La India María Seraina Rohrer, 2017-12-20 La India María a humble and stubborn indigenous Mexican woman is one of the most popular characters of the Mexican stage television and film Created and portrayed by María Elena Velasco La India María has delighted audiences since the late 1960s with slapstick humor that slyly critiques discrimination and the powerful At the same time however many critics have derided the iconic figure as a racist depiction of a negative stereotype and dismissed the India María films as exploitation cinema unworthy of serious attention By contrast La India María builds a convincing case for María Elena Velasco as an artist whose work as a director and producer rare for women in Mexican cinema has been widely and unjustly overlooked Drawing on extensive interviews with Velasco her family and film industry professionals as well as on archival research Seraina Rohrer offers the first full account of Velasco's life her portrayal of La India María in vaudeville television and sixteen feature film comedies including Ni de aquí ni de allá Neither here nor there and her controversial reception in Mexico and the United States Rohrer traces the films financing production and distribution as well as censorship practices of the period and compares them to other Mexploitation films produced at the same time Adding a new chapter to the history of a much understudied period of Mexican cinema commonly referred to as la crisis this pioneering research
