Latin America and the Caribbean which corresponds to the year 2016 consists of three parts Part I outlines the region s economic performance in 2015 and analyses trends in the first half of 2016 as well as the outlook for the rest of the year It examines the external and internal factors influencing the region s economic performance and highlights some of the macroeconomic policy challenges that have arisen in an external context of weak growth and high levels of uncertainty Part II analyses the challenges that the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean face at the domestic and international levels in mobilizing financing for development On the domestic front slower growth and tighter fiscal restrictions pose significant challenges for the mobilization of resources Externally the classification of many of the region s countries in the middle income category limits their access to concessional external financing or international support Part III of this publication contains the notes relating to the economic performance of the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean in 2015 and the
