secreta y reflexiva de anotaciones sobre experiencias que se viven día a día la opinión y subjetividad en relación con hechos ordinarios la memoria biográfica y las pulsaciones del inconsciente entre otros aspectos dan origen al diario íntimo un género literario moderno que en Chile ha carecido de popularidad tanto en sus manifestaciones como en la exposición de sus cultores Esta práctica que sitúa la vida personal y su ejercicio cotidiano como foco articula el libro que presentamos y que a través de once ensayos entrega una mirada que invita a conocer sus cultores y un análisis detallado sobre lo que acontece para ser parte de este hasta ahora poco explorado género. Es así como el autor nos invita a desentrañar los cambios y la evolución en la primera etapa del siglo XX de esta secreta práctica a identificar el yo como un punto de inicio en la creación artística literaria y cómo esto se conecta con los estados sociales y culturales de la modernidad. Autobiographical Writings on Mexico Richard D. Woods, 2024-10-14 This is the definitive bibliography of autobiographical writings on Mexico. The book incorporates works by Mexicans and foreigners with authors ranging from disinherited peasants, women, servants, and revolutionaries to more famous painters, writers, singers, journalists, and politicians. Primary sources of historic and artistic value, the writings listed provide multiple perspectives on Mexico's past and give clues to a national Mexican identity. This work presents 1,850 entries including autobiographies, memoirs, collections of letters, diaries, oral autobiographies, interviews, and autobiographical novels and essays. Over 1,500 entries list works from native-born Mexicans written between 1691 and 2003. Entries include basic bibliographical data: genre, author's life dates, narrative dates, available translations into English, and annotation. The bibliography is indexed by author, title, and subject, and appendices provide a chronological listing of works and a list of selected outstanding autobiographies. Diary of Frida Kahlo Carlos Fuentes, 1998-03-01 Mexican artist Frida Kahlo (1907-1954) remains a compelling force in the art world. This facsimile of her remarkable diary reveals the passion and enormous strength of the last ten years of her anguished life. 338 illustrations, 167 in color. Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary, as e.g. the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator, and figure, or issues of individual and cultural styles, etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age, where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits, and autofiction, as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects, and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition, special emphasis is placed on the modes of self-representation in non-Western cultures and on inter- and transcultural perspectives of the genre. The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross-references. The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies, students, as well as non-academic readers. The Prado Museum Expansion Bridget V. Franco, 2023-09-26 From 2001 to 2007 the world-renowned Prado Museum in Madrid, Spain, underwent an ambitious expansion project that reorganized the spatial design of the museum and allowed for additional exhibition space. Coinciding with the completion of this large construction project were a series of celebrations surrounding the 2010 bicentenary of South American independence movements, a clear reminder of the complicated relationship between Spain and its former colonies in Latin America Inspired by this significant historical moment and with an eye to diversifying its predominantly Spanish centered permanent collection the Prado Museum decides to host a competition for a new gallery of Latin American art The game begins in 2010 as students assuming the roles of curators art patrons living artists and art dealers set into motion a series of negotiation sessions that will help the museum decide which artworks to choose for the new gallery Students will analyze a broad range of artistic movements and styles related to Latin American art from the twentieth to the twenty first centuries in an effort to support the acquisition of paintings that best represent the diverse artistic legacies and historical heritage of the region Rethinking
