The Divine Romance Gene Edwards,1996 The Divine Romance Gene Edwards,1984 The Fame of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Margo Echenberg,2025-10-01 The Fame of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz traces the meteoric trajectory of the Mexican Tenth Muse's renown and studies how her worldly celebrity was altered posthumously by elegists in her Fama y obras póstumas Fame and Posthumous Works of 1700 In this study of a polyphonic transatlantic volume the didactic framework of early modern fame is pushed to its limits as panegyrists inscribe the nun into an evolving world view that could trade in the fictions of the saintly exemplar the Tenth Muse or a New World treasure but could not preserve a woman's renown on the grounds of authorship Only by making her legible could she vie for the promise of posthumous fame In flushing out the machinations of Sor Juana's role as agent of her own celebrity as well as the negotiations of her contemporaries this book opens new lines of inquiry in the study of early modern fame and print culture and the role of writers panegyrists and editors as cultural agents in the transatlantic literary relationship between Mexico and Spain Chapters XVII-XX. Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz has also been celebrated as the First Feminist of the New World Feminist Perspectives on Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz fills a gap in the scholarship on Sor Juana by exploring the implications of her feminist status in literary and cultural terms Editor Stephanie Merrim's introduction surveys key issues in Sor Juana criticism from a feminist literary perspective and suggests a blueprint for future studies Essays by Dorothy Schons and Asunción Lavrín reconstitute essential dimensions of Sor Juana's world addressing biographical questions about the norms and values of religious life Moving from social norms to their verbal expression Josefina Ludmer reads Sor Juana's Respuesta for its stratagems of resistance and Stephanie Merrim uncovers in Sor Juana's theater the encoded drama of the conflicted creative woman Valle-Inclán and the Theatre Xavier Peter Vila, 1994 The plays studied in this book constitute veritable landmarks in the affirmation of the dramatic voice of Spanish playwright Ramon del Valle Inclán The three plays as this study shows prove crucial to the development of a theatre of unparalleled innovative force in the annals of twentieth century Spanish letters A New Spanish Grammar John Stevens, 1739 Poets of Divine Love Alessandro Vettori, 2004 Clearly written this incisive critical study opens a new analytic window not only to the rhetoric of medieval Italian poetry but also to a richer understanding of one of the most important strands of medieval European culture Lope de Vega's Comedias de Tema Religioso Elaine M. Canning, 2004 Lope's use of self-reverential devices in Lo fingido verdadero and La buena guarda serves to highlight the illusory nature of life and the relationship between lo verdadero and lo divino which lie at the heart of the theocentric world view of seventeenth century Spain The conflicting imperatives of human and divine love and the issue of identity are features of all of the plays Furthermore it is illustrated that the interplay between illusion and reality and the relationship between playwright and audience are crucial to Lope's dramatic output Jacket The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric Camilla Caporicci, 2025-01-29 Traditionally attributed to King Solomon and called by Rabbi Akiva the Holy of Holies among sacred Scriptures Mishnah Yadayim 3:5 the Song of Songs is one of the most fascinating and controversial biblical books and played an essential role in the shaping of European spirituality and culture Combining in a unique way a sensual and deeply lyrical celebration of love with a well-established tradition of Christian allegorical interpretation this text crucial to both the Middle Ages and the early modern period held a particular appeal for poets devoted not only to religious verse but also to love poetry The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric is the first systematic and wide-ranging investigation of the multifaceted use of the Song of Songs in Renaissance love lyric poetry with specific attention to Italian French and especially English poetic production At the same time this investigation is embedded into a narrative that comprising two initial chapters devoted to medieval poetry and to Francesco Petrarca represents an unprecedented attempt to trace the role of the Song of Songs in the rise and development of the European love lyric following its path or rather one of its paths from the medieval origins of this tradition to the end of the sixteenth century The picture of the general impact of the Song of Songs in the development of the European love lyric is combined with in depth analysis of key works by specific authors including Dante Alighieri Francesco Petrarca Torquato Tasso Marguerite de Navarre Anne de Marquets Cl ment Marot Richard Barnfield Edmund Spenser William Shakespeare John Donne Elizabeth Melville and Aemilia Lanyer promoting a contextualization of their significance within a new interpretative framework While the comparative standpoint characterizing this study fosters a deeper comprehension of the evolution of the European love lyric its multidisciplinary approach which considers the Song of Songs as the centre of a web of dynamics pertaining to the fields of literature philosophy theology and religious and cultural history contributes to the understanding of the thought and spirit of ages crucial to the shaping of European culture Maria de Zayas Tells
