Ecriture Feminine Et Violence Une Etude De Marguerite Duras:

Ecriture féminine et violence Janine Ricouart,1991 Of Vietnam J. Winston,L. Chau-Pech,2001-12-06 A rich space of criticism and document Of Vietnam moves contemporary figurings of Vietnam out of the nostalgic enclaves of the past and the stagnant places of a mythological present into the rich potential of our historical epoch This provocative book is the first to bring together works by photographers established and unpublished writers poets and artists from Vietnam and its diasporas and critical pieces by scholars of anthropology art history history and literary and cultural studies Focusing on issues of identity displacement language sexuality and class their contributions challenge and encourage readers to experience the multiplicity of experiences that make up the fabric of identity Women by Women Roseanna Lewis Dufault,1997 While some of the featured works seem dark and pessimistic they express collectively a certain hope for a brighter more egalitarian future This anthology brings together cogent critical studies in a way that identifies and illuminates trends among Quebec s contemporary women writers Perceptions of Values ,2023-11-20 Since 1974 the French Literature Series publishes essays in conjunction with the theme of the bi annual French Literature Conference sponsored by the Department of Languages Literatures and Cultures of the University of South Carolina Columbia South Carolina USA In addition to the scholarly papers selected for publication by the Editorial Board it also accepts notes on the conference topic Contributors should note that FLS does not publish conference proceedings Rather submissions must be revised for publication and undergo blind peer review All communications concerning the French Literature Series should be addressed to the Editor Jeanne Garane garanejmailbox sc edu The French Literature Series is published by BRILL Rodopi For communications concerning standing orders or back volumes please check the series website at www.brill.com/fls This series has been closed in 2020 The Memory of Pain Camila Loew,2011 In this book Camila Loew analyzes four women s testimonial literary writings on the Holocaust to examine and question some of the tenets of the fields of Holocaust studies gender studies and testimony Through a close reading of the works of Charlotte Delbo Margarete Buber Neumann Ruth Kluger and Marguerite Duras Loew foregrounds these authors search for a written form to engage with their experiences of the extreme Although each chapter contains its individual focus and features the book possesses a unity in intention concerns and consequences In the theoretical introduction that unites the four chapters Loew eschews essentialism and revises the emergence of the field of Women and Holocaust studies from the early 1980s on and signals some of its shortcomings In response and in accordance with a recent turn in various disciplines of the Humanities Loew highlights the ethical dimension of testimony and its responsible commitment to the other In dealing with the texts as literary testimonies a complex genre between literature and history testimony is freed from the obligation to respond to the requirements of factual truth and becomes a privileged form to voice the traumatic event and to symbolically explore the role of excess The Crimes of Marguerite Duras Anne Brancky,2020-07-09 One of the most celebrated authors of twentieth century France Marguerite

Duras loved crime Indeed criminal faits divers from the newspaper represented a key element in her literary project Sensational news stories made their way into her novels plays and screenplays inspired numerous journalistic pieces and media interventions and even informed the way that she discussed her life and work in the press The Crimes of Marguerite Duras offers an innovative framework for analyzing Duras s literary works and journalism as they relate to the mass media and broader cultural debates Anne Brancky reveals how Duras s predilection for provocatively blurring the line between truth and fiction on various media platforms helped make her a best selling author and a public intellectual ahead of her time Exploring the movement between serious literature and public scandal this readable book affirms literature s abiding role in political debate and the public sphere Duras, Writing, and the Ethical Martin Crowley,2000 Careful textual analysis shows the particular fragile nature of this engagement as well as the intricate textures of Duras s work this leads to a striking new model of the relation between the literary text and the ethical life of its readers which will be of importance not only to specialists in French Studies but to all those interested in ethical criticism and modern literary studies BOOK JACKET

Marguerite Duras Revisited Marilyn R.
