Stalin's Plans for Capturing Germany Bogdan Musial, 2023-10-30 Drawing on a host of internal Soviet Politburo discussions memoranda and speeches this book shows that the Soviet Union was a heavily militarized state that incessantly planned to unleash a great ideologically motivated war While the myth of Soviet benevolence has now largely been discredited the idea that Stalin's Soviet Union was a peaceful power that sought to prevent the war through all kinds of means including an ill fated non aggression treaty with Hitler remains popular to this day Indeed this narrative is not only promoted by Putin's propaganda but also by a host of Western intellectuals and even historians who take public declarations at face value Drawing on a host of internal Soviet Politburo discussions memoranda and speeches this book shows that the Soviet Union was a heavily militarized state that incessantly planned to unleash a great ideologically motivated war against the rest of the world In fact its entire political life revolved around the question of war especially following the onset of the Great Depression in 1929 which convinced Soviet leaders of the imminent collapse of the capitalist system abroad Thus both the collectivization as well as the terror that followed in its wake were done with the coming war in mind even though there was no tangible danger of war Slowed down by countless devastating setbacks Stalin was nevertheless able to amass a gigantic army by the late 1930s When Hitler approached Stalin in 1939 asking for Soviet neutrality in his planned invasion of Poland Stalin sensed a golden opportunity by supporting Hitler he could turn the European powers against each another allowing him to intervene once they were sufficiently weakened However Stalin miscalculated Hitler beat both Poland and France in less than a year and then turned against Moscow in 1941 long before Stalin was ready for his own attack equally surprising and rapid military collapse of France and Britain on the European continent In a little over a month Germany decisively defeated the Allies in battle a task that had not been achieved in four years of brutal fighting during World War I First published in 1995 as the official German history of the 1940 campaign in the west the book goes beyond standard explanations to show that German victory was not inevitable and French defeat was not preordained Contrary to the usual accounts of the campaign Frieser illustrates that the military systems of both Germany and France were solid and that their campaign planning was sound The key to victory or defeat he argues was the execution of operational plans both preplanned and ad hoc amid the eternal Clausewitzian combat factors of friction and the fog of war Frieser shows why on the eve of the campaign the British and French leaders had good cause to be confident and why many German generals were understandably concerned that disaster was looming for them This study explodes many of the myths concerning German Blitzkrieg warfare and the planning for the 1940 campaign A groundbreaking new interpretation of a topic that has long interested students of military history it is being published in cooperation with the Association of the U S Army Europe Against Revolution Matthijs Lok,2023 Offers a radical new scholarly interpretation of the topics of Enlightenment legacies counter revolution and conservatism as well as the construction of the European Past and the international order Gives a historical perspective on the contemporary radical right as well as current expressions of European identity and memory Combines Enlightenment thought with counter revolution and memory studies historiography Draws on sources from seven languages to give a truly pan European perspective Bibliographie der Sozialwissenschaften ,1925
