absence and mourning The editors carefully distinguish the collective cultural dimension of historical trauma from the individual psychological experience of the aftermath of a violent history always taking into account unresolved social justice issues The volume also addresses the association of the spectral photographic image with the concept of haunting because of the photograph's ability to reveal a presence that is traditionally absent or has been excluded from hegemonic representations of society The volume concludes with a series of studies that address the unseen effects and progressive deterioration of the social fabric as a result of a globalized economy and neoliberal policies from the modernization of the nation state to present
