El Mercosur De La Defensa:

International Relations in Latin America Andrea Oelsner, 2013-10-11 This work studies the development of bilateral relations in two pairs of states dyads Argentina Brazil and Argentina Chile It takes on a moderate constructivist approach that incorporates into the analysis of international relations the role of identities ideas and perceptions as well as of material forces and understands that the former are affected and changed during interaction It also uses to securitization theory to explain how issues come or cease to be considered security matters through social constructions Judicial institutionalization of integration processes Ricardo Caichiolo, 2016-09-07 The focus of this book is the judicial institutionalization of integration processes through the development of dispute settlement mechanisms more specifically in the Common Market of the South MERCOSUR to date the most important regional bloc in Latin America The bloc has been in existence since 1991 and has positioned itself as one of the potential regional blocs for trade and investment while becoming one of the important actors in the international community However its achievements have been tainted by the gaps and problems attached to the core foundation of the regional bloc MERCOSUR has been suffering or experiencing internal disputes and disunity due to its complex and low institutionalization a situation which can be seen as being paradoxical Its current Dispute Settlement Mechanism is subject to uncertainty and doubt since its own framework is also under internal and external criticism There has been a series of protocols made in order to tackle the problems of the DSM and to further fix the problems that hinder the cooperation as well as the productivity of MERCOSUR s intra organisation all guided by intergovernmental decision making As such this book seeks to tackle the concept of regionalism and the possible models which have been used or have influenced the establishment of MERCOSUR while discussing the different aspects and developments of each intra organisation This is done in order to evaluate the nature of the problem and future developments that could take place The book also focuses on the prevalence of politicization in MERCOSUR and the pre eminence of Presidential Diplomacy over the path of regional integration which influence the DSM of MERCOSUR and possible developments that might occur in the near future Merger Control Regimes in Emerging Economies Marco Botta, 2011-01-01 When emerging economies draft competition law and begin to enforce it they usually draw on the EU and US competition law systems However significant country specific legal and practical variations tend to arise quickly making it imperative for international business lawyers to acquire more than a passing knowledge of competition legislation and relevant case law in these countries Now for the first time a thoroughly researched book provides an in depth empirical analysis of the legal problems raised for competition and especially for merger control and its enforcement in emerging economies using a case study approach in the Brazilian and Argentinean contexts to reveal paradigmatic trends Brazil and Argentina are chosen not only because they are among the major trading jurisdictions in the developing world but also because they have each established a track record of over a decade in formulating and enforcing a system of merger control

The author describes and analyses all Brazilian and Argentinean legislation in the field of competition law as well as the main merger decisions adopted by the competition authorities and the judgements held by the courts of these countries. The book thoroughly covers the system of competition law currently enforced in each country as well as the main innovations of proposed new competition law currently pending in Brazil. In addition, the author draws on field interviews with competition lawyers and officers of competition authorities conducted between April and July 2008 in Buenos Aires, Brasilia and S o Paulo. The analysis considers such issues as the following: y impact of M y enforcement of competition law and the judiciary y criteria for notification of economic concentrations y application of econometric tests to define the relevant market and the degree of market concentration.

The Myth of the Democratic Peacekeeper Arturo C. Sotomayor, 2014-01-15. If democratic principles do not just rub off onto United Nations peacekeepers, what positive or negative implications can be observed? Winner of the Luciano Tomassini Latin American Relations Book Award of the Luciano Tomassini Latin American Relations. The Myth of the Democratic Peacekeeper reevaluates how United Nations peacekeeping missions reform or fail to reform their participating members. It investigates how such missions affect military organizations and civil-military relations as countries transition to a more democratic system. Two-thirds of the UN's peacekeepers come from developing nations, many of which are transitioning to democracy as well. The assumption is that these blue-helmet peacekeepers learn not only to appreciate democratic principles through their mission work but also to develop an international outlook and new ideas about conflict prevention. Arturo C. Sotomayor debunks this myth, arguing that democratic practices don't just rub off on UN peacekeepers. So what if any benefit accrues to these troops from emerging democracies? In this richly detailed study of a decade's worth of research (2001-2010) on Argentine, Brazilian and Uruguayan peacekeeping participation, Sotomayor draws upon international socialization theory and civil-military relations to understand how peacekeeping efforts impact participating armed forces. He asks three questions: Does peacekeeping reform military organizations? Can peacekeeping socialize soldiers to become more liberalized and civilianized? Does peacekeeping improve defense and foreign policy integration? His evaluation of the three countries' involvement in the UN Stabilization Mission in Haiti reinforces his final analysis: that successful democratic transitions must include a military organization open to change and a civilian leadership that exercises its oversight responsibilities. The Myth of the Democratic Peacekeeper contributes to international relations theory and to substantive issues in civil-military relations and comparative politics. It provides a novel argument about how peacekeeping works and further insight into how international factors affect domestic politics as well as how international institutions affect democratizing efforts.

Integración, seguridad y democracia en América Latina Ángel L. Florido Alejo, 2013-12-03. El ideal de una integración entre las naciones que conforman América Latina tiene más de dos siglos y no ha logrado concretarse pese a las ventajas que representa para ellas. Los autores de esta obra analizan los diversos intereses internos y externos que lo han impedido, como las rencillas locales, la disputa por la riqueza mineral del subcontinente y la

MERCOSUR Economic Integration ASEAN Studies Centre,2009 In January 1992 the leaders of ASEAN gathered for their fourth summit meeting to sign an agreement called the Common Effective Preferential Tariff for the creation of the ASEAN Free Trade Area The significance of this step arose notably from the fact that it formally marked the shift of the ASEAN economic enterprise from one of economic cooperation to one towards economic integration Among the spurs that goaded ASEAN to undertake the shift was the rise of economic regionalism in several other parts of the world One of those regions was the southern cone of Latin America where the Treaty of Asuncin had been signed in 1991 to create the Mercado Comn del Sur MERCOSUR or Common Market of the South Recently ASEAN has sought political and economic linkages not only with Latin America as a whole through the Rio Group at the United Nations or through the Forum for East Asian and Latin Americal Cooperation FEALAC but also more narrowly and directly with MERCOSUR At their July 2008 meeting the ASEAN foreign ministers announced the decision to hold the inaugural ASEAN MERCOSUR Ministerial Meeting in Brasilia on 24 November 2008 It is in this light that the ASEAN Studies Centre of the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies in Singapore requested the United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean and Dr Pang Eul Soo and Dr Laura Jarnagin professors in Colorado School of Mines in the United States to do two separate studies from two different viewpoints on the experience of MERCOSUR and on the lessons that experience may hold for ASEAN
