Economic Change In Southeast Asia C 1830-1980

Frances Stewart, R. Venugopal

Economic Change In Southeast Asia C 1830-1980:

Economic Change in South-East Asia, C.1830-1980 Ian Brown, 1997 This book provides an introduction to the economic history of South East Asia from the early nineteenth century to the contemporary period It examines for example the strong commitment of agriculturists across the region to cultivation for export markets from the middle decades of the nineteenth century and the impact of agricultural specialization on their material welfare the economic role of the immigrant Chinese as traders moneylenders revenue farmers bankers and industrialists the impact of the inter war depression on the economies of South East Asia the implications of the Green Revolution in rice for rural inequalities and the causes and nature of South East Asia's modern industrialization On each topic it attempts to draw the reader into the specialist literature to emphasize divergent views and where appropriate to admit ignorance Above all it seeks to kindle curiosity and enthusiasm to encourage the reader to explore further

Chinese In Southeast Asia And Beyond, The: Socioeconomic And Political Dimensions Ching-hwang Yen, 2008-07-21 The Chinese in Southeast Asia with their growing economic clout have been attracting attention from politicians scholars and observers in recent decades The rise of China as a global economic power and its profound influence over Southeast Asia has cast a spotlight on the role of Southeast Asian Chinese in the region's economic relations with China The Southeast Asian Chinese as an economic force and their growing importance with China are to a certain extent determined by the nature and development of their communities This book uses a multifaceted approach to unravel the forces that helped to transform the communities in the past Containing 17 papers written within a span of six and a half years from 2000 to 2006 the book focuses on the social economic and political aspects of these communities with special emphasis on the Chinese in Malaysia and Singapore

Horizontal Inequalities and Conflict F. Stewart, 2016-01-22 Drawing on econometric evidence and in depth studies of West Africa Latin America and Southeast Asia this book explores how horizontal inequalities ethnic religious or racial are a source of violent conflict and how political economic and cultural status inequalities have contributed Policies to reverse inequality would reduce these risks

Subverting Empire Will Jackson, Emily Manktelow, 2015-07-15 Across their empire the British spoke ceaselessly of deviants of undesirables ne'er-do-wells petit tyrants and rogues With obvious literary appeal these soon became stock figures This is the first study to take deviance seriously bringing together histories that reveal the complexity of a phenomenon that remains only dimly understood

Weathering the Storm P. Boomgaard, 2021-10-01 The principal cause of the 1930s depression in Southeast Asia lay outside the region through a sharp contraction in demand for the region's major commodity exports But it had important internal causes too an oversupply of primary commodities and an increasing scarcity of new agricultural land leading to higher rents and lower wages rising indebtedness and increasing landlessness This work thoroughly analyses the pre war depression It also looks at the changes in the basic structures of the economies of Southeast Asia that were of long term importance such as the role of the state in the economy The authors also draw similarities and contrasts between the 1930s depression and the 1990s Asian crisis Contributors are Peter Boomgaard Anne Booth Pierre Brocheux Ian Brown William G Clarence Smith Daniel F Doeppers Paul H Kratoska J Thomas Lindblad Sompop Manarungsan S Nawiyanto Irene Norlund Jeroen Touwen and Willem Wolters Co published with ISEAS Singapore Labour in Southeast Asia Becky Elmhirst, Ratna Saptari, 2004-05-07 Brings together current research on labour in Southeast Asia offering theoretical insights and detailed empirical case studies drawn from a variety of contexts Culture and Economy in the Indian Diaspora Bhikhu Parekh, Gurharpal Singh, Steven Vertovec, 2003-09-02 Examines the Indian diaspora in Mauritius South Africa Malaysia Sri Lanka the Middle East Trinidad Australia the US Canada and the UK and the core issues of demography economy culture and future development The Chinese in Southeast Asia and Beyond Ching-Hwang Yen, 2008 The Chinese in Southeast Asia with their growing economic clout have been attracting attention from politicians scholars and observers in recent decades The rise of China as a global economic power and its profound influence over Southeast Asia has cast a spotlight on the role of Southeast Asian Chinese in the region s economic relations with China The Southeast Asian Chinese as an economic force and their growing importance with China are to a certain extent determined by the nature and development of their communities This book uses a multifaceted approach to unravel the forces that helped to transform the communities in the past Containing 17 papers written within a span of six and a half years from 2000 to 2006 the book focuses on the social economic and political aspects of these communities with special emphasis on the Chinese in Malaysia and Singapore Development Strategies, Identities, and Conflict in Asia William Ascher, N. Mirovitskaya, 2013-06-12 Development Strategies Identities and Conflict in Asia explores the links between Asian governments development strategies and the nature and dynamics of inter group violence analyzing variations in strategies and their impacts through broad comparative analyses as well as case studies focused on eight countries The International Order of Asia in the 1930s and 1950s Nicholas J. White, 2016-03-03 This book reconsiders the nature and formation of Asia s economic order during the 1930s and 1950s in light of the new historiographical developments in Britain and Japan Recently several Japanese economic historians have offered a new perspective on Asian history arguing that economic growth was fuelled by the phenomenon of intra Asian trade which began to grow rapidly around the turn of the 19th 20th centuries On the other side British imperial historians P J Cain and A G Hopkins have presented their own interpretation of gentlemanly capitalism in which they emphasize the leading role of the service sector rather than that of British industry in assessing the nature of the British presence overseas In order to assess and test these new perspectives this volume addresses three key issues The first is to reconsider the metropolitan peripheral relationship in Asia focusing particularly on the role of the sterling area and its implications for Asian economic development The second is to examine the formation of inter regional trade relations within Asia in the 1930s and their revival and transformation in the 1950s The final issue is the comparison of the international order of Asia of the 1930s with the 1950s and the degree to which the Second World War represented a break point in Asia s

economic development Dealing with issues of trade economy nationalism and imperialism this book provides fresh insights into the development of Asia during the mid twentieth century Drawing on the latest scholarship it will prove invaluable to all who wish to better understand the position of countries such as Japan China India Singapore Malaysia and Korea within the wider international order

Cities in Motion Su Lin Lewis, 2016-07-19 In the 1920s and 1930s the port cities of Southeast Asia were staging grounds for diverse groups of ordinary citizens to experiment with modernity as a rising Japan and American capitalism challenged the predominance of European empires after the First World War Both migrants and locals played a pivotal role in shaping civic culture Moving away from a nationalist reading of the period Su Lin Lewis explores layers of cross cultural interaction in various spheres the urban built environment civic associations print media education popular culture and the emergence of the modern woman While the book focuses on Penang Rangoon and Bangkok three cities born amidst British expansion to the region it explores connected experiences across Asia and in Asian intellectual enclaves in Europe Cosmopolitan sensibilities were severely tested in the era of post colonial nationalism but are undergoing a resurgence in Southeast Asia s civil society and creative class today

Law, Disorder and the Colonial State J. Saha, 2013-02-04 In this original study British rule in Burma is examined through quotidian acts of corruption Saha outlines a novel way to study the colonial state as it was experienced in everyday life revealing a complex world of state practices where legality and illegality were inseparable the informal world upon which formal colonial power rested

Wage Labour in Southeast Asia Since 1840 A. Kaur, 2004-03-09 Amarjit Kaur examines wage labour s role in economic growth and change in Southeast Asia since 1840 Her study focuses on globalization the international division of labour and how transnational economic processes shaped and continue to shape labour systems There are five main themes labour processes migration and labour systems labour circulation or mobility the gendered nature of labour relations and class consciousness worker organization and labour standards A wide ranging study which will be of great interest to historians economists and Asia specialists

Global Indonesia Jean Gelman Taylor, 2013 In the 19th century colonial rule brought the modern world closer to the Indonesian peoples introducing mechanized transport all weather roads postal and telegraph communications and steamship networks that linked Indonesia s islands to each other to Europe and the Middle East This book looks at Indonesia s global importance and traces the entwining of its peoples and economies with the wider world The book discusses how products unique to Indonesia first slipped into regional trade networks and exposed scattered communities to the dynamic influence of far off civilizations It focuses on economic and cultural changes that resulted in the emergence of political units organized as oligarchies or monarchies and goes on to look in detail at Indonesia s relationship with Holland s East Indies Company The book analyses the attempts by politicians to negotiate ways of being modern but uniquely Indonesian and considers the oscillations in Indonesia between movements for theocracy and democracy It is a useful contribution for students and scholars of World History and Southeast Asian Studies

The International Tin Cartel John

Hillman,2010-02-25 For most of the twentieth century tin was the site of new forms of international regulation which became a model for other commodities The onset of the depression of the 1930s saw a collapse in commodity prices and governments of tin producing countries decided to form a cartel to return the industry to comparative prosperity This is a detailed study of how the tin industry found itself in difficulty and how the cartel developed its policies of control over production and stocks together with its enduring legacy after World War II This study of a cartel brings together two levels of analysis that are normally kept separate international cooperation and national organization and demonstrates how each affected the other It is based on a comprehensive review of a wide range of archival sources which are sufficiently rich and frank that they provide an insider's sense of how a cartel actually worked Horizontal Inequalities and Post-Conflict Development Frances Stewart,R. Venugopal,2016-04-30 This book evaluates the extent to which post conflict reconstruction has addressed problems of horizontal inequalities through country case studies on Burundi Rwanda Nepal Peru Guatemala Bosnia and Herzegovina and Afghanistan and four thematic studies on macro economic policies privatisation PRSP s and employment generation Textile Trades, Consumer Cultures, and the Material Worlds of the Indian Ocean Pedro Machado,Sarah Fee,Gwyn Campbell,2018-02-09 This collection examines cloth as a material and consumer object from early periods to the twenty first century across multiple oceanic sites from Zanzibar Muscat and Kampala to Ajanta Srivijaya and Osaka It moves beyond usual focuses on a single fibre such as cotton or place such as India to provide a fresh expansive perspective of the ocean as an interaction based arena with an internal dynamism and historical coherence forged by material exchange and human relationships Contributors map shifting social cultural and commercial circuits to chart the many histories of cloth across the region They also trace these histories up to the present with discussions of contemporary trade in Dubai Zanzibar and Eritrea Richly illustrated this collection brings together new and diverse strands in the long story of textiles in the Indian Ocean past and present Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology R. Jon McGee,Richard L. Warms,2013-08-28 Social and cultural anthropology and archaeology are rich subjects with deep connections in the social and physical sciences Over the past 150 years the subject matter and different theoretical perspectives have expanded so greatly that no single individual can command all of it Consequently both advanced students and professionals may be confronted with theoretical positions and names of theorists with whom they are only partially familiar if they have heard of them at all Students in particular are likely to turn to the web to find quick background information on theorists and theories However most web based information is inaccurate and or lacks depth Students and professionals need a source to provide a quick overview of a particular theory and theorist with just the basics the who what where how and why if you will In response SAGE Reference plans to publish the two volume Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology An Encyclopedia Features Benefits Two volumes containing approximately 335 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and thorough reference resource available on anthropology theory both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage To ease navigation between and among related entries a Reader's Guide groups entries thematically and each entry is followed by Cross References In the electronic version the Reader's Guide combines with the Cross References and a detailed Index to provide robust search and browse capabilities An appendix with a Chronology of Anthropology Theory allows students to easily chart directions and trends in thought and theory from early times to the present Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each entry and a Master Bibliography at the end guide readers to sources for more detailed research and discussion Renegotiating Boundaries, 2014-04-09 For decades almost the only social scientists who visited Indonesia's provinces were anthropologists Anybody interested in politics or economics spent most of their time in Jakarta where the action was Our view of the world's fourth largest country threatened to become simplistic lacking that essential graininess Then in 1998 Indonesia was plunged into a crisis that could not be understood with simplistic tools After 32 years of enforced stability the New Order was at an end Things began to happen in the provinces that no one was prepared for Democratization was one decentralization another Ethnic and religious identities emerged that had lain buried under the blanket of the New Order's modernizing ideology Unfamiliar sometimes violent forms of political competition and of rentseeking came to light Decentralization was often connected with the neo liberal desire to reduce state powers and make room for free trade and democracy To what extent were the goals of good governance and a stronger civil society achieved How much of the process was captured by regional elites to increase their own powers Amidst the new identity politics what has happened to citizenship These are among the central questions addressed in this book This volume is the result of a two year research project at KITLV It brings together an international group of 24 scholars mainly from Indonesia and the Netherlands but also from the United States Australia Germany Canada and Portugal Southeast Asian Development Andrew McGregor, 2008-03-03 Southeast Asia has long fascinated development practitioners and researchers for being one of the few regions of the world that has resisted global trends to become a successful developing region Divided into accessible thematic chapters this book adopts a unique perspective of equitable development to outline the strengths and weaknesses of the transformations taking place in the Southeast Asian region Focusing on four key themes equality and inequality political freedom and opportunity empowerment and participation and environmental sustainability these concepts are used to explore Southeast Asian development and trace the impacts that the growing popularity of market led and grassroots approaches are having upon economic political and social processes Whilst the diversity of the region is emphasized so are some of the homogenizing trends such as the concentration of wealth and services in urban areas and the subsequent migration of rural people into urban factories and squatter settlements The ongoing commercialization and industrialization of rural agriculture as well as the expansion of non farm income earning opportunities in rural spaces and the alarming rates of environmental degradation which threaten health and livelihoods are also exposed In highlighting how Southeast Asian development is unevenly distributing wealth opportunities and risks throughout the region this book emphasizes the need for creative new approaches to ensure that benefits of development are equitably enjoyed by all Including illustrations case studies and further reading this book provides an accessible up to date introductory text for students and researchers interested in Southeast Asian development development studies Asian studies and geography
