quienes vivieron y asumieron ese pequeño territorio bajo aquella singular organización política durante casi medio siglo. La función de la Alta Comisaría del Protectorado, la acción protectora a través de la oficina de intervención, el dispensario médico y la escuela, la figura de los interventores, la organización sanitaria, las instituciones educativas y culturales, las instituciones judiciales y el derecho hispano-marroquí, la Administración Militar y los últimos años del Protectorado son algunos de los temas que se han abordado en esta obra. Por supuesto que aunque la historia del Protectorado no se agota en estas trece visiones, al menos los trabajos agrupados en esta obra tratan los aspectos más relevantes de la historia del Protectorado. De hecho, este libro formula interrogantes, propone reflexiones y deja la puerta abierta a nuevas interpretaciones. En definitiva, aún queda trabajo para los historiadores en este campo del Protectorado que no siempre lo fue de batalla.

Spanish National Identity, Colonial Power, and the Portrayal of Muslims and Jews During the Rif War (1909-27) Elisabeth Bolorinos Allard, 2021. Runner up for the 2017-18 AHGBI Spanish Embassy Publication Prize. This book examines how anxieties about colonial power and national identity are reflected in Spanish literature, journalism and photography of Moroccan Muslim and Jewish cultures during the Spanish colonisation of Northern Morocco from 1909 to 1927. This understudied period, known as the Rif War, is highly significant because of its role in shaping the identities that came into conflict in the Spanish Civil War 1936-39. Furthermore, the book makes a key contribution to Spanish colonial studies by offering a comparative analysis of Spanish representations of the Iberian Peninsula's cultural and historical relationship with Moroccan Muslims and Jews in this context, showing how conflicting visions of Spanish identity are portrayed through and in relation to them.

ELISABETH BOLORINOS ALLARD is a Fellow by Examination in Modern Languages at Magdalen College, Oxford.

Reparative Citizenship for Sephardi Descendants Dalia Kandiyoti, Rina Benmayor, 2023-01-13. In 2015, both Portugal and Spain passed laws enabling descendants of Sephardi Jews to obtain citizenship, an historic offer of reconciliation for Jews who were forced to undergo conversions or expelled from Iberia nearly half a millennium ago. Drawing on the memory of the expulsion from Sepharad, the scholarly and personal essays in Reparative Citizenship for Sephardi Descendants analyze the impact of reconciliation laws on descendants and contemporary forms of citizenship.

Crescent Remembered Patricia Hertel, 2015-06-26. Contemporary Spain and Portugal share a historical experience as Iberian states which emerged within the context of al-Andalus. These centuries of Muslim presence in the Middle Ages became a contested heritage during the process of modern nation building with its varied concepts and constructs of national identities. Politicians, historians and intellectuals debated vigorously the question how the Muslim past could be reconciled with the idea of the Catholic nation. The Crescent Remembered investigates the processes of exclusion and integration of the Islamic past within the national narratives. It analyses discourses of historiography, Arabic studies, mythology, popular culture and colonial policies towards Muslim populations from the 19th century to the dictatorships of Franco and Salazar in the 20th century. In particular, it explores why, despite apparent historical similarities in Spain and Portugal, entirely different strategies and discourses

Postcolonial Europe Lars Jensen, Julia Suárez-Krabbe, Christian Groes, Zoran Lee Pecic, 2017-11-30 How has European identity been shaped through its colonial empires Does this history of imperialism influence the conceptualisation of Europe in the contemporary globalised world How has coloniality shaped geopolitical differences within Europe What does this mean for the future of Europe Postcolonial Europe Comparative Reflections after the Empires brings together scholars from across disciplines to rethink European colonialism in the light of its vanishing empires and the rise of new global power structures Taking an interdisciplinary approach to the postcolonial European legacy the book argues that the commonly used nation centric approach does not effectively capture the overlap between different colonial and postcolonial experiences across Europe

Empire's End Akiko Tsuchiya, William Garrett Acree, 2021-04-30 The fall of the Spanish Empire that period in the nineteenth century when it lost its colonies in Spanish America and the Philippines How did it happen What did the process of the end of empire look like Empire's End considers the nation's imperial legacy beyond this period all the way up to the present moment In addition to scrutinizing the political economic and social implications of this end these chapters emphasize the cultural impact of this process through an analysis of a wide range of representations literature literary histories periodical publications scientific texts national symbols museums architectural monuments and tourist routes that formed the basis of transnational connections and exchange The book breaks new ground by addressing the ramifications of Spain's imperial project in relation to its former colonies not only in Spanish America but also in North Africa and the Philippines thus generating new insights into the circuits of cultural exchange that link these four geographical areas that are rarely considered together Empire's End showcases the work of scholars of literature cultural studies and history centering on four interrelated issues crucial to understanding the end of the Spanish empire the mappings of the Hispanic Atlantic race human rights and the legacies of empire European Modernity and the Passionate South, 2022-12-19 In the long nineteenth century dominant stereotypes presented people of the Mediterranean South as particularly passionate and unruly therefore incapable of adapting to the moral and political duties imposed by European civilization and modernity This book studies for the first time in comparative perspective the gender dimension of a process that legitimised internal hierarchies between North and South in the continent It also analyses how this phenomenon was responded to from Spain and Italy pointing to the similarities and differences between both countries Drawing on travel narratives satires philosophical works novels plays operas and paintings it shows how this transnational process affected in changing historical contexts the ways in which nation gender and modernity were imagined and mutually articulated

In Praise of Historical Anthropology Alexandre Coello de la Rosa, Josep Lluís Mateo Dieste, 2020-01-24 In Praise of Historical Anthropology is based on a fundamental conviction the study of society cannot be undertaken without considering the weight of history and separations between disciplines in academics need to be bridged for the benefit of knowledge Anthropology cannot be limited to situating its object in its immediate context rather its true subject of study is society as a historical problem The book describes the complex attempts to transcend this separation presenting perspectives methodologies and direct applications for the study of power relations and systems of social classification paying special attention to the reconstruction of colonial situations Following the maxim expounded by John and Jean Comaroff this book will help us understand that historical anthropology is not a matter of merging the two disciplines of anthropology and history but rather considering societies in their historically situated dimension and applying the tools of the social and human sciences to the analysis In this vein the book reviews the complex attempts to bridge disciplinary separations and theoretical proposals coming from very different traditions The text consequently opens up hegemonic perspectives to include other anthropologies

Spain's African Colonial Legacies Yolanda Aixelà-Cabré, 2022-02-14 The African cities of Bata and Al Hoceima were created during the Spanish colonial rule of Equatorial Guinea and Morocco This book constructs their local history to analyse how Spanish colonialism worked what its legacies were and the imprints it left on their national histories The work explains the revision of collective memories of the past in the present as a form of decolonisation that seeks to build different foundations for the future in a transnational and glocal framework The result is an exciting puzzle of individual and collective memories in which Africans contest their colonial cultural heritage and shape their identities at a global level
