La Pantalla Popular José María Caparrós Lera,2005-01-01 Completo panorama cr tico del cine espa ol entre 1996 y 2003 abordado con ecuanimidad y sin lugares comunes en el que se estudia desde el cine de Almod var hasta el de Jos Luis Garcí pasando por ochenta de los filmes m s significativos del periodo y por el fen meno del Joven Cine Espa ol Spain is (still) Different Eugenia Afinoguénova,Jaume Martí-Olivella,2008-01-01 This volume constitutes the first interdisciplinary multi authored collection written in English on the topic of the cultural impact of tourism in Spain Its methodological range and scope make it accessible to experts in other areas and disciplines who as suggested in the book s introduction will find many of the ideas in the volume applicable to their own fields Iberian Crime Fiction Nancy Vosburg,2011-02-15 Iberian Crime Fiction is the first volume in English to provide an extensive overview of crime fiction in Spain and Portugal While the origins of peninsular crime fiction are traced in Nancy Vosburg s introductory chapter to the volume the essays focus on specific topics that provide readers with a sense of the development of the genre in the second half of the 20th century and current trends in the 21st century Patty Hart whose The Spanish Sleuth introduced English speaking readers to early crime fiction in Spain provides a summary account of the development of the crime novel from the 1950s through the 1980s highlighting the major authors and works that set the stage for the boom that followed the establishment of the novela negra tradition in the 1970s This tradition spearheaded by Manuel Vazquez Montalban is the subject of a separate essay by Maria Balibrea that analyzes the socio political conditions that gave rise to the novela negra NancyVosburg studies the emergence of a feminine feminist crime novel in the 1980s and 1990s and the subversion of masculine codes associated with crime fiction while Stewart King analyzes crime fiction from the Catalan Basque and Galician autonomous regions of Spain focusing on the political realities that resulted in a different use of the genre as a vehicle of regional nationalism David Knutson traces contemporary trends in Spanish crime fiction beginning in the 1990s and up to the present Paul Castro s essay documents the emergence of crime fiction in Portugal and the major works authors through to the present Memories of the Maghreb Adolfo Campoy-Cubillo,2012-10-22 Using a cultural studies approach this book explores how the Spanish colonization of North Africa continues to haunt Spain's efforts to articulate a national identity that can accommodate both the country's diversity brought about by immigration from its old colonies and the postnational demands of its integration in the European Union

Zoom In, Zoom Out Sandra Barriaes-Bouche, Marjorie Attignol Salvodon, 2009-03-26

In the context of the transformations that Europe is undergoing Zoom in Zoom out Crossing Borders in Contemporary European Cinema attempts to serve as a testimony to the multiple ways in which European filmmakers are questioning the many borders of the continent. European films have become a vital cultural space where the relationship between borders and identity is being renegotiated. The films discussed here self-consciously address the question of European identity while overtly crossing geographic, cultural, linguistic and aesthetic borders. While all the articles explore the crossing of borders in Contemporary European films, the volume maintains diverse themes and perspectives as subtopics. It includes articles not only about films that deal thematically with border crossings but also articles that examine movies that cross borders in genres and techniques. The articles have different theoretical approaches: Film theory, Cultural Studies, History, Sociology, Philosophy and Psychoanalysis, and cover films from well-known cinematic traditions: French, Spanish, German and Italian, as well as lesser-known cinematic traditions: Yugoslavian, Greek and Irish. As a whole, the essays frame the self-conscious gesture by European filmmakers to define European cinema as a work in progress or at the very least as a project that like Europe itself raises as many questions as it answers. This volume is a welcome addition to the growing critical literature on the evolution of the conception and practice of national cinema in Europe over the last two decades. Sandra Barriaes-Bouche and Marjorie Attignol Salvodon have chosen a solid selection of representative case studies that reflects different critical approaches to the problem of maintaining local or national cinema production in Europe during a period of intense globalization. Their insightful introduction formulates the theme of unsettled borders and renegotiated identities that will resonate in the nine essays that follow. With a focus on the critical concept of these unsettled borders, the various authors explore the ways that the traditional mark of national space has been transformed through political and economic realignments, as well as new technologies and the emergence of a new generation of filmmakers for whom national cinema no longer means what it did even twenty years ago. The volume provides a good balance of critical approaches that includes auteur studies, descriptions of state policies and the particular practices of filmmakers and producers in different parts of the continent: Spain, Germany, Ireland, the Balkans, and finally useful appendices that provide a close-up view of the complex nature of international co-productions. Marvin D. Lugo, Professor of Spanish, Clark University. This is an interesting collection of essays that has been well conceived and organised. The standard of writing is high and I recommend publication. I particularly commend the conceptual framework underpinning the volume. This marries a cultural studies approach which still dominates the study of film in Area Studies and language departments across Europe and the US, where filmic texts are increasingly used as teaching tools, with the more industry-based focus one tends to find adopted by Media and Screen Studies departments. Thus this collection will appeal to a wide range of students and academics The introduction sets out the volume s overarching framework cogently and clearly giving a nuanced exploration of the way that the notion of the border can be used as a dynamic prism to help define and explore the limits of our understanding of Europe European identity and European culture within which cinema has long played a key role The editors give a good account for example of the way film has been employed as a space to explore the possibilities of European integration by EU politicians as well as highlighting the flaws inherent within this project They do however perhaps suggest a certain Western European North American centric view in their suggestion that the cinema of Yugoslavia Greece or Ireland is somehow less well known than other national and transnational cinemas explored here Less well known to whom However from the broad range of cinemas explored in the rest of the volume clearly this is not the case Particular high points for me are the chapters on the work of Fatih Akin by Janis Little Solomon and John Davidson s discussion of Schulze gets the Blues as well as Olivier Asselin s fascinating account of Database Cinema This will be a good addition to scholarship on European film and I look forward to receiving my copy

Professor Paul Cooke University of Leeds      Contemporary Spanish Fiction Dorothy Odattey-Wellington, 2008 Examines the work of six novelists of the Generation X group of writers in Spain including Jose Angel Manas Ray Loriga Gabriela Bustelo Ismael Grasa Belen Gopegui and Antonio Orejudo Utrilla      Murder in the Multinational State Stewart King, 2019-05-23 As Spaniards set out to transform the political social and cultural landscape of the nation following the death of dictator Francisco Franco in 1975 its crime fiction traces challenges and celebrates these radical changes Crime Fiction from Spain Murder in the Multinational State provides a comprehensive exploration of the relationship between detective fiction and national and cultural identities in post Franco democratic Spain What sort of stories are told about the nation within the state in the crime genre How do the conventions of the crime story shape not only the production of national and cultural identities but also their disruption Combining criminological theories of crime and community with an analysis of the genre s conventions this study challenges the simple classification of Spanish crime fiction as texts written by Spaniards set in Spain and with Spanish characters Instead it develops a dramatic new reading practice which allows for a greater understanding of the role of crime fiction in the construction and articulation of different and at times competing national and cultural identities including in the Basque Country Catalonia and Galicia The book provides a stimulating introduction to the key debates on the study of crime fiction and national and cultural identities in the context of a multinational state      World Literature in Spanish Maureen Ihrle, Salvador Oropesa, 2011-10-20 Containing roughly 850 entries about Spanish language literature throughout the world this expansive work provides coverage of the varied countries ethnicities time periods literary movements and genres of these writings Providing a thorough introduction to Spanish language literature worldwide and across time is a tall order However World Literature in Spanish An Encyclopedia contains roughly 850 entries on both major and minor authors themes genres and topics of Spanish literature from the

The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films Salvador Jiménez Murguía,Alex Pinar,2018-05-18 Under the Franco regime 1939 1976 films produced in Spain were of poor quality promoted the regime s agenda or were heavily censored After the dictator s death the Spanish film industry transitioned into a new era one in which artists were able to more freely express themselves and tackle subjects that had been previously stifled Today films produced in Spain are among the most highly regarded in world cinema The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films features nearly 300 entries on the written by a host of international scholars and film critics Beginning with movies released after Franco s death this volume documents four decades of films directors actresses and actors of Spanish cinema Offering a comprehensive survey of films the entries address such topics as art culture society and politics Each includes comprehensive production details and provides brief suggestions for further reading Through its examination of the films of the post Franco period this volume offers readers valuable insights into Spanish history politics and culture An indispensable guide to one of the great world cinemas The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films will be of interest to students academics and the general public alike

Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian Detective Fiction Renée W. Craig-Odders,Jacky Collins,Glen S. Close,2006-03-20 The image of the hard boiled private investigator from gritty pulp fiction a terse and mysterious figure has become increasingly universal as the detective novel crosses more and more borders A booming genre in Latin America Spain and other Hispanic cultures detective fiction has transcended the limitations of its influences Hispanic authors relatively new to the genre have published novels and series popular with the public while a number of well known writers have adapted the genre to reflect the concurrent globalization of modern society and the crimes within it This volume presents a compilation of 11 critical essays on genero negro contemporary detective fiction in the Hispanic and Luso Brazilian canon Surveying the last twenty years the text analyzes emerging trends in this rapidly evolving genre as well as the mutations and innovations taking place within the style The first section of the book is dedicated to the detective fiction of Spain and Portugal The second section surveys works from Latin America and the United States where topics touch on universal subjects like crime identity and feminism

Africa in the Contemporary Spanish Novel, 1990-2010 Mahan L. Ellison,2021-08-19 The time period of 1990 2010 marks a significant moment in Spanish literary publishing that emphasized a new focus on Africa and African voices and signaled the beginning of a publishing boom of Hispano African authors and themes Africa in the Contemporary Spanish Novel 1990 2010 analyzes the strategies that Spanish and Hispano African authors employ when writing about Africa in the contemporary Spanish novel Focusing on the former Spanish colonial territories of Morocco Western Sahara and Equatorial Guinea Mahan L Ellison analyzes the post colonial literary discourse about these regions at the turn of the twenty first century He examines the new ways of conceptualizing Africa that depart from an Orientalist framework as advanced by novelists such as Lorenzo Silva Concha Lopez Saras a Ram n Mayrata and others Throughout Ellison also places the novels within their historical context specifically engaging with the theoretical ideas of Edward Said s Orientalism 1978 to determine to what extent his analysis of Orientalist discourse still holds value for a study of the Spanish novel of thirty years later Serial Authorship and New Directions in Spanish Female Detective Fiction Inmaculada Pertusa-Seva, Melissa A. Stewart, 2024-10-11 This collection of essays expands our understanding and appreciation of the body of work by established female authors of Spanish crime fiction series by analyzing recent narratives that in some cases contribute in novel ways to the ongoing reformulation of the genre and in others provide readers with a temporary hiatus from it The studies offer students and scholars of crime fiction new perspectives on the works of well known authors as well as analyses of their often less known narratives that may not fit within the genre Readers will engage in an exploration of gender dynamics and sexuality a variety of psychological and social issues and the consequences of the indiscriminate consumption of media and abuse of the environment and animals in narratives that exhibit the versatility of these outstanding authors The volume will appeal to a wide audience of literary and cultural studies critics as well as crime fiction enthusiasts and newcomers to this popular genre Word order variation in Italian and Spanish why-interrogatives Svenja Krieger, 2024-12-16 Questions that are introduced by the wh element why are special For instance in Italian and Spanish they allow the subject to occur in preverbal position in contrast to other wh interrogatives The overall goal of this book is to investigate the syntactic and discourse particularities of why interrogatives in Italian and Spanish More specifically based on a parallel corpus study and several experimental studies the factors that affect subject positioning in why interrogatives are determined In Italian focus plays a determining role while subject type and the heaviness of the subject affect its position in Spanish After discussing previous accounts that address the differences between the two languages an alternative approach is presented that builds on differences in the checking of the extended projection principle Additionally the special syntactic position of why is further supported by investigating a so far unnoticed intervening element in the context of why interrogatives namely vocatives Finally subject positioning in Italian why interrogatives is examined in heritage bilingualism in order to contribute to the debate on the general vulnerability of the syntax discourse interface Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz, 2008-09-05 When it began modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime In 1950 the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco s policies a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism In the 1950s and early 1960s filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem Luis Garc a Berlanga and Luis Bu uel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista Death of a Cyclist Bienvenido Se or Marshall Welcome Mr Marshall and Viridiana The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura Jos Luis Borau V ctor Erice and others After Franco s death in 1975 censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality drugs the church the army and the Civil War The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but at long last mirrored the society it depicted While established directors like Saura Bardem and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armend riz Tasio Fernando Trueba First Work Imanol Uribe The Death of Mikel and Pedro Almod var Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown In the last couple of decades exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced including Alejandro Amen bar s Thesis Jos Luis Garc s The Grandfather and Almod var s Talk to Her and Volver In Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz presents a compendium of outstanding Spanish films from the pre Francoist era through the Spanish New Wave of the 80 s and 90 s and into the present day Schwartz provides background plot and commentaries of key films from six decades of Spanish cinema In addition to identifying Violence and Victimhood in Hispanic Crime Fiction Shalisa M. Collins, Renée W. Craig-Odders, Marcella L. Paul, 2018-07-26 At the heart of crime fiction is an investigation into an act of violence Studies of the genre have generally centered on the relationship between the criminal and the investigator Focusing on contemporary crime fiction from the Spanish speaking world this collection of new essays explores the role of the victim Contributors discuss how the definition of victim the nature of the crime the identification of the body and its treatment by authorities reflect shifting social landscapes changing demographics economic crises and political corruption and instability
