

A Trip to Giza Sunday 24th December 1938

I have no doubt that in all my life I shall never look at these men the pyramids. They have stood for 4,000 years they are still exactly the same. They are not really that far from the pyramids. They are not really that far from the pyramids. They are not really that far from the pyramids.

A note on the situation as we started about the location inside the pyramids and the location of the pyramids. The fact is that they were built originally on the side of one of the Great Pyramids. The fact is that they were built originally on the side of one of the Great Pyramids. The fact is that they were built originally on the side of one of the Great Pyramids.

That is the fact. The fact is that they were built originally on the side of one of the Great Pyramids. The fact is that they were built originally on the side of one of the Great Pyramids. The fact is that they were built originally on the side of one of the Great Pyramids.

The Pyramid of a Pyramid

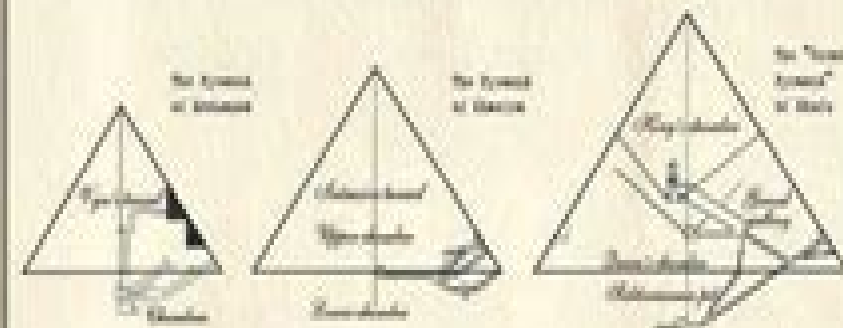

When, in the morning of the Great Pyramid, the fact is that they were built originally on the side of one of the Great Pyramids. The fact is that they were built originally on the side of one of the Great Pyramids. The fact is that they were built originally on the side of one of the Great Pyramids.
