Growing Up on Florida's Gulf Beaches 1947-1960 Pat Kennedy, RN, Cnp, Mscn, 2016-10-19 I have written a beautiful book about my memories growing up on the Gulf Beaches between 1947 and 1960 My book describes the environment changes that took place during those years with feelings of beauty appreciation and sadness This book also draws your interest with real life experiences something like Tom Sawyer only in the eyes of a young girl with an adventurous spirit I share with my family This book is fast pace and is different because I have put my heart and soul into my memories Hope you enjoy the reading as much as I enjoyed the writing

Grown and Gone, But Not Forgotten Ron Fuller, 2020-11-07 This is a collection of short stories mostly from my childhood growing up in Central Florida Most of the stories are true and my characters are real However I have included some stories that have just enough truth to keep it real and just enough embellishment to keep it entertaining I began writing these stories as a journal of sorts to be able to pass on to my children and grandchildren some stories of my childhood After I wrote five or six I thought I had exhausted all my memories However as I wrote one memory led to another and another and so on I had always been convinced that my childhood had been relatively insignificant As I took the opportunity to look back on my childhood through the eyes of a man in his 60 s I slowly began to realize I had a great childhood I just didn t realize it at the time You see neglected to ask my grandparents parents aunts uncles and siblings enough questions to really get to know them I knew what their adult lives were like but I now wonder what their childhood was like As I wrote I would post on Facebook Group pages for my hometown which was the Winter Haven Auburndale area The stories seemed to hit home with many folks and I was encouraged to assemble my stories into a book I also created a few videos about growing up and I have included links to those in the ebook edition      Growing up in Rural Florida Ronald Martin,2010-09-27 Here readers will witness how it is like to live in a rural area where life remains simple amidst the modern world Martin begins by introducing a few essential things in rural Florida such as cow whips Used to drive cattle a cow whip is part of a cowboys work tools Anyone who could really work one was something special Where there are cowboys there are also horses and saddles and the author shares how he and his brother yearned to have one in their youth He also takes readers on Florida summers and fishing trips where some of his most treasured childhood memories took place From remembering the chickens at their backyard hot peppers as staple condiments hunting trips holiday food family and more Martin gives readers a nostalgic feeling of familiarity and memories of home Growing Up In Rural Florida is not only a book that features culture but also encourages people to look back at their own past and relive moments as if it were yesterday      Growing Up Wet Clifford McKay, Jr.,2017-02-12 In the fall of 1943 when the Army transferred his father to Florida a nine year old boy recovering from a life threatening case of pneumonia moved to Clearwater Beach and dove into the Gulf of Mexico and basked in the Florida sun He swam learned to row sail and race and competed with top Snipe sailors from all over the United States Nurtured and taught by the Gulf and by a group of skilled and generous men he grew from a small boy to a young man His love of sailing took him to Jamestown New York Charleston South Carolina West Palm Beach Florida and Havana Cuba He grew up a free range adventure seeking boy with only a bathing suit for armor with confidence and discipline taught him by the water
