Spitz, 2014-07-15

Developmental change and the related problems of modernization have attracted the attention of scholars in many disciplines In this bibliography derived and expanded from an earlier compilation by Mr Spitz and Edward Weidner the author orders and annotates nearly 2 500 articles appearing between 1945 and 1969 in 234 journals from 25 countries Organized by subject and indexed by both author and journal the citations include studies of social problems economic factors political questions public administration and international cooperation and assistance Special emphasis has been given to new and little known sources In addition a selected bibliography of monographs and book length studies dealing with the modernization of underdeveloped countries and areas is included in the volume The Northern Question Adrian Nicola Carello, 1989 This study relates the underdevelopment of southern Italy s Mezzogiorno to Italy s participation in the European Economic Community In the tracing of its origins and evolution the Mezzogiorno s underdevelopment is shown to have been intensified under Italy s current ruling class Recent Social Trends in Italy, 1960-1995 Alberto Martinelli, Antonio Chiesi, Sonia Stefanizzi, 1999-03-30 Italy remains an enigma for many observers Recent Social Trends in Italy 1960 1995 the sixth volume from the international Comparative Charting of Social Change program provides a new and convincing schema for its comprehension It shows that three essential institutions have structured and unified Italian society the family the church and political parties While the state remains a weak institution it is important as a regulator of the economy and of society through the welfare state The book which contains a long introduction by Alberto Martinelli on the uneven modernization of Italy shows the usefulness of analysing social change through study of a series of macro social trends These trends range from life style structures to fertility leisure consumption inequality religion and family among others This sixth national profile provides more arguments in favour of a hypothesis of diversification rather than convergence of modern societies As Henri Mendras writes in the preface of the book The more we change the more we remain ourselves that is the conclusion of our comparative research and the Italian study provides further ample proof of it
