Gay and one of the most prominent writers on the issue of sexuality leads readers through the basic issues that gay men and lesbians will have to confront as they try to find a place for themselves in an often hostile world

Islam in Europe Robert J. Pauly, Jr., 2016-05-06 In this timely work Robert J Pauly Jr looks in detail at the impact of Islam's presence in Europe He examines five areas of particular importance the effect of the growth of Muslim communities on the demographics of Western Europe generally and France Germany and the United Kingdom in particular the consequences of the marginalization of Muslims on domestic and international security within and outside of Western Europe in the post 11 September 2001 era the impact of the issue of Islam in Europe on the European Union's ongoing deepening and widening processes the potential correlation between the increased visibility of Islam in Europe and the growth of far right political parties across the continent and the broader relationships between the issues of Islam in Europe Islam and Europe and Islam and the West

The Struggle Over Democracy in the Middle East Nathan J. Brown, Emad Shahin, 2013-07-03 Many residents of the Middle East and more recently Western powers have placed great hope in democratization in the region Bringing together a number of experts on the region to provide a broad ranging survey of individual countries this book examines the experiences of activists parties religious groups and governments the influences exerted on them and the difficulties involved in bringing democracy to the Middle East

The Routledge Handbook of Muslim-Jewish Relations Josef Meri, 2016-06-23 The Routledge Handbook of Muslim Jewish Relations invites readers to deepen their understanding of the historical social cultural and political themes that impact modern day perceptions of interfaith dialogue The volume is designed to illuminate positive encounters between Muslims and Jews as well as points of conflict within a historical framework Among other goals the volume seeks to correct common misperceptions about the history of Muslim Jewish relations by complicating familiar political narratives to include dynamics such as the cross influence of literary and intellectual traditions Reflecting unique and original collaborations between internationally renowned contributors the book is intended to spark further collaborative and constructive conversation and scholarship in the academy and beyond

"Complicity with Evil" Adam LeBor, 2008-10-01 From the killing fields of Rwanda and Srebrenica a decade ago to those of Darfur today the United Nations has repeatedly failed to confront genocide This is evinced author and journalist Adam LeBor maintains in a May 1995 document from Yasushi Akashi the most senior UN official in the field during the Yugoslav wars in which he refused to authorize air strikes against the Serbs for fear they would weaken Milosevic More recently in 2003 urgent reports from UN officials in the Sudan detailing atrocities from Darfur were ignored for a year because they were politically inconvenient This book is the first to examine in detail the crucial role of the Secretariat its relationship with the Security Council and the failure of UN officials themselves to confront genocide LeBor argues the UN must return to its founding principles take a moral stand and set the agenda of the Security Council instead of merely following the lead of the great powers LeBar draws on dozens of firsthand interviews with UN officials current and former and such international diplomats as Madeleine Albright Richard Holbrooke Douglas Hurd and David Owen This book will set the terms for discussion when UN Secretary General Kofi Annan steps down to make room for a new head of the world body and political observers assess Annan s legacy and look to the future of the world organization

Transnational Connections and the Arab Gulf Madawi Al-Rasheed,2005 Transnational Connections and the Arab Gulf presents a study of transnational cultural flows in the Gulf region and beyond It combines an understanding of the region s historical connections with the outside world and an assessment of contemporary consequences of these connections The contributors collected here analyze and map historical and contemporary manifestations of transnational networks within this region linking them to wider debates on society identity and political culture

Nietzsche and Islam Roy Jackson,2007-03-12 Highly topical as concerned with the clash of civilisations debate Provides an original insight into Nietzsche s views on religion his methodology and Islam Takes a completely different perspective instead of the usual Christian one

Sufism in America Julianne Hazen,2016-12-13 Sufism in America sheds light on spiritual mystical Islam in America The Sufi path focuses on developing a personal relationship with God doing what is beautiful in the sight of God and struggling against the lower self to reach loving submission Up to this point very little has been written about the Sufi orders in America and those who participate in them This study focuses on the Alami Tariqa in Waterport New York which was started in the 1970s by a shaykh from the Balkans The Alami Tariqa strives to uphold sharia while adapting to the Western setting Its membership is diverse consisting mostly of American born participants from Christian and Jewish backgrounds in addition to a few Muslim immigrants from South Asia This study explores how this order has acculturated to the American setting why individuals choose to join the tariqa and what it means to pursue spiritual goals in a modern Western society Conclusions are drawn from interviews a survey and observations of teachings plus the author s experience working with this community for over ten years The book interweaves personal stories and insider views with academic insight to provide a compelling and detailed picture of Sufism as a living and dynamic tradition in America

Islam Under Siege Akbar S. Ahmed,2013-05-10 In this groundbreaking book Akbar Ahmed one of the world s leading authorities on Islam who has worked in the Muslim world but lives in the West explains what is going wrong in his society by referring to Islamic history and beliefs Employing theological and anthropological perspectives he attempts to answer the questions that people in the West are asking about Islam Why do they hate us Is Islam compatible with democracy Does Islam subjugate women Does the Quran preach violence These important questions are of relevance to Muslims and to non Muslims alike Islam Under Siege points out the need for and provides the route to the dialogue of civilizations September 11 2001 underlined the role of Islam in our time In its demographic spread its political span and its religious commitment Islam will be an increasingly forceful presence on the world stage in the twenty first century While some scholars predict that there will be a clash of civilizations others see a need for a dialogue of civilizations This book will help students scholars of politics sociology international relations and cultural studies and reporters as well as a more general audience interested in some of the most important issues of our time What Is Enlightenment?

Mohammed D. Cherkaoui, 2016-04-11 Political sociology has struggled with predicting the next turn of transformation in the MENA countries after the 2011 Uprisings Arab activists did not articulate explicitly any modalities of their desired system although their slogans ushered to a fully democratic society These unguided Uprisings showcase an open ended freedom to question after Arabs underwent their freedom from struggle from authoritarianism The new conflicts in Egypt Syria Yemen and Libya have fragmented shar iya legitimacy into distinct conceptualizations revolutionary legitimacy electoral legitimacy legitimacy of the street and consensual legitimacy This volume examines whether the Uprisings would introduce a replica of the European Enlightenment or rather stimulate an Arab Islamic awakening with its own cultural specificity and political philosophy By placing Immanuel Kant in Tahrir Square this book adopts a comparative analysis of two enlightenment projects one Arab still under construction with possible progression toward modernity or regression toward neo authoritarianism and one European shaped by the past two centuries Mohammed D Cherkaoui and the contributing authors use a hybrid theoretical framework drawing on three tanwiri enlightenment philosophers from different eras Ibn Rushd known in the west as Averroes the twelfth century Immanuel Kant the eighteenth century and Mohamed Abed Al Jabri the twentieth century The authors propose a few projections about the outcome of the competition between an Islamocracy vision and what Cherkaoui terms as a Demoslamic vision since it implies the Islamist movements flexibility to reconcile their religious absolutism with the prerequisites of liberal democracy This book also traces the patterns of change which point to a possible Arab Axial Age It ends with the trials of modernity and tradition in Tunisia and an imaginary speech Kant would deliver at the Tunisian Parliament after those vibrant debates of the new constitution in 2014 Radical Islam Rising

Quintan Wiktorowicz, 2005-07-21 This unique book represents one of the first systematic attempts to explain why thousands of Westerners heed international calls to jihad and join radical Islamic groups Drawing on his unprecedented access to a radical Islamic group Quintan Wiktorowicz details the subtle process that can turn seemingly unreligious people into supporters of religious violence The author s extraordinary fieldwork forms the basis of a detailed case study of al Muhajiroun a transnational movement based in London that supports Bin Laden and other Islamic terrorists Through its rich empirical detail the case study explains the larger question of why ordinary people join extremist movements Islam and Modernity Iftikhar H. Malik, 2004 Second volume of Deutscher prize winning trilogy on the future of IR tracing the defining characteristics of foreign encounters over time Balkan holocausts? David Bruce MacDonald, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Comparing and contrasting propaganda in Serbia and Croatia from 1986 to 1999 this book analyses each group s contemporary interpretations of history and current events It offers a detailed discussion of Holocaust imagery and the history of victim centred writing in nationalist theory including the links between the comparative genocide debate the so called Holocaust industry and Serbian and Croatian nationalism There is a detailed analysis of Serbian and Croatian propaganda over the Internet detailing how and why the Internet war was as important as the ground wars in Kosovo Croatia and Bosnia Hercegovina and a theme by theme analysis of Serbian and Croatian propaganda using contemporary media sources novels academic works and journals
