New Realism David Forrest, 2020-03-18 The tradition of British realism has changed dramatically over the last 20 years where films by directors such as Duane Hopkins Joanna Hogg Andrea Arnold Shane Meadows and Clio Barnard have suggested a markedly poetic turn This new realism rejects the instrumentalism and didacticism of filmmakers like Ken Loach in favour of lyrical and often ambiguous encounters with place where the physical processes of lived experience interacts with the rhythms of everyday life Taking these 5 filmmakers as case studies this book seeks to explore in depth this new tradition of British cinema and in the process it reignites debates over realism that have concerned scholars for decades

Nussbaum, 2001-08-27 Emotions shape the landscape of our mental and social lives Like geological upheavals in a landscape they mark our lives as uneven uncertain and prone to reversal Are they simply as some have claimed animal energies or impulses with no connection to our thoughts Or are they rather suffused with intelligence and discernment and thus a source of deep awareness and understanding In this compelling book Martha C Nussbaum presents a powerful argument for treating emotions not as alien forces but as highly discriminating responses to what is of value and importance She explores and illuminates the structure of a wide range of emotions in particular compassion and love showing that there can be no adequate ethical theory without an adequate theory of the emotions This involves understanding their cultural sources their history in infancy and childhood and their sometimes unpredictable and disorderly operations in our daily lives
